"NUMBER 7"

Is a brand of Whiskey which sells everywhere for $3.00 per gallon. We have received the agency for Savannah by making a contract with the distillers to take 200 barrels of it during 1901.

Now this is a large amount of whiskey to sell in one year of one kind, but we are going to do it and this is the way we propose to do it. We are going to sell it at $3.00 per gallon and prepay express to your nearest express office. When ordering not less than one gallon at a time, we will also prepay express on all our $3.00 per gallon goods and over. You will hardly make a mistake if you order of the goods bottled below, especially of our own whiskeys on which we have a reputation to sustain.

THE THIRD TERM TALK.

Is Senator DeLoach seeking a favor from the President? If so, why is he not in the White House the country telling newspaper men and the politicians that President McKinley ought to be given another term because he has no enemies and few few critics? Probably he thinks that he would be a secretary of state or sent as an ambassador to England if McKinley should be re-nominated and re-elected.

In support of a re-nomination for the President he brings up all of the old worst arguments which were advanced by the admirers of Gen. Grant, when Senator Conkling urged that he be given a third term.

It is true that there is nothing in the constitution against a third term, but there is something more potent than the constitution against it, namely, the common sense of the people. They long ago came to the conclusion that two terms were sufficient for any man, and that a third term might jeopardize the liberties of the people.

Of course, nobody thinks Mr.
McKinley would seek to make himself a dictator if a third term were given to him, but if the senator brings up the question of a third term, some other president might want a fourth term, or even a life term.

It is true that Washington did not say to the people that they should never give any man more than two terms, but his example was sufficient, and the people are pretty much of the mind that eight years is long enough for any man to occupy the presidency.

It is a great thing for Mr.
McKinley to have a third term, but it is a greater thing for him to have a fourth term, and it is something of a relief to the country if he has an ambition to be re-elected, but he would be re-elected much longer by a grateful country if being offered a third nomination he should refuse it.

It is doubtful if there is anything upon which there is such a consensus of opinion in this country as that no President should have a third term. Mr. McKinley is a very popular President, but it is doubtful if he is more popular than those who are trying to bring about his re-nomination. He would find his popularity waning.
Many of those who are praising him now would become his enemies and abuse him. It is doubtful if he is so foolish as to maintain the hope of being the Presidential candidate of his party 1905. And the surprising thing is that Mr. DeLoach should be advocating a third term for him. He has been for a long time and is not a favorite with the public, but it is curious how he is the leading advocate of a third term for Mr. McKinley. The impression will get abroad that he is no longer the bright, capable man he once was—that he is degenerating into a mere retailer of electornity stories.

Curio Old Hand Negro.
The following little item in the "Sale of negroes" appeared in the Columbian, Ga. Times in 1899:
"Very High Price! S. K. Bennett, auctioneer and broker, sold on Wednesday last at the mart two hand negroes, aged twenty and twenty-two years, for $2,250 and $2,450, making $4,700 for the pair.
The following were the bids:
There were a lot of negroes, field hands in Georgia to-day that are not worth 5 cents.

Exactly As Advertised.
An indignant working farmer returned to a horse dealer's farm an hour after purchasing a horse, says London Answers.
"Look here sir!" he exclaimed.
"I don't want this horse you sold me! He shies. I can't get him to cross the bridge." That's the reason I sold him," said the dealer calmly. "We didn't come to the farm for the horse."

"I saw your advertisement in the paper!"
"I thought so. I gave my reasons for selling him!"
"Yes; to be sold, you stand for no other reason than that the owner wanted to get out of town?"
"Well, if you can get out of town with him," said the dealer.
"It will be more than I can do."
