ABOUT THE COLLECTION

Biographical History: David Alexander Ruffin was born in Washington County, Mississippi on September 30, 1921. He received his undergraduate degree in English at Southwestern (now Rhodes University) in Memphis Tennessee. He served in the US Army during World War II, returning to Tennessee to complete his PhD in English Literature at Vanderbilt University in Nashville. He was a professor of English at Georgia Southern College where he taught for more than twenty years. He retired from Georgia Southern College in 1982, earning the title of Professor Emeritus of English. The Meralen and David Ruffin Scholarship was established in 1997 following the death of Dr. Ruffin.

Scope and Content: This collection consists of the personal and research papers of David Alexander Ruffin, Professor Emeritus of English, Georgia Southern College. Materials span 1939 to 1996 and include papers, literary works, diaries, letters, photographs, and negatives

System of Arrangement: Materials are arranged in folders based on collectors original organization. In addition there are loose journals and manuscripts also located in the collection.
