LEAD: Women in Engineering & Technology

November 2, 2018

The Georgia Southern student chapters of Women in Construction (NAWIC), Society of Women Engineers (SWE) and Sigma Lambda Chi are hosting LEAD: Women in Engineering & Technology, today starting at 12:00pm in the Nessmith-Lane Conference Center.

The event includes a lunch (by invitation only), two panel sessions with professionals from Southern Co., GDOT, the U.S. Air Force, Georgia Ports Authority, University of Georgia and its Marine Extension and Sea Grant, and Georgia Southern. The keynote speaker is Ms. Blair Farley of Southern Co.

These events will lead into a showcase of Georgia Southern students’ research posters and a networking session.
