Idle Money

There is idle money in every community—money not in use, not even safely deposited in a reliable bank. It is hid away, carried on the person, liable to loss by fire, theft, and many other causes. Idle money makes no one a cent. Its the money in circulation that stimulates business. The more money in circulation, the higher the prices and the lower the rates of interest. Bring your idle money to this bank, where it will be safe, and always subject to your check. It will help you, it will help us, it will help the community. Idle money is as useless to business as an idle man.

MORSE IS SET FREE DEATH SOON TO FOLLOW

The Banker-Convict's Sentence of 15 Years Commuted by President Taft, Who Orders Liberty for Disease-Racked Man. "Ice King's" Wife Fought Valiantly to Open Prison Doors. Surgeon General Gives Morse 6 Months to Live.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 18.—President Taft tonight commuted to expire immediately the 15-year sentence for violation of the national banking laws, under which Charles W. Morse, the New York banker and "ice king," served two years in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta.

The commutation of sentence, which gives Morse his complete freedom, but which, unlike a pardon, does not restore his civil rights, was granted upon recommendation of Attorney General Wickersham and Surgeon General Torney, U. S. A. According to the Surgeon General's report to the President on his condition, Morse could not live one month longer in confinement and even at liberty probably would not live six months.

The White House statement granting freedom to Morse follows:

"The President this afternoon commuted the sentence of Charles W. Morse to expire at once. This action was taken upon the recommendation of the Attorney General, based upon the following report of Surgeon General Torney:

Hasn't Long to Live.

"A careful review of these reports makes it clear to my mind that he is suffering from a combination of diseases due to degenerative changes which are incurable and progressive. The reports show that both the condition of the kidneys and the heart are growing worse. I regard the attack of cardiac dyspnoea, or heart-block, from which he suffered on the morning of the 15th inst. as an ominous occurrence. In my opinion the prisoner's duration of life will be in all probability less than one month if kept in confinement, and in the event of his release under commutation of sentence, it is not probable that he will live as long as 6 months."

Mrs. Morse, who arrived today from New York, was informed late this afternoon of the President's clemency to her husband. She left tonight for Atlanta to join her husband. While here she was the guest of friends and refused to be seen.

Designated as a special messenger by the Attorney General's office Mrs. Morse left Washington tonight for Atlanta bearing her husband's commutation papers.

"I thank God," declared Mrs. Morse in speaking of her husband's case before departing for Atlanta. "I could not have lived longer under the strain. My heart was breaking. Mr. Morse's life is almost ended. No human being can know the suffering I have endured since my husband's imprisonment. I tried every means to bring about his release. President Taft's act was one of simple justice. If my husband did any wrong he has more than paid the penalty. His life has been forfeited. I have always believed that he was an innocent man, the scapegoat of others. I have no hope that my husband will live more than two months even though we can get him to Carlsbad, unavailing.

FIVE KILLED IN CENTRAL WRECK

Smash-Up At Jonesboro. South Atlantic Limited Crashes Into Freight.

Atlanta, Jan. 18.—Five persons, Engineer William Clark, of Macon, a negro porter and three negro passengers, two women, were killed in a wreck at Jonesboro, 20 miles south of Atlanta, at an early hour this morning when the South Atlantic Limited, handled by the Central of Georgia Railroad between here and Macon, collided with a freight train.

Baggage Master J. E. Puckett of College Park, was injured.

Reports from the wreck are to the effect that none of the white passengers were seriously injured, though a number sustained cuts and bruises.

The South Atlantic Limited is operated between Cincinnati and Jacksonville, Fla., by the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, and at Atlanta, cars of the Central are added to the train when it takes the Central of Georgia trunks to Macon.

An official report of the wreck shows that the accident was due to the overlooking or disregard of train orders, for the freight train which left Macon for Atlanta last night, to wait in the siding at Jonesboro for the passenger train to pass, moving from Atlanta to Macon. The freight was in charge of Conductor Watson and Engineer Clark and had left the east siding at Jonesboro less than ten minutes when the passenger train in charge of Conductor Harris and Engineer Collins, dashed head on into it.

Investigation showed Engineer Clark of the freight was killed outright; Mack Clayton, colored porter of the passenger train, was dead; Baggage Master Puckett of the passenger, who lives at College Park, seriously injured internally; Ed McWhorter of Macon, colored fireman, slightly hurt. Of the passengers, all colored, who had been riding in the combination baggage and day coach, two women and one man were killed, though their names were not given in the report. This coach left the rails and turned over, but the coaches in which the white passengers were riding remained on the rails. The passengers were severely shaken up. No white passengers were killed.

where he will have the benefit of the baths. I have no criticism to make against any one who know all the officers acted according to a sense of duty. But it is hard to think that my husband's life has been taken from him and that he is paying the forfeit with his life. The judge never intended to sentence him to death."

The Attorney General immediately following the President's action, telegraphed to Warden Moyer of the Atlanta penitentiary, who technically was in charge of Morse, even though he had been removed to the Fort McPherson hospital, to release the prisoner. The army surgeons at Fort McPherson were instructed similarly. Morse will be freed by telegraphic orders. Effort made for a complete pardon were unavailing.

WILL SIGN WARRANTS FOR TEACHERS' SALARIES

Atlanta, Jan. 17.—Governor Slaton will sign warrants today for between $1,000,000 and $1,500,000, to be paid on the salaries of the public school teachers, still due for their work in 1911. The state still owes the teachers about 59 per cent of the total, and this remaining per cent is about covered by $1,500,000. If it turns out that the whole sum cannot be drawn now, about two-thirds of it will be paid, and the remainder within a week or two.

The poor in Atlanta are suffering terribly from the cold, but thus far no death has been reported.

Charles Durham, Lovington, Ill., has succeeded in finding a positive cure for bed wetting. "My little boy wet the bed every night clear through on the floor. I tried several kind of kidney medicines and I was in the drug store looking for something different to help him when I heard of Foley Kidney Pills. After he had taken them two days we could see a change and when he had taken two thirds of a bottle he was cured. That is about six weeks ago and he has not wet in bed since." W. H. Ellis Co.

FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS

"WAR IN CHRIST'S NAME"

Atlanta, Jan. 17.—"War in Christ's Name," is what a group of Atlanta business men have named a campaign they have just undertaken on the social and religious evils of the day.

What methods they will use has not been divulged, but it is understood they are going to wage a determined and active fight on all forms of vice in Atlanta. They are going to try to clean out the red light district, and help prosecute the blind tigers, and see that the clubs are regulated, and make Atlanta as nearly a Christian city as is possible, so they say.

BOLT THREATENED BY LA FOLLETTE.

Republican Committee Is Scared by Wisconsin Senator, Declares That He is Not Hidebound, But Will Join Any Party That Will Restore Rule to the People—Makes Impression on Ohians.

North Baltimore, Ohio, Dec. 29.—Senator La Follette, on the third day of his progressive missionary work in Ohio, came here today from Toledo and discussed the initiative, referendum and the recall, the progressive movement in Wisconsin and combinations, and trusts, but spoke chiefly on primary elections in government.

"The very backbone of true representative government is direct primary," the speaker declared. "is the direct proposition in the affairs of government by the people through direct primaries for the nomination of candidates."

He said old machine politicians have always opposed primary elections. He continued:

"The national Republican committee is almost wholly composed of men who are opposed to the primary principle. In its recent meeting in Washington this committee went on record not only as opposing voluntary primary elections in states where there is no law prohibiting them, but by failing directly to recognize the law in the states that have provided for the election of delegates to the national convention in primary elections."

Senator La Follette declared that the supreme court ruling as to "reasonable restraint of trade" was an usurpation of power.

He said that he was not a "hidebound Republican," and would join any party that could do better towards restoring rule to the people."

Charles Durham, Lovington, Ill., has succeeded in finding a positive cure for bed wetting. "My little boy wet the bed every night clear through on the floor. HUNTER INSTANTLY KILLED TRYING TO SAVE DOG.

Columbia, S. C., Dec. 29.—Attempting to save his dog from death beneath a locomotive, Mr. George F. Blackwell, of this city, but a native of Elberton, Ga., was struck and instantly killed yesterday afternoon by a Southern Railway train just outside the city limits.

Mr. Blackwell and one of his sons had been hunting and were overtaken by a train on a small trestle. They stepped out on a platform to wait the passing of the train, but just as the engine approached, one of the dogs stepped on the track.

While attempting to pull the animal back Mr. Blackwell was struck by the engine.

Foley Kidney Pills always give satisfaction because they always do the work. T. J. Shelmut, Bremen, Ga., says: "I have used Foley Kidney Pills with great satisfaction and found more relief from their use than from any other kidney medicine, and I've tried almost all kinds. I can cheerfully recommend them to all sufferers for kidney and bladder trouble." W. H. Ellis Co.

Medicines that aid nature are always most effectual. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy acts on this plan. It allays the cough, relieves the lungs, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. Thousands have testified to its superior excellence. Sold by all druggists.

TOWN WITHOUT AN ARREST; JUDGE IDLE.

Pretty Prairie, Kans., Comes Close to Being an Utopian Realty.

Pretty Prairie, Kan., Dec. 30.—This is a town without a police force, without a jail, without arrests and with a police judge who has nothing to do. It has, however, a town pump in the middle of the main street, and there, for a quarter of a century, the farmers and their teams have slacked their thirst all unwittingly—and they remain so today—of any individual drinking cup crusade.

The new time card on the Santa Fe does not bear the business of Pretty Prairie. It is problematical what the effect on that thriving community would be if the evening train from the South failed to arrive.

The arrival of this train marks the close of the business day in Pretty Prairie. When the engine whistles, the clerks chase out the cat, wind up the clock, bank the stove, put out the lights and get ready to go home. If the train happens to be a few minutes late this routine is tried accordingly.

Any entertainment scheduled for the evening in Pretty Prairie begins immediately after the departure of this train.

Judge Hamlin was elected to preside over the police court, but his services have never been needed. The judge is a man of peace; he does not believe in quarrels among his neighbors, and he is firmly convinced that arrests can be avoided if everybody will practice the Golden Rule.

If anybody in Pretty Prairie has troubles or grief of any kind he goes to Judge Hamlin with them.

In D. A. Voran Pretty Prairie has the youngest mayor in the state. He and the members of council are thoroughly in harmony with Judge Hamlin in his views concerning the government of the city.

Pretty Prairie has a newspaper, Pretty Prairie Times, a new school building and a town hall.

EIGHT PEARLS IN OYSTER.

(From the New York World.) Mrs. George O. Starr, wife of an embalmer living at 14 South Tenth avenue, Mount Vernon, bought a quart of oysters yesterday and served them last night. Mr. Starr speared one with a fork and was about to swallow it, when something rough struck the roof of his mouth.

He investigated and there nestled on the edge of the oyster, was a pearl. The rest of the oysters were examined and seven more pearls were found. Six of the pearls are small, but two are as large as a good-sized pea. Mrs. Starr claims the pearls because she bought the oysters.

Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is a reliable family medicine. Give it to your children, and take it yourself when you feel a cold coming on. It checks and cures coughs and colds and croup and prevents bronchitis and pneumonia. W. C. Ellis Co.

REFUSES BOARD OF HEALTH PROBE.

Atlanta, Jan. 25.—It developed this morning that the refusal of the senate to act on Senator Beauchamp's resolution providing for a board of health probe was due altogether to the fact that the resolution was deemed out of order at this particular time, and not because the senate as a whole denies the necessity of such a probe.

It is considered probable that Senator Beauchamp will introduce his resolution again at the regular session in the summer and that the legislature may then authorize a full investigation of the charges brought by Dr. Willis Westmoreland against Dr. H. F. Harris, the secretary of the board.

CHILD SENDS DOG FOR AID; ROVER RETURNS WITH IT.

All Ill in Home, She Trusted Her Pet to Bear a Note to Kind Friends.

New York, Jan. 25.—Vincent Paul Crennan, commissioner of charities of New Rochelle, was interrupted at dinner yesterday by the whining at his kitchen door of a big Newfoundland. The dog carried in his mouth the following note, scrawled in a child's handwriting:

"Dear Mr. Crennan, if Rover brings this to you, won't you please come and help us? Mama and papa and Willie are all sick, and now I am sick, too, and we have no coal or nothing to eat."

The note bore the name and address of a family on Union ave., West New Rochelle, whom the commissioner had helped a few days ago. The mother is an invalid, the father, who is out of work, was taken ill with grip last Monday and their son on Wednesday. Their ten-year-old daughter tried to do the house work and cooking besides acting as nurse. She and Rover called on Commissioner Crennan on Friday, and he sent them groceries and meat.

When Commissioner Crennan reached the house yesterday afternoon, carrying a bag of coal, meat and groceries from his own cellar, the little girl told him that she did not know how to get a message to him, as they had not a nickel in the house to pay for a telephone call.

"Rover was lying in front of the cold stove and I thought he might find you, because he went with me on Friday. So I wrote the note and gave it to him and told him to take it to you, and he did. He is a good dog."

BLAMES JACK FROST AND GEORGE AKERS.

Atlant, Jan. 25.—Blaming Jack Frost and George Akers for a series of unique misfortunes, which include the loss of his wife's thumb, K. Smith McAllister, a business man of this city, has filed suit for damages against Mr. Akers, being unable to find any way to get even with Jack Frost.

Mr. McAllister rents from Mr. Akers. He says he has had no steam heat for the past forty days and that as the result of that cold one of his children has pneumonia, another has the grippe his wife cut off her left thumb with a hatchet while engaged in the unaccustomed task of chopping up wood for a small grate, while he himself has been compelled to neglect business and hire an extra servant. The suit is filed in the local superior court.

Every family has need of a good reliable liniment. For sprains, bruises, soreness of the muscles and rheumatic pains there is none better than Chamberlain's. Sold by all dealers.

Farm for Rent.

One hundred and fifty acres of good farm lands, in high state of cultivation, known as the D. L. Kennedy lands, located near Jimps. Will rent for standing rent to good tenants. Will divide to suit. For further particulars apply to

This $900 Car Measures Up With Any $1250 Car on the Market

EVERY man likes to make each dollar go as far as possible. He is wasting no money! Whether he buys a piano, suit of clothes, or an automobile, he continually looks for the greatest value he can get for any given amount of money. If a 30-horsepower, five-passenger touring car of standard make can be bought for $900, why on earth should he pay $1250 or more for the same type of car?

Our Model 59 is a 30-horsepower, five-passenger fore-door touring car. The price is $900. It is a big, roomy, thoroughly high grade car. The motor will develop more power and speed than you will ever care to use. It has a handsome body design—graceful and good to look at. The pressed steel frame is staunch and solid. The selective transmission is fitted with F. & S. bearings—the finest in the world. In a word it is just as good and fine as this type of car can be made. You will not find its equal for less than $1250, and a comparison of the specifications with any other 30-horsepower car will prove this statement.

This car at this price is due to the enormous manufacturing facilities of the Overland Company, which is the greatest plant of its kind in the world. They have just published a very thorough book which explains in a clear, definite and readable manner the difference in automobile plants. And the point of this whole book is to prove the economical manufacturing ability of the Overland plants—to prove its strength by showing and explaining to you the interior and exterior of the greatest automobile plant in the world. It takes you over the entire 80 acres. The book is free and we want you to have one. It is interesting and full of information.

Above all it gives you a clear understanding of economics in the production of automobiles in great quantities, and we believe it proves why no other manufacturer in the business can produce the car described below and sell it at this price without losing money.

A telephone call to us will bring you this new Overland book. It explains what they are and what they have got and why other cars of similar size and rating are from twenty to forty per cent. higher in price. Get one of these books at once.

WHY NOT TRY THE EXPERIMENT NOW.

We hear a great deal from the Underwood spiders about the nerve of Southern men placing before the voters of the country a Southern man and try out the folks across the Mason and Dixon's line and see if they won't vote for one of our men? They tell us the time is ripe for the South to put out a man and let the whole country pass on him.

It seems to us if the time is ripe for this experiment that in the Democratic primaries now being held in every state in the Union would have offered an excellent opportunity to have tested this question.

If the people of the Great North and West are willing to take Mr. Underwood why not have submitted him to the Democrats of the country. Why didn't they run him in the Democratic primaries? If the Democrats of these states are not ready to receive him, in the name of high heaven do you expect the Republicans to do it. The Democratic primaries would have proven the test.

If you have a craft that you are afraid to float in a small creek what's the sense in taking it out on the high seas?

The truth of it is they know that Oscar W. Underwood would not have polled a corporal's guard in any state beyond those bordering on his own. They know that he would have been knocked out of the box and his candidacy knocked into a cocked hat, therefore they didn't try him.

RANDOLPH ANDERSON ADDRESSES VOTERS

Statesman from Chatham Appeals to Voters to Stand by Underwood. A Good Size Crowd Out.

On Wednesday, following the address of Hon. Joe Hill Hall at the noon hour of court, Hon. J. Randolph Anderson delivered an address in behalf of the candidacy of Hon. Oscar W. Underwood in his race for the Democratic nomination for the Presidency. The speaker was introduced by Col. J. J. E. Anderson.

Mr. Anderson branched off in the subject, pitching the first part of his address far above the heads of the crowd, it being more a discussion of general issues and explanation of the great principles for which the Democratic party stood. He was only preparing a foundation for what he intended to say later in behalf of the personal claims of his candidate. He stated that he was personally acquainted with both Mr. Underwood and Gov. Wilson, having been in college with them both at The University of Virginia. He gave a brief account of the stewardship of Mr. Underwood as floor leader of the Democrats in Congress, and while he made an eloquent appeal for his candidate, at no time did he vilify the name or claims of Gov. Wilson. This was so much different from the attitude of Mr. Cowan the day before that it commented the speech of the Savannahian to the intelligence of the crowd.

Mr. Anderson made it known first of all that he was a Democrat, and while he had his personal choice he didn't intend to say anything about any Democrat that would prevent him giving them his hearty support as nominee of the party at the polls this fall.

Mr. Anderson believed that Roosevelt would beat Taft for the nomination, and thought with Roosevelt as the nominee of the Republicans Underwood would be the man the Democrats ought to put out.

Gov. Wilson was arraigned for his advocacy of the principle of the initiative and referendum. While the speaker admitted that Mr. Wilson while down this way thought it ought to be confined to the different states, so that the doctrine of state rights could be preserved, yet he favored a man who opposed these isms. He was opposed to the principle for the reason that we would then have a government of the people, instead of one based on permanent established law. He said that if we had the initiative and referendum as advocated by Woodrow Wilson that the people would have a right to go to the ballot box at any given election and by their ballots wipe off the statute books any law they happened to consider obnoxious. This would be bringing the Government too close to the people. Therefore, he appealed to the voters to support a man who was against this principle, instead of Woodrow Wilson, who was in favor of the initiative and referendum, which was dangerous, because it gave the voters the right to repeal laws at the ballot box.

Mr. Anderson had recently spent much time in New York, Boston and Washington, where he had occasion to meet a great many Republicans who thought Mr. Underwood would be an excellent man for the Democrats to nominate. He talked with delegates from Pennsylvania who had been instructed to vote for Woodrow Wilson at Baltimore, who said they would vote for Underwood. He failed to state, however, that the Democratic Convention of Pennsylvania who had named these delegates had adopted the unit rule, and that in the primaries before the Democratic masses of Pennsylvania Mr. Underwood failed to poll a single vote. This seemed to strike the crowd as a rather peculiar circumstance, that a man who couldn't get a single vote at the hands of the common people at the polls would have delegates ready to vote for him at the convention. He believed that Mr. Underwood was the choice of the Democratic delegation from New York, though he again failed to say that Mr. Underwood didn't get a single vote in the New York Convention, and the head of the delegation to Baltimore is Senator O'Gorman, the leader of the Woodrow Wilson forces in that state.

Mr. Anderson's address was well delivered and created a strong impression. There were those present who didn't agree with his propositions, of course, but they couldn't help but admire the clean and conservative manner in which it was put, and the spirit of harmony and submission to the inevitable that seemed to lurk all the way through its discourse.

NEXT WEDNESDAY ELECTION DAY.

The candidates are now making the last lap in the county primary race, which will come to an end next Wednesday. At this time the winners cannot be selected. All of the candidates are in high hope and have assurances of success.

Coat Lost.

UNDERWOOD COMMITTEE GOES BACK ON WATSON.

Believing as they did that they had waited until all the Georgia Weeklies had gone to press for the last time before the election, the Underwood campaign committee have thrown down Mr. Thomas E. Watson and embraced the Roman Catholic vote instead.

It is a known fact that Mr. Watson is the original Underwood man in Georgia; it was he who was supporting Underwood when the other big birds were floundering around looking for a roosting place. It is also a notorious fact that Mr. Watson has rendered himself unpopular with the Roman Catholic vote on account of his repeated attacks on their religion in the columns of his Weekly Jeffersonian, and the fact that he was espousing the Underwood cause made the Catholic vote in the large cities grow cold-footed towards his candidate.

The Savannah Morning News of Sunday carries a remarkable production; an interview from Mr. A. O. O'Beirne, of Savannah, who, in appealing to his brother Catholics in Savannah, assures them that he has the assurances from the Underwood people that in the event that Mr. Underwood carries Georgia that Mr. Watson will not be allowed to go as a delegate to the National Convention. The language of Mr. O'Beirne is as follows:

"Mr. Underwood's managers have given me the positive assurance that in the event Mr. Underwood carries the state in the primary Mr. Watson will not go to Baltimore as one of the delegates."

Now if this is not a slap square in the face to Mr. Watson and every friend he has in Georgia, then we confess that we don't know what slapping in the face means.

The Catholic vote is assured that Mr. Watson will be disfranchised and not allowed to go as an Underwood delegate. Now this is the most remarkable production of the entire campaign. The man who has spent the best years of his life fighting Catholicism, is now notified that he must bend his knee to the Catholic church.

There has never before been exhibited a more desperate effort to steal the state from Gov. Wilson. They don't hesitate at any methods, its anything from flooding the country counties with Steel trust money for the purpose of "giving 'em hell, and rattling to opposition," to trading off the man who started the fight and sacrificing him to his bitterest enemies.

If Underwood carries Georgia, Mike O'Beirne will go as a delegate from the State at large, while Mr. Watson will be left at home with the answer "we haven't got time to talk to you now," as was the case when he insisted on a compliance with a promise on the appointment of the Commissioner of Agriculture.

"I am assured by the Underwood managers that Mr. Watson will not be allowed to go to Baltimore." If this don't catch the Catholic vote then its a far-fetched effort spent in vain.

The Underwood managers believe that One Hundred Dollars contributed to each county will vote the country crackers and now they are making terms with the Catholic vote in the large cities, and the humiliation of Tom Watson is the price they are offering for it.

That's a big price, but they must have it and they are paying the cost. What do they care for Watson now? He has done the work for them in the country counties, and the weekly papers have all gone to press. Mr. Watson's mouth is closed until its too late for his friends to get on. It's a shrewd scheme that only the satellites of the Standard Oil and Steel Trust are capable of working off. It's a last dying effort to save themselves from overwhelming defeat which awaits them on Wednesday.

It's an awful price, but the case is desperate and the ends justify the means.

Let the result be as it may the humiliation of Mr. Watson at the hands of the Underwood Committee is the crowning infamy of the campaign.

"Take This $100 and Give 'Em Hell in Morgan Co."

Here with is reproduced a copy of a letter that appears somewhat sensational under the eye of "pitiless publicity." Georgians will read it with acute interest.

The original was written on the stationery of Underwood headquarters in Atlanta. It was addressed to J. E. Gardner, editor of the Clarke County Courier, a weekly newspaper published at Athens. It was dropped by Mr. Gardner on the floor of the Georgia National Bank at Athens, on April 21 or 22. It was picked up by John Burch, of Athens, who still has it in his possession. Here is the letter:

"ATLANTA, GA., April 20, 1912

"Mr. J. E. Gardner, Athens, Ga.

"DEAR SIR: we want you to give them HELL in Morgan county. I enclose you check for one hundred ($100) dollars.

"I suggest that you use it for barbecue and that you get out a good crowd and rattle the opposition. Or you can use it in getting the vote out.

"I leave it entirely with you.

"Yours truly, (Signed) G. R. HUTCHENS."

Mr. Mutch read the letter at a glance and then showed it to a number of gentlemen. Among those who saw it and read it were John Welch, B. T. O. Edwards, W. D. Beacham, R. L. Moss, Jr., and W. C. Jordan, all of Athens. A number of others saw it and read it.

In the Republican Camp.

The Taft forces are worried and the Roosevelt whoopers up are claiming the universe, but the former are still far in the lead.
Even after Illinois, Pennsylvania,
Connecticut, Nebraska, Oregon and North Carolina were heard from, the figures read: Taft, 388;
Roosevelt, 239; LaFollette, 36; Cammisus, 4. In the end these figures may be modified, for many delegates are claimed by both sides, but if Taft can hold his 388 delegates, he will need to gain only 149. Among the states yet to elect delegates are the following:

Table listing states and delegate counts: Arizona 6, Arkansas 18, California 26, Idaho 8, Iowa 14, Kansas 20, Maryland 16, Massachusetts 36, Minnesota 24, Montana 8, Nevada 6, New Hampshire 8, New Jersey 28, New York 48, Rhode Island 10, South Dakota 10, Tennessee 14, Texas 40, Washington 14, West Virginia 16, Wyoming 6.

During this week state conventions will elect delegates at large from Iowa, Rhode Island and Missouri and district conventions will be held in Missouri, Indiana, Rhode Island, Iowa and Louisiana, as the total number of delegates involved is not large there is not likely to be much change for the next seven days.

One would think that only a tidal wave for Roosevelt could prevent the capture of 149 delegates for Taft out of all these States. But the uncertainty is intensified by the unreliability of the bread and butter delegates from the South who are always for the man with the best chance of success irrespective of every consideration.

While Roosevelt may fail of the nomination, his violent methods may produce two Republican factions so irreconcilable as to render a compromise on a third for the nomination imperative. Already there is talk of inducing Justice Hughes to resign from the supreme court in order to take the lead in his troubled party.—Macon Tele-

WILSON LEADERS ON IDENT OF WINNING IN COMING PRIMARY

(Augusta Herald.)
Mr. D. G. Fogarty has just returned to the city from Atlanta, where he had a conference with a number of Governor Woodrow Wilson's friends and he brings back the report that the Wilson leaders are sanguine of carrying the state for the New Jersey man and they enthusiastically predict that Fulton county will go for Wilson by at least 3,000 majority.
"There is no question but that Fulton county is very strong for Governor Wilson," said Mr. Fogarty Friday, "and that he will carry that county and also the state, is the firm conviction of the Wilson leaders."

Wilson has been gaining strength each day for some time and the people are beginning to realize the real truth about the opposition to Wilson in Georgia.
Mr. Fogarty says that the Wilson leaders feel that the universal education and revision will be concluded on August 1st and with his nomination also will go his election, since the Republicans are so hopelessly split between Taft and Roosevelt.

NEGRO FLOOD REFUGEE
IS LYNCHED BY MOB

Monroe, La.—Company D, of the Louisiana national guard sta-
o'clock this morning for Delhi, 30 miles east, where serious trouble with negroes developed last night. One negro was lynched and further trouble was anticipated. The company is in command of Capt. Philip Gayle.

The trouble which resulted in the lynching is attributed to the surliness and impudence of negro flood refugees, many of whom have refused to work since the government began distributing free rations among them. Yesterday several negroes were playing a slot machine in a store at Delhi, when an officer stepped in and put a penny in the machine.

With an oath, a negro is alleged to have stepped up and tried to put the officer out, declaring, "I'm playing dat machine."
After the white man had given the negro a good beating the latter is said to have threatened violence to white people in Delhi.

During the night a crowd gathered, caught the negro and lynched him.

At noon Delhi was reported quiet.

VOTERS OF THIS COUNTY!

Wednesday is election day. For the first time in history Georgians will have an opportunity of expressing their choice in an election for the nominee of the Democratic party. What will your choice be?
There are two candidates for Governor, Hon. Oscar W. Underwood of Alabama and Hon. Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey. Underwood is the leader of the Democratic party, one of the greatest men in public life today. He is a man of high character, a man of high intellect, a man of high courage, and a man of high ability. He has always supported the Democratic nominees. His party record is above reproach. He is a man of high character, a man of high intellect, a man of high courage, and a man of high ability. He has always supported the Democratic nominees. His party record is above reproach.

Oscar W. Underwood is admitted by every living man to be the greatest apostle of the lower tariff. For seventeen years day in and day out, he has labored with the tariff question, with a view to reducing the tariff on the necessities of life. The tariff is one issue every man understands. Every man knows and no man dare deny that high tariff is responsible for the high cost of living. The reason is simple. By putting a high tariff on any article, trusts in America can prevent outsiders from shipping that product into America, because they cannot ship it in except at a loss. This is the tariff wall which has been built around the people of America, and today food and clothing cost a great deal more than it did ten years ago. Every month you and your family eat costs much more and you daily pay a heavy toll to the tariff barons. How long shall this condition exist? The answer is, just as long as you permit it. How can you rid yourself of this awful tariff burden? The answer is, by getting a lower tariff or removing it entirely from the necessities of life. How can you remove this tariff? By voting for the man who favors removing the tariff from the necessities of life.

Oscar W. Underwood presented to congress a tariff bill, and successfully put it through. Taft vetoed it. If Underwood bills had become law, you would today be spending just one-half as much money for the necessities of life. The bill met the wishes of the farmers with free agricultural implements and free fence wire; the cotton growers with free bagging and ties; the builders with free lumber, laths and shingles; the poor seamstress and farmers wives with free sewing machines; and the great masses of the country and the city folk with free meat, free leather and shoes, free salt, free flour and free cereals. Of course, this does not mean that you would have gotten these things free of charge, but it means that a duty of 50 per cent would have been removed from them and that you would have gotten them just about one-half as cheap as you get them now.

Mr. Underwood recently presented to congress a bill to take the tariff off of sugar. It has been passed by the house of representatives. The government would lose fifty million dollars a year by this, but Mr. Underwood provided a way of making up this loss. It was to tax the incomes of the rich—up but a small tax on every man's bank book where he had an income exceeding five thousand dollars. Thus it took the tax off of the poor man's stomach and put it on the rich man's bank book. The tariff is the one great burning question before the American people and it can be settled, and should be settled in this election.

We have naught to say against Hon. Woodrow Wilson or any other candidate in the field. We cannot, however, agree with him, or understand how he can say, as he did in his Atlanta speech and in a dozen other speeches in Georgia, "Why discuss the tariff? Why discuss the tariff? Because it is a question that affects every mother's son of us. The tariff baron is knawing at our vitals. The burden is too great for us to bear."

If you vote for Hon. Oscar Underwood, you vote for the one man running in Georgia in this election who insists that the tariff is the one great question, and who will, and who is obligated, if elected, to give you relief.

UNDERWOOD'S CHANCES.
We do not advocate Mr. Underwood solely because he is a Southern man; that is but one of his qualifications. But we do think that now, when the South for the first time in fifty years, has an opportunity to put a Southerner in the White House, she should not shrink because she fears he might not be nominated. There are some seven or eight Democratic candidates in the field, and no candidate will have a majority of the votes on the first ballot in Baltimore, where the Democratic convention will be held. Under the rules of the Democratic party, the man who is nominated must get two-thirds of the vote in the convention. While the other candidates have been touring the country, making speeches, stirring up hard feeling, which is always caused by an active political campaign, Mr. Underwood has remained at his post of duty, and is the one candidate who has refused to leave it. As a result, he has the second choice with nearly all the candidates and will be with nearly all the delegates. Can it not then be seen that when the convention gets dissolved, Mr. Underwood will be the natural man for the others to turn to when they see that their favorite cannot be nominated?

If it looks now as if the solid South will be for Underwood, no candidate in the history of either party has ever secured the nomination or been elected without the vote of New York. New York will have an undivided delegation at the convention, and then can vote as they please, except that the unit rule will prevail and they must all vote solidly for the same man. How will New York vote? The Democratic state committee of New York has adopted resolutions endorsing the tariff measures of Mr. Underwood and condemning the initiative, referendum and recall, which are the main policies advocated by Governor Wilson. The New York Herald and other great Eastern papers say that it looks as if Mr. Underwood will get the last to make such a statement. It is only made in this state, with an object of defeating Mr. Underwood. Georgia is going for Underwood. The Atlanta Constitution has just completed a later canvass of the state. They sought the opinion of eighteen hundred prominent Georgians, both Wilson and Underwood men, and this poll showed that Underwood would carry over one hundred counties in Georgia. The same method was pursued by the Constitution last December in the race for governor, and the Democrat at that time as between Joe Brown, Pope Brown and Dick Russell, was so accurate that they did not miss it more than five counties in the case of any one man. Let every man vote his conviction, and let Georgia endorse the record of Mr. Underwood. To vote against Mr. Underwood is to refuse to endorse the unappreciated record made by the Democratic party this year in congress.

THE ISSUE BEFORE THE PEOPLE.

Tomorrow (Wednesday) the people of Georgia will be called on to go to the polls and register their choice between certain men and certain principles, viz. The selection of the state's choice for a delegation to the National Democratic Convention, the vote being direct for the Presidential candidates.

We have before us, asking for our suffrage, a man a citizen of an adjoining state, the floor leader of the Democrats in Congress, an excellent gentleman, and one who, if nominated, would stand only a fair chance of election; and if elected would make a splendid President, but who stands no more chance of nomination than the average voter does who casts his vote Wednesday; therefore, a vote for Oscar W. Underwood means to nullify the vote of the greatest state east of the Mississippi and south of the Potomac rivers; it means to place your ballot in the hands of a man who will carry it to Baltimore at the head of the Georgia delegation and trade and traffic on it, and if he fails in landing his choice will bolt the convention and set up a third party with himself as its leader. It means that if the Democrats should win over all these obstacles that Georgians will be ashamed to show their heads in Washington, and the recognition that the Empire State of the South is daily entitled to will be a shameful and remorseless approach through the back door, as it were.

On the other hand, we have in the person of Governor Woodrow Wilson a native raised Georgian, —a man who, when he went to look around for a life partner, wooed and won a Georgia girl for a wife,—a man who has been honored by the State of New Jersey as its chief executive, and who has redeemed the worst trust-ridden state in the Union and restored it back to the hands of the people. A clean man who stands for high ideals, and who is hailed as a leader from ocean to ocean; who is a strong contender before the people at the polls at every polling place from Maine to California; who now has a substantial lead over all other candidates, and who has not a single delegate to his credit who hasn't been selected by the unbought and untrammeled vote of the people of their respective states.

In Woodrow Wilson, the people have a champion of their rights a man who was big enough to say to Big Boss Jim Smith: "You can't take your fifteen thousand dollar contribution to the Democratic campaign fund and corrupt the Governor and Legislature of the State of New Jersey."

In Woodrow Wilson, you have a man who has an iron will that will stand out against all encroachments of the powerful trusts that are choking the life-blood out of legitimate commerce, and a man gentle enough to recognize the rights of the humblest citizen on the American continent.

Governor Wilson has no giant campaign fund, contributed by either the steel trust or the Standard Oil trust, to send hired heelers to advise you how to vote, but he depends on the patriotism and consciences of the great masses of the Democrats of Georgia on Wednesday next to walk up to the polls and register their choice in the manner that all free born American citizens are expected to do;—then the result will tell how Georgia stands.

THOMPSON'S NECK
SAVED BY SHERIFF!

Dublin, Ga.—A lynching was narrowly averted in Dublin Tuesday night by the presence of Sheriff J. J. Flanders, who moved Steve Thompkins from the county jail and hid him, before the mob that was forming was able to get ready. All the afternoon of Tuesday rumors were on the street that an effort was to be made to lynch Thompkins, and late that afternoon the matter assumed serious proportions. A little after dark, Sheriff Flanders took Thompkins and stated plainly that the prisoner out of the city seriff, there was talk of an attempt to lynch him, and hid him, no one but him lynch him during the night. He self knowing where. He then disappeared, and the sheriff that Thompkins was not in the jail, and that he was down only to wait developments. About 9 o'clock two men, let them search for the man, both one of whom was claimed to be the man left shortly after and that was among the leaders in the effort to lynch Thompkins, came to the jail night. About 100 men gathered and were met by Mr. Flanders on around the river bridge Tuesday night. During the night, and it is probable that the course of the conversation which men who talked to the sheriff

A VOTE FOR WILSON WILL BE A VOTE FOR BRYAN

Nebraska is Supporting Both Candidates in Hope of Causing Deadlock in the Convention. Then He Will Begin a Loud Neighing in the Dark Horse Stable. Although He is a Delegate-at-Large From Nebraska for Clark, He is Stumping Florida and Georgia for Wilson. What It Means.

Washington, D. C.—(Special)—Georgians might as well understand that a vote for Wilson on May 1 will be a vote for Bryan. Though he will go to the Baltimore convention as a delegate pledged to Champ Clark, although he supported Mr. Clark actively in the campaign proper, Georgia and Florida in Illinois, Mr. Bryan is now about to enter Georgia and election to campaign for Woodrow Wilson.

The Nebraska man, who has been three honored with the Democratic nomination for president, and who has never gotten anywhere with it yet, was a visitor on the hill. He was found by The Constitution's reporter in the marble dome of the senate chamber engaged in earnest conversation with Senator Hoke Smith.

BRYAN DODGES THE QUESTION. "Do you expect to take the stump in Georgia in behalf of Governor Wilson?" he was asked. "That is not a question which a man of intelligence should ask me," he parried. "My state is for Clark, and I am going to the convention." "But are you not to make speeches in Georgia and Florida for Wilson?" he reported, puzzled.

"I will favor progressive candidates everywhere as opposed to reactionaries," he said. "Do you call Oscar W. Underwood a reactionary?" "I do not."

Under this flimsy excuse the "Peerless Loner" expects to go on the stump and play both ends against the middle, play the East and South against the West; support Clark where Clark is strongest and Wilson where Wilson is in the lead; endeavor to make their total number of delegates at Baltimore as nearly even as possible and see that neither gets a majority, and then set up a lousy neighing in the dark horse stable. He can secure one-third of the delegates for each, and then have his strength thrown to him, he will get the necessary two-thirds majority. It is only fair to presume that they will help him because he helped them.

The man who tells in his autobiography that when a boy he always carried a piece of bread in his pocket for an emergency has never yet lost sight of the main chance.

WHY WILSON OPPOSES UNDERWOOD. Mr. Bryan's opposition to Underwood is easy to understand. When Underwood began to loom up before the country in his position as Democratic floor leader as a formidable rival to Bryan and resisted the latter's attempt to defeat Democratic policies, he immediately incurred the Nebraskaan's displeasure. Underwood was charged with having let his personal interests control him in holding back the iron and steel bills, and with having betrayed a Democratic principle in tariff-making to protect the iron and steel industries of the Birmingham district.

This malfeasance was shattered by Representative Claud Kitchin of North Carolina, one of Mr. Bryan's strongest friends in the house, who stated that Mr. Underwood had been eager to bring in a tariff bill, but the way was blocked by Representative Underwood. Then Underwood incurred Bryan's displeasure at framing the wool bill. The house stood by Underwood.

FOR UNDERWOOD AGAINST BRYAN. Underwood was as good as dead as a load of the corporations because of his disposition of the money trust inquiry denounced by Bryan. He was the house stood by the new Democratic leader and against Bryan's meddling.

Mr. Bryan cannot get over his resentment that he has not been allowed to dictate the policy of the Democratic house despite the large number of his friends in the house. He cannot endure the rise in national esteem of a candidate rival to himself. He would now capitalize the practical work done by Speaker Clark and Mr. Underwood during the past sixteen years and for the fourth time attempt to ride into the white house.

The boy with the bread in his pocket easily developed into the perpetual candidate.

ISSUE IS NATIONAL, NOT ONE OF STATE POLITICS SAY UNDERWOOD LEADERS

Replying to the manifest effort on the part of the Wilson management to appeal to state political sentiment to bolster up a lost cause, and showing that Governor Joseph H. Brown and Hon. James L. Anderson, former campaign manager for Governor Hoke Smith, are as ardently supporting Mr. Underwood as are Senator Hoke Smith and Hon. J. R. Smith supporting Mr. Wilson, Managers G. R. Hutchens of Underwood headquarters, Wednesday made the following statement:

WILL J. R. SMITH ENTER RACE FOR GOVERNOR

Atlanta, Ga., April 27.—It is believed here that Mr. J. R. Smith will enter the race for Governor of Georgia as Democratic challenger against J. M. Slaton, Tom Hodson and Joe Hill Hall. Men well versed in politics say that the probability of Smith's nomination is not so great as it appears. The Atlanta Constitution published a group picture of Hoke Smith, J. R. Smith and Woodrow Wilson, which, but considerable color to the rumor, that J. R. Smith will be in the race.

LAMBLIN DELIVERS STRONG SPEECH FROM THE 23RD SAMS.

On Tuesday at the noon hour of Superior Court Hon. W. W. Lamblin, of Waycross, delivered an address to a house nearly filled with voters, in behalf of the candidacy of Gov. Woodrow Wilson. Mr. Lamblin was presented to the audience by Col. W. D. Kirkland of Moultrie, who made a few appropriate remarks in behalf of the next President of the United States.

The speech was well received and the points in favor of Gov. Wilson were liberally applauded. It was a straight presentation of the claims of Mr. Wilson without any vilification of the claims of any one else.

WILSON IS FAR IN LEAD; HAS 208 DELEGATE VOTES

Victory in Texas Was a Body-Blow to the Combined Opposition.

Washington, D. C., May 6.—The politicians who turned Georgia away from Governor Wilson, in behalf of the reverse, hoped it would sound the death knell of Wilson's presidential candidacy, but they have another guess come in. Following closely on the heels of the Georgia primary, Texas, the largest consistently Democratic state in the nation, on Saturday instructed its 40 delegates to vote for the nomination of Governor Wilson at Baltimore.

Macon, Ga., May 6.—Veterans of the Confederacy, sons and grandsons of veterans, and hundreds of fair lady appointees and escorts, to the number of ten thousand, at the lowest estimate, are already here for the annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans and affiliated organizations. Eight special trains arrived this morning, some from far Western states, and local railroad agencies report one hundred and fifty more on the way.

WARD HIT ON HEAD BY NEGRO MAN

On Tuesday night about seven o'clock a negro ran into the business section of the town seeking the police, stating that Rudolph Ward, a white man who runs a little store in "Jacksonville," in the north-west section of Statesboro, had been called out of his place of business by two negro men and knocked senseless by a lick on the head.

It is reported that the motive the negroes had for assaulting Ward was a private grievance that Robertson had against him. At the time we go to press the negroes had not been arrested.

WILSON CARRIES SOUTH CAROLINA

Roosevelt and Clark in Maryland

Baltimore, May 6.—Maryland's 10 votes in the national convention will be cast for Theodore Roosevelt and Champ Clark, unless the few election districts still to be heard from change the result registered today at the state's first presidential primary. The result in the Republican fight was close and Col. Roosevelt on the face of returns had but one more than the number of votes necessary to control the state convention.

GEN. WALKER DISPUTES DAN CAREY'S CLAIM.

In memory of little Annie Belle Deal, the little 18-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Deal, who departed this life April 9th, 1912. She was born April 13th, 1910. She was a bright, sweet-tempered little girl, and all who knew her loved her. For about seven days she suffered; until the Lord saw best to take her home. She has left a dear father and mother, one sister and one brother; kindred, many friends, to mourn her death. Her remains were interred in the Smith's Cemetery, Wednesday afternoon, April 10th. She is gone but not forgotten.

Nearly four hundred gold coins of old Spanish coinage, representing a value of nearly eight thousand dollars, is thought to be the golden harvest of a "find" of an ancient treasure by Marcus Byrd, a negro, near the old war batteries adjoining Le-Paveville. The find was made a few days ago and the story is substantiated by the fact that Byrd has disposed of several old gold coins dated 1732 and 1748. Byrd said this morning that he had not made the find; that two other negro men had been the fortunate ones, but he had several of the coins for the past day or so and this morning sold one for $16 to a well known business man on the Bay. Another was sold yesterday for $20.

Washington, S. C., May 4.—I was with the Citadel cadets when the first shot was fired on the steamer Star of the West, which was trying to carry supplies and provisions to Maj. Anderson's beleaguered garrison in Fort Sumter said Gen. C. Irvine Walker, commander in chief of the United Confederate Veterans, today. "I have no recollection of any person of the name of Dan Carey being a member of or with the corps in any connection. I believe there is some mistake about his reported claim. There can be no doubt that Cadet G. E. Haynesworth, who after the war, practiced law until his death, pulled the lanyard of the cannon firing the first shot at the Star of the West. It was in the nature of an accidental honor, as he was not especially singled out for the task."

A dispatch from Dalton, Ga., via Chattanooga, said that Dan Carey, dying there, had claimed as a member of the "Charleston cadet" corps to have fired the first shot. Citadel records, complete and accurate, were searched today, but the name of Dan Carey does not appear on any of the lists. He was never a cadet, so far as the records show. Gen. Walker was a classmate to Haynesworth. He has taken particular pains to ret the records straight. It is interesting to remark that a small piece of wood from the Star of the West is a cherished possession of the Citadel, the military college of South Carolina. This wood is in the star of the B. H. League medal which is annually awarded the best drill cadet in the corps, to be worn until another cadet wrists the coveted distinction in competitive drill. The star was cut out in the hull of the federal steamer. Although there have been all sorts of contradictory claims, it has been established, according to Gen. Walker and other survivors the Haynesworth actually pulled the lanyard on the cannon firing the first shot and it is claimed by Citadel that a cadet also fired the first shot actually directed at Fort Sumter. The cadets did much valuable service about Charleston during the Civil War.

ALLENS SHED TEARS WHILE WOMEN SOB. Wytheville, Va., April 30.—Progress was rapid today toward securing a jury to try Floyd Allen, indicted for five murders in the Carroll county court house on March 14 last. The first day's session of court adjourned with twelve talesmen satisfactory as to cause obtained out in a venire of forty. Four more talesmen are needed to fill the box and it is expected they will be selected early to-morrow when the defendant will exercise the four per centory challenges allotted to it by Virginia law and the remaining twelve talesmen will be sworn as jurors. Floyd Allen was placed on trial specifically for the murder of the Commonwealth's Attorney F. M. Foster. Many witnesses had formed opinions as to the guilt of the prisoner and were disqualified. The court room was crowded throughout the day. Jasper Allen, a brother of the prisoner, as well as three other Allen relatives were searched for concealed weapons as they entered. Three armed detectives were stationed on guard among the spectators. Allens Shed Tears. Judge A. A. Campbell, who was appointed to succeed the late Judge Thornton L. Massie, sat beside Judge Walter S. Staples, who was especially detailed by Gov. Mann to try the Allen case. More than 200 witnesses will be called in the Allen cases. Not a few of them set out on foot from the mountains and should reach here to-morrow. It is a forty-mile walk from their homes but those who arrived to-night appeared none the worse for the jaunt. The jail was the scene to-night of a reunion of the Allen family. Mrs. Floyd Allen broke down as she saw her husband and two sons, Victor and Claude, behind the bars. With her came Mrs. Alberta Edwards, a sister of Floyd Allen and mother of Sidney Edwards. Mrs. Victor Allen, wife of one of the accused men, brought her three small children, Jack Allen, a brother of Floyd and father of Friel Allen, was in the party. For a few minutes the strong defiance of the prisoners wavered and tears streamed the faces of all. The women left the jail sobbing. So long have the Allens lived in their mountain homes that with one exception, the women members of the family before their trip here had never seen a railroad train or an automobile. FLOYD ALLEN READY FOR MURDER TRIAL. State Expects to Experience Much Difficulty in Selecting Jury. Wytheville, Va., April 30.—Floyd Allen was before the bar in the circuit court here today to be tried for his life for the part he played in the Hillsville courthouse tragedy on March 14. His case was selected for trial first and upon its outcome will depend largely the methods of the state in prosecuting the five other accused clansmen now in jail here. A large venire of citizens of this section has been summoned, as it is expected that considerable trouble would be experienced in getting a jury. Floyd Allen stands indicted for five murders, but the prosecution elected to try him first of the murder of Commonwealth's Attorney Foster.

SECRETARY KNOX GUEST OF HONOR AT CELEBRATION. Hundredth Anniversary Admission of Louisiana into the Union. Numbers of Dignitaries Witnessed Spectacle. New Orleans, April 30.—With Secretary of State P. C. Knox as the guest of honor, Louisiana today celebrated the hundredth anniversary of its admission into the union. The program arranged by the Louisiana Historical Society began with the arrival of Secretary Knox from Washington this morning, and a public reception at the city hall by Mayor Martin Behrman. A banquet to-night concludes the celebration. The guests, including the officers of the war vessels and officials, later re-assembled at the city hall and joined a parade, headed by the sailors and marines of the battleships and gunboat Petrel, and the organization of the Louisiana National Guard, and proceeded to the historic Cabildo, an administrative building erected by the Spaniards in 1770. Knox Reviews Parade. Scores of celebrities are guests of celebrities are guests of the members of the Historical Society, among them representatives of five Central American republics, drawn here because Secretary Knox's visit is regarded as a continuation of his recent trip through the republics in Central America. Visit to the Warships. Secretary Knox was met on his arrival by the Historical Society's committee and escorted to a hotel. He was later carried to the city hall reception, after which, with other distinguished guests, a visit was made to the battleships Nebraska and the New Hampshire, ordered here by the war department to participate in the centennial. The parade was reviewed by Secretary Knox from the grand stand erected in front of the Cabildo. With the secretary were Gov. Jared Y. Sanders, of Louisiana; Gov. Earl Brewer, of Mississippi; Mayor Behrman and members of the city council, Archbishop James H. Blunk and officials of the society. Addresses of welcome were made by the governor and mayor, were responded to by Secretary Knox, representing the President. Secretary Knox was followed by Dr. A. E. Ortier, president of the Louisiana Historical Society, and Gov. Brewer. Girls Unfurled Flag. Miss Carliss E. Claiborn raised the same flag in Jackson Square Place d'Armes that her great-grandfather, Gov. Claiborn, unfurled one hundred years ago upon the same spot, the United States colors of 1812 with an additional star representing the new state of Louisiana. The flag raising was followed by a salute by the guns of the Washington artillery. The program ended with patriotic songs and the formal opening of the Cabildo to the public as a state museum stocked with relics, many of which date back to the occupation of this territory by the Spaniards. CONSTIPATION WILL VANISH. Balking Livers and Upset Stomachs Quickly Put in Prime Condition. WINNERS OF HIGH SCHOOL FIELD DAY CONTESTS. Vidalia, Ga., May 4.—Today was one of the biggest days of the year for Vidalia. The first district High School field meet brought fully 1,200 visitors from all over the district, on special trains run from Swainsboro, on the Georgia and Florida, and from Statesboro and Clarion over the Seaboard. The Vidalia contestants having the advantage of being on home grounds kept more of the fourteen medals than were taken away by any other school, winning four of the big events and annexing the championship of the district by taking the ball game from the Statesboro team by a score of 3 to 2. Below is a list of the winners and schools: Declamation, Curtis Meadows, Vidalia; recitation, Miss Siblane Peacock, Vidalia; spelling, Pierce Holmes, Vidalia; chinning the bar, Pierce Holmes, Vidalia; voice, Miss Thompson, Swainsboro; piano, Miss Mae Meadows, Swainsboro; boys' essay, John Darden, Swainsboro; girls' essay, Miss Lottie Hagan, Lyons. All the dashes and jumps were won by the Swainsboro boys. The Vidalia School did not have an entry in any of the athletic events except chinning the bar. Samant and Metter both failed to make a count. Probably the biggest event of the day was the picnic dinner served by the ladies of Vidalia in honor of the visitors at the school grounds. The next field meet will be held in Statesboro in May, 1913. Prof. Rowen of the First District Agricultural School at Statesboro, is now president of the association. FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE
