Homecoming 2016 kicks off today

Today kicks off Georgia Southern’s annual Homecoming celebration, a week full of activities centered around the theme, “Let the Southern Games Begin,” an Olympics-style celebration. Noon-time and evening events will be held on campus throughout the week, along with the parade and celebration on Thursday, and the crowning of king and queen during halftime at the football game vs. University of Louisiana Lafayette.

Georgia Southern mobilized resources to help those affected by Hurricane Matthew
When Hurricane Matthew displaced hundreds of thousands of people and left behind a trail of destruction in the coastal regions of Georgia, many families, organizations and people in need were left relying on the help of others. That's where Georgia Southern University stepped in.

Holiday Helper Tree officially opens

Join the Office of Leadership and Community Engagement as they help Georgia Southern get in the spirit of giving by pulling a tag from the Holiday Helper Tree! The tree will remain open Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. until Nov. 18.

Don’t get ticketed on Homecoming Game Day!

Thousands of Eagle alumni and fans will flock to Allen E. Paulson Stadium for Thursday night’s football game against the University of Louisiana at Lafayette on Nov. 10 at 7:30 p.m. Be sure to follow these game-day parking regulations from the Office of Parking and Transportation.
