President Wells at Cleveland This Week

President Guy H. Wells, giant officer in a complete new outfit, ranging from a shiny double-breasted suit to a hair cut and shave, passed Miss Sophie's close examination late Wednesday night and made his departure under cover of darkness.

Mr. Wells rushed by the office to get and available ticket to Cleveland. It was what he was to do after reaching Cleveland, Ohio, where he is attending the National Educational Association. The association is in session from February 23 to March 1.

Mr. Wells is keen in the interest of the college.

WILDE'S DRAMA HIGHLY ENJOYED

A complete cast presented "Lady Windermere's Fan," in the college auditorium Thursday evening, February 22nd. The play was directed by Horace Dexter.

Miss P. Williams, as Lady Windermere, handled that difficult role with much ease, and equally outstanding was James Hall, whose fine work as her husband ranks him among the most capable of the college actors.

Comedy relief was introduced by the Duchess of Berwick, Anne Mace Hunter, and Lord Augustus Lever, Lotton Goldman. Miss Hunter, although she has appeared in numerous plays, has never been more suited to the role than to that of the duchess. At the slightly eccentric young nobleman, Lotton Goldman, gave his talent for comedy full play, much to the delight of the audience.

Although George Donahue had only a minor role as the butler, his searing satire, in spite of embarrassingly amusing situations, was admirable. It was the perfect man servant. Miss Chiles, as the much misunderstood Mrs. Elylina, put herself into her part and gave a very sympathetic interpretation. Dick Saunders was excellently cast for the part of the rakish Lord Darlington and won the sympathy of the audience by his pathetic speech in the third act. Verne Landon and George Felter did their parts most adequately.

Before the play and between the acts music was rendered by Mrs. Z. H. Talbert, Eugenia Marshall, Tonia Wills, Hulda Evans and Shirley Montes.

ATHLETIC CLUB BUYS EQUIPMENT

The Women's Athletic Association has bought ten tennis rackets, two sets of golf clubs, one badminton racket, and horseback and bike to be placed at the disposal of the student body. This equipment can be obtained at the office of the Physical Education Department in the Gymnasium and on any day from 2 to 6 o'clock.

Through the endeavors of the association it is possible for this equipment to be used by the students without cost. The expansive campus-wide athletic program is being launched to promote more out-door sports among the students and it is hoped that many students will take advantage of this practice.

The Women's Athletic Association has been an active body on the campus during the last quarter, and with the assistance of Miss Lassiter and Mrs. Elylina, it is rapidly progressing in the work it has already started.

Through the cooperation of the Physical Education Department, their first step in this mighty program has been completed, but an effort is being made to reach a greater amount of equipment and thus afford opportunity for more persons to participate in these sports.

The library has recently added a collection of about two hundred and fifty books. These books are now in process of being catalogued, numbered, etc., and will be removed to the shelves at an early date.

The largest number of the books are in the fields of English, History and Home Economics. There are several good biographies, but very few of fiction. The following are descriptions of some of the most representative:

"Sons," by Pearl S. Buck, is a sequel to her widely read "Good Earth," published a few years ago. The new novel begins exactly where the other left off, carries on the saga of the house of Wang, of Pear Blossom and the aging Lotus, the three sons of Wang Lung, their wives and their children. Some one has said, "If anyone doubted the author of "The Good Earth" was an artist, that doubt will vanish when they read "Sons."

Paul DeKruif has made for himself a name through a passion for making unknown benefactors of mankind—those who made the great discoveries civilization takes for granted five again. To do this he goes through to the original sources with an energy and thoroughness intolerant of half-way measures. In the collection we have his new book, "Men Against Death," telling of twelve scientific pioneers who have fought to keep men from dying. With the exception of three of the men, DeKruif has known them personally and is able to present their achievements not as mere uninspired academic grubbing, but in the obscurely romantic way in which they actually happened.

"The Flying Carpet," the fourth book by the author of "The Royal Road to Romance" bringing a new interest. To his adventurous realm, is added the clouds. The books of Richard Halliburton are boldly romantic, picturesque, bright spirited and have become standard readings for imaginative and restless peoples of all ages and in a dozen countries.

"The Colossus of the Pacific," by DeLano Roosevelt, the Minute Man of '33," by Belle Moses—this authentic and colorful biography of President Roosevelt brings to boys and girls the inspiration and the interest of a great life story. It is a delightfully intimate book, going behind the scenes and showing the man as he really is. In writing the book, Miss Moses has had the cooperation of the Roosevelt family.

"The Roosevelt Program," by Cleveland Rodger, is one of the several books in the collection dealing with the recovery question. "Women and Industries," by Erich W. Zimmermann, attempts to show the relation between geography and economics.

Other books that will be of special interest to students of history are a three-volume set on the Russian Revolution, "This is Russia," and a collection dealing with Southern history.

Included among these for use in the home economics department are "Table Service" and "The Perfect Hostess."

There are many other equally interesting volumes among this collection. Watch the display tables for these new books.

Dear Editor:

Honest Injun! Mr. Editor, are you going to tolerate such savings as appeared in the last issue of the G.A.? We all thought that Sally Snooper was bad enough, and now it is that our student advisor, that such wise cracks are bringing the social life on the campus to the very lowest ebb! If this publication, which we know is the work of many students, is to be made successful, every possible effort should be made. It is the responsibility of every student to love and respect the school and to be a credit to it. We ask that you impress this on every student. The last issue was bad enough, and now it is that we are afraid to love and respect the school and to be a credit to it. We ask that you impress this on every student.

Sincerely, Students of the Freshman Class.

BOXING MATCH

HARD-HITTING LEFTS OF
THE TEACHERS TAKE 8 OF 10
WILLIAMS, WITH 3 KNOCK-OUTS.

The Teachers boxing team, under the supervision of Mr. Russell, won their first inter-collegiate match with G. M. C.
last Friday night. The G. M. C.
boys outweighed the Teachers a few pounds, but the war-like spirit which the Prof boxers had cost away every weight advantage. "Little" Bob Cherry, "Fulback" Smith and Harold McKeyes won their fights by knock-outs.

The first fight resulted in a decision for "Jake" Riggs over his opponent.
Riggs' left proved too much for the battered partner.

The second match began fast and ended fast when Bob Cherry floored his man in the second round. Again there was too much left.

In the next fight, "Buster" Deal, of the Teachers, won a close decision.
Deal showed wonderful generosity in this bout.

In the first lightweight bout, Pad gett battered his way to a clear cut decision.

ketball season have been compiled,
and were found to be very evenly distributed. Hines, forward on the and Martin, 54. These were all very close third. Stewart, guard cen-

EPICUREANS AND DUX DOMINA

The Epicureans and the Dux Domina are entertaining with a dance in the Gym Saturday night. Decorations will be in the clubs' colors and green will be used also. From 8 to 11 o'clock there will be dancing, with music both on the orchestra. Each girl has invited a date and a stag. During the evening light refreshments will be served. Misses Vivian George, Bill Routman and Lilian Vandiver are the out of town guests who will attend the dance.

JOSPHINE MURPHY, feature editor of the George-Anne, represented our staff at the Press Association held in Athens last week.

MRS. BARNES has divided her public school music into groups. Each group is to give a program dealing with the periods and types of music.

DR. GLASGOW, pastor of the Independent Presbyterian church of Statesboro, will speak to the students in chapel Tuesday and Wednesday mornings.

SOME OF THE TALENTED musicians on our campus favored us with a varied program in chapel Wednesday. The program consisted of several numbers by the band, some selections by Mrs. Henderson and a group of students, a piano solo by Mrs. Barnes, and a saxophone solo by Shelby Monroe, accompanied by Helen Evans.

WE ARE LESS PRONE to deny the validity of Hawthorne's story of the Great Stone Face since the chapel program sponsored by the Sophomore Club last Wednesday. Certain faculty members were impressed by students so well that in some instances a second look was necessary to really decide that it was not that instructive for sure.
