A Day for Southern

Tuesday, September 9, 2014

A Day for Southern has been a day for the faculty, staff, alumni, and community to show their support of Georgia Southern University by making gifts to various areas on campus.
Gifts given to the Betty Foy Sanders Department of Art support items such as scholarship, outreach, gallery programming and visiting artist/lecture series.

On Tuesday, September 9, 2014, we'll celebrate the 41st year of this tradition of giving. Learn how you can be a part of a tradition.
