College of Engineering News

January 2, 2018

Georgia Southern University

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/cec-news

Part of the Engineering Commons

Recommended Citation

https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/cec-news/78

This article is brought to you for free and open access by the Engineering & Computing, Allen E. Paulson College of - Publications at Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. It has been accepted for inclusion in Engineering & Computing, Allen E. Paulson College of - News by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@georgiasouthern.edu.
On December 12, the University System of Georgia Board of Regents approved resolutions making the consolidation Armstrong State University and Georgia Southern University official as of January 1, 2018. As an academic unit of the consolidated Georgia Southern University, our college name has changed. We are the new Allen E. Paulson College of Engineering and Computing!

We have added four Master of Science programs and two Bachelor of Science programs. Some departments have changed their names to reflect the new degree programs.

- The department of Civil Engineering and Construction Management has become Civil Engineering and Construction, adding a B.S. in Construction Engineering and M.S. in Civil Engineering.

- The department of Computer Sciences has changed its name to Computer Science.

- The department of Electrical Engineering has become Electrical and Computer Engineering, adding a B.S. in Computer Engineering and M.S. in Electrical Engineering.

- The department of Information Technology has added the MS in Information Technology.

- The department of Mechanical Engineering has added the M.S. in Mechanical Engineering.

For additional information please see our consolidation updates.