GREAT HOME-COMING

The Lobby in West Dormitory
Takes on Home-Like Atmosphere

Since Miss Sophia Johnson has become mistress of the boys' wing in West Dormitory, the entire inside and sidewalks have taken on a more home-like and more comfortable appearance. Many new things have been added to the lobby and throughout the building.

The lobby has been completely done over with finishing chocolates and lovely light tan curtains that blend with the other furniture. Both the boys and the living room have been covered with concholite rugs of a rich brown and tan shade. All the changes have been re-upholstered in brown oxen and painted a mellow brown. The wicker furniture has been done over in canvas.

In addition to all the improvements in the furniture, an Atwater-Kent wall mirror, smoking stands, new tables, and a very beautiful table which could go to make the living room and lobby more complete. All these further carry out the color motif of brown and brown.

On the second floor a little parlor, being completed adjoining Miss Johnson's apartment. This room will have wicker furniture also and the walls will be painted a light shade of blue. The purpose of the parlor is for conferences with Miss Johnson and also a place for the boys to receive special visitors.

FROSH TEST RESULTS
SHOW IMPROVEMENT

Highest Scores in English Placement
Content Reading and Psychological Exams Distributed Among Different Students: Boys Rank Higher in Median Scores.

Results of the English placement subject, reading and psychological examinations given to members of the Freshmen class, have been completed and median scores have been formulated. These tests were required of every freshman and were given under the direction of Dean Z. S. Henderson. In checking the results of the entire class it was found that the median score in the high school content test was 9 points better than the median score of last year's freshmen. The median score in the psychological test was found to be 9 points better than that of last year.

In the English placement test, Mildred Brennen, Junop, and Herbert Tucker, Dublin, tied for high score; Albert Baldwin, Dublin, was second, and Frances Lewis was third. The median score was 91.

Marvin McKnewey, Griffin, and John Thayer, Statesboro, made the highest score on the reading test. Joe Stevins, Colquitt, was second and Ray McKown, Moultrie, Oklahoma, was third. The median score was 87.

On the high school content examination, John Thayer, Statesboro, came first, E. H. Brown, Statesboro, came second, and Marvin McKnewey, Griffin, third. The median score was 97.

Hill's Brown, Junop, confused itself on the psychological test; George A. Carter, Corset, made second, and Sara McCulley, Albany, made third. The median score was 91.

Taylor, Dublin, tied for high score; Albert Baldwin, Dublin, was second, and Frances Lewis was third. The median score was 91.

Girls Co-operate to Aid Needy Families

Members of the Home Economics classes are aiding in the relief work of the community. Aided by Miss Balmon, they are helping to provide for those members of families who are needy.

There are some thirty articles of clothing which are to be made by the Y. W. C. A. on the campus Tuesday. They are hoping to provide for those members of families who are needy.

The Home Economics Club has a Riotous Carnival

The Home Economics Club, together with the members of the Home Economics Department, were sponsors of a delightful carnival which was held in the College gymnasium Saturday night.

Among the features of the carnival were seven side shows, a dog show, three fortune tellers, a fish pond, and a carnival where fruit, hot dogs and lemonade were sold. The College band also played for those wishing to dance.

ALUMNI RETURN FOR BIG EVENT

LARGE CROWD EXPECTED TO WITNESS THE TURKEY DAY FOOTBALL GAME.

Thursday, November 30th, Thanksgiving Day, will be home-coming day for alumni of South Georgia Teachers College. Many old students scattered over the state and throughout the South will be on hand for the festivities. All students will enjoy a holiday. The morning will be given over to renewing old friendships and activities. Sons and daughters of T. C. will live again memories of their days on the campus.

In the afternoon at 3 o'clock, our own Blue Tide meets Newberry College in the annual Turkey Day football game. Both these teams are so evenly matched that this game should prove the most interesting of the season and the Athletic Association extends a very cordial invitation to all alumni and friends of the institution to attend this game.

This contest with Newberry closes a most successful football season and is a fitting climax to home-coming day. Now, a word to the alumni: The alumni of South Georgia Teachers College pay no dues, the Athletic Association has never called upon them for help, nor do they expect to. The association wants the alumni to attend all the games, whether they be football, basketball or baseball.

To the hope of the alumni: The association welcomes all alumni and wants them to come back to T. C. often. A college spirit that will live forever, and athletic teams that will make history are in process of building at the Teachers College.
Ye Sons of Toil!

Landy's Argies or Landy's boys! We have heard so much about them lately until we decided to investigate and find out who they are and what they do.

It seems that they are a group of boys working around the campus under the direction of Mr. Landrum. It is federal relief work or F. R. C., or N. R. A.; or something of the sort. Anyway they seem to be having plenty of fun as well as hard work with pay.

Several afternoons a week you see them going forth arrayed in their working clothes. They have such ragged and so few clothes on that you might well believe they were starting a "back to nature" movement.

With their hoes across their shoulders they present quite a different picture from the one portrayed in Markham's poem, "Man With a Hoe," a picture more rather like the one pictured by Whittier in his poem, "Barfoot Boy," with cheeks of tan.

We interviewed several of these boys so as to get a few lights on the Argies. And here is what they say in their own words:

"Mr. Landrum's Argies are making a most wonderful drive to beautify the potential golf course. They have just completed a good piece of work known as the yellow weed drive."

"F. W. Quattlebaum makes his work a pleasure by getting the Argies about him and juggling his well known faking that work only with him."

"If there is any doubt as to the sincerity of Professor Harold D. Roberts, consult one of the Argies. He has told them everything."

"Freshman Howard Dewey-Muscle-Bound James Chapman has begun to use the heavier instruments and it is real entertainment to portray such a picture in Markham's poem, Man With a Hoe." And here is what they say in their own words:

Rountree Lewis, who is a new member, is considered to be a full-fledged Aggie through transfer from the Portal chapter."

1933 Blue Tide

Cadets Defeated by Tide Eleven

The Teachers invaded Milledgeville November 18th, to defeat the strong G. M. C. team 12-9. It made the third victory for the Teachers, as compared to two losses. Since G. M. C. beat Cochran 12-0, one win over G. M. C. takes a little of the sting from our 6-0 defeat by that team.

In the opening kick-off Fullford fumbled and G. M. C. recovered on the T. C. thirty-five yard line. Held for downs, the Cadets pushed to the Teachers' ten-yard line. The Blue Tide failed to make a first down, and with Anderson back in punt formation, Bussey snapped the ball over his head. He fell on it back of his own goal line for a safety, giving the Teachers a 2-0 lead.

The Teachers were inside the G. M. C. ten-yard line five times, and five times failed to push over the marker. A last-minute air attack by the Teachers thrilled the spectators, but Anderson intercepted one to end this rally. The game ended with the ball in the Teachers possession on the G. M. C. ten-yard line; the score being 12-9 in the Blue Tide's favor.

Basketball Team To Play Mercer

Now that the last football game is only three days away, thoughts of basketball are filling many minds. Practice started last week for those not out for football. Coach expects every candidate to meet him Monday, December 4th, for the first official practice.

The Teachers should have a most successful season. From squads of previous seasons, Spencer, Hines, J. E. Smith, Fullford, Stewart, Poteat, Anderson, Wrinkle and Shell seem to be the outstanding candidates. Now men who seem to have bright prospects of making the "charmed circle" are DuBose, Donaldson, Steyn, Gwynn, Carter, Arnold, Wilkes, Parks. There may be more who should be on one of these lists, but nothing can be stated definitely at this time.

The Teachers open the 1933-34 season here with Mercer, December 14th, at the College. Many other strong teams have been scheduled. A complete schedule will appear in the next issue of the George-Anne.

Blue Devils Declared Conference Winners

When Blue Devils replace the charges, runts, butts and whatever else Nanny Goats do to score touchdowns and keep the ball in extra-mural football, they immediately become campus champions, especially if they counter charges and score seven points while holding the weaker six to nothing, and that is precisely how it happened. Thursday in the final game of the season, the Blue Devils, in the Teachers possession on the G. M. C. forty-yard line, scored seven points to end the Blue Tide's season.

Social Science Club Elects

The Social Science Club held its first regular meeting in Room 10 Monday evening at 7 o'clock. The meeting was called to order by the president, J. T. Alexander, who being the only officer elected for this year who returned. A business session was entered into in which the following elections were made:

President: Vice-president, Virginia Edensfield.
Secretary: Elizabeth Collins.
Treasurer: H. R. Bento.
Reporter: Bill Bennett.

The question of membership requirements was discussed. Upon a suggestion from Dr. Taylor, club sponsor, it was decided that to be a member one must have had the equivalent of three courses in social science, which includes history, sociology, economics and geography. All those who are now taking sufficient work to complete the requirements will be admitted.

After the business was disposed of the following program was given:

- Violin solo—Torrance Brady, accompanied by Leila Blackman. Reading, "Brotherly Love"—Isabel Cruz.
- Talk on college and the poor boy—Dr. DeLouch.

This is a comparatively new organization on the campus, having been created last year. It is probably one of the most important ones. The object of the club is to discuss the problems and events of current interest in connection with social science in general. It is of great importance that we become familiar with and develop the right attitudes toward the situations which confront us.

This is not an exclusive club and all persons eligible for membership are invited and urged to join. The next meeting will be Monday, December 4th, at 7:00 p.m., in Room 3.

A Young Lady's Guide to Football

Football Field: Prissy grass-cov- ered rectangle where the good fellows attempt to assassinate each other every Saturday during the fall.

- Referee: White shirts who blows whistle like a traffic cop. To be booted when he picks up ball and strides towards your goal.
- Coach: Bowing figure who sits on bench and berates boys towards the squad; (a) any player you've ever had a date with; (b) the one who just carried the ball.
- Stars: The best looking player on the squad; (a) any player you've ever had a date with; (b) any player you've ever had a date with; (c) any player you've ever had a date with.
- Rivals: Incoherent writings of no significance. Penalty: When inflicted on your team, unprintable words not an offense; (b) when inflicted on other team, just penalty.

The Snopper

Seem in Savannah last week end—Sid and Katherine at the Mercer-Clemson game and happy—Rosalie and Dodie at the same game wearing similar expressions—Cohen, Gene and Crandy parading in front of the Clemson stands very nat-tily attired in tight-fitted trench coats—Small boy putting pennun-shells in Mr. Russell’s hat—Johnnie Bell Roberts when some friends—Sally and Berg desig-nating traffic after the game—Gene Woods throning a ride—Coach with a carful of our football players—Ha-Clements driving the school truck with Munch, Cherry, Nicholsen, Pull-back Smith, and quite a few others as passenger—Miss Verna upkeep shopping—As were Coohasa Xavier and Martha McElroney—Consider this in time a new Terraglade, where did it get it?—Hooten, Hines and “Quat” complaining that the radio’s at this meet surprised them—they—the Moon couple and J. D. Peruss and Mayo’s sister riding around—June Pitts, a former student, visiting about—Alton Settles trying to assist the DeSoto (?) annoyed them—The “Quat” complaining that the radios at Carnall this week than hope to meet all the old gang back at the Home-coming of the old gang back at the Home-coming of the old gang back at the Home-coming. Personally, I think that the administration should issue passes to all those who have places teaching school as they are not able to attend football games and go to the expense of a trip back to our Alma Mater. The athletic department could earn a well deserved name of one hundred per cent Alma Papa for such a noble deed. It would be an honor to the school to have such notes as “Nineteen Thirteen” Fritchard, “Ten-second” Dewberry, and you could have as your personal guest in the press box, Mr. Oalk Kraker.

Another way in which a good homecoming would be beneficial is the fact that the alumni could get to-gether to discuss the matter of the financial conditions in their country.

Under the strict supervision of Prof. E. E. Bell, our former friend, Miss May Seigler is pushing forward with the elimination field at Statesboro. Of course there are other fields around this community but May says her work so far is certified to that of other. Miss Verna has been at it as long as some of us will be in other fields as well. All the action in this community is about gathered.

Help us to have a swell time tomorrow! As I shall be expecting to see my many cohorts on that day of celebration, I hope to meet “Free Directors” (twenty for a few minutes) behind the gym.

Tell that guy who calls himself the circulation manager of your paper that I am expecting my copy before time for the Reflector to come out.

And I could least see the pictures along with the news.

Tucker’s Orchestra Play

George Tucker and his orchestra, composed of eight artists, have been booked to furnish the music for the Teachers’ Homecoming Dance, November 30th. George is the brother of Tommie Tucker and his California, and what a band he has! A former student, Eddie McClain, is a member of the band. George Tucker and his band are at present playing at the Ethelbar and Jollie’s in Savannians, and what a band he has! A former student, Eddie McClain, is a member of the band. George Tucker and his band are at present playing at the Ethelbar and Jollie’s in Savannah.
