

Georgia Southern University

Digital Commons@Georgia Southern

A Few Things You Should Know This Week

University Communications and Marketing

5-1-2023

Five Things You Should Know This Week

Georgia Southern University

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/five-things-newsletter>

Part of the Higher Education Commons

This newsletter is brought to you for free and open access by the University Communications and Marketing at Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. It has been accepted for inclusion in A Few Things You Should Know This Week by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@georgiasouthern.edu.

>>>The intercampus shuttle will be shut down between semesters.

The Intercampus shuttle will not be in operation next week during the semester break and will on May 15, 2023, with the usual routes and times. If you have any questions or concerns, please don't hesitate to contact the Parking and Transportation office or go online for more intercampus shuttle information.

>>>Commencement hosts and candidate assistants still needed

As Commencement is a respected University-wide event, the Commencement Committee is still seeking faculty and staff volunteers to serve as Commencement Hosts and Candidate Assistants for each ceremony.

Ceremonies will be at the following times and locations:

Paulson Stadium - Statesboro: for undergraduate and graduate candidates

- Tuesday, May 9, 10 a.m.
- Wednesday, May 10, 10 a.m.
- Thursday, May 11, 10 a.m.

EnMarket Arena - Savannah: for undergraduate and graduate candidates

- Saturday, May 13, 10 a.m.
- Saturday, May 13, 3 p.m.

Volunteers can select their preferred ceremony location(s) within the Volunteer Form.

All volunteers will be asked to arrive for their shifts 1.5 hours prior to the start of the ceremony. Staff who work on Saturday, May 13, will be expected to work with their supervisor to adjust their work schedule for the week of commencement, or alternatively, be provided compensatory time for their efforts.

>>>Military & Veteran Services to host informational sessions on National Day of Service May 6

In honor of the second annual Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) National Day of Service, Georgia Southern University's Military & Veteran Services will host information sessions on Veterans Affairs (VA) issues and benefits on all three campuses this Saturday, May 6. The events are free and open to students, faculty, staff and the community.

A diverse panel of veterans will be on hand to discuss educational benefits and expanded health care choices with the PACT Act. A VFW-accredited service officer will also be available to help veterans navigate legal claims related to exposure to toxic water at Camp Lejeune.

Click here to register. For more information on the VFW National Day of Service, visit here.