History: Lucile Hodges was born on March 13, 1906 in Claxton, Georgia. She graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Elementary Education from Georgia Teachers College in 1940. Lucile then went on to earn a Master of Science in Education from the University of Georgia in 1953. The Georgia Department of Education issued her a Professional Teacher Certification for the instruction of English and Social Sciences in 1965. Throughout her life, she worked as an elementary and high school teacher, served as the historian of Evans County, Georgia, conducted extensive genealogical research in several southeast Georgia counties, and also worked extensively in the Fort Stewart area. Lucile died on January 29, 1995 in South Carolina.

Scope and Content: The collection is a broad overview of the life of Lucile Hodges, ranging from academia, family history, Fort Stewart/Evans/Tattnall County history and work. The collection has also been arranged as such, structured by the different topics and also in chronological order.
