Catalog Description
This course explores the application of social marketing and communication theory to the development of strategies to enhance health education and promotion programs.

Required Textbook:

Folio readings: Additional readings are posted under each learning module

BSPH Core Student Learning Outcomes (CORE)
1. Demonstrate proficiency and effectiveness in the communication of core public health principles and practices, both oral and written.
2. Demonstrate proficiency in the integration of the core public health disciplines (Biostatistics, Epidemiology, Environmental Health, Health Policy/Management, and Social/Behavioral Science) in practice and research.
3. Graduating students in the Health Education and Promotion program will be able to demonstrate effective communication by using credible and valid health information and resources to demonstrate argumentation, analysis, and synthesis skills writing through the development of comprehensive health promotion program plans and materials by

a. Communicating a clearly defined purpose
b. Gathering appropriate primary and secondary data to support a rationale for addressing public health problems
c. Identifying, evaluating and selecting credible evidence or practice based public health programs and information
d. Organizing ideas and information consistent with the purpose
e. Demonstrate the ability to relay public health ideas to lay audiences and other key stakeholders.
f. Adhering to acceptable and mechanical, structural, and format style guidelines appropriate to the public health discipline and purpose (i.e. APA style)

BSPH Competencies
1. Identify and assess public health problems to develop appropriate public health education programs based on sound theoretical foundations of health behavior
2. Design, implement and evaluate public health educational programs for identified health problems for at-risk populations and communities.
3. Demonstrate argumentation, analysis, and synthesis skills writing through the development of comprehensive health promotion program plans and materials.
4. Communicate and advocate for health and health education

Course Objectives
The course is designed to introduce students to some of the basic principles and perspectives of public health education in the United States, particularly as they relate to developing fundamental skills in communicating health information to the public. As a result of taking this course, students will be able to:

- Distinguish among the concepts, language, and issues of publicity, public relations, social marketing, and health communication as they apply to health education and health behavior programs;
- Describe and apply the procedure for developing a public relations plan for a health-related program or agency;
- Describe and apply appropriate design principles for health-related print materials;
- Describe and apply the steps of developing health-related informational and publicity materials for the print media, including writing news copy and developing brochures, newsletters, flyers, posters, and press kits;
- Describe and apply the principles of publicity and health communication using electronic media such as radio, television, and computers;
- Describe and apply the procedure for presentations as a program implementation strategy; and
- Describe and apply the development of special relationships with media gatekeepers and vendors such as newspaper editors, television and radio producers, printers, and others.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

1. Quizzes (50 points maximum)

Five quizzes will be given throughout the semester in class. Students who are tardy or absent without a medical or university approved excuse will not be allowed to make up quizzes or exams. A student arriving more than 5 minutes after class has begun or after the first quiz/exam has been turned in (whichever comes first) will not be allowed to take the assessment.

2. Final Exam (100 maximum points)

The final exam will be given during the University appointed time. Make-up exams will not be allowed.
   1. Comprehensive and written.
   2. Questions will be based on ALL material covered in lectures, handouts, films, lab assignments, and assigned readings. It is important that you know the course content very well.
   3. You will need a scantron form for exams: Benchmark Accuscan #29240 (maroon colored).

3. Educational Materials Portfolio (250 maximum points):
The Educational Materials Portfolio: Marketing components will be completed throughout the semester with varying due dates (see course schedule for more info). The project will be completed in groups (pairs) assigned the first week of classes. Each draft component will be graded separately and returned to the group for revisions. Upon return of the item, each group is asked make all corrections, reprint the component, and put a hardcopy along with the originally graded (earlier draft) in their "Marketing Plan/ Press Kit Materials Portfolio." Please see the Press Kit Project information sheet for detailed grading information and press kit requirements.

Marketing Plan/ Press Kit Materials Components:
- Identified Health Behavior Analysis (20 points)
- Fact Sheet (20 points)
- Brochure (20 points)
- Newsletter (20 points)
- Advertisement 1: Ad (20 points)
- Advertisement 2: Flyer (20 points)
- Social Media (20 points)
- News Release (20 points)
- Website (20 points)
- Presentation (20 points)

4. Attendance (30 maximum points)

Attendance will be taken randomly throughout the semester. Each day is worth 3 points.

5. Class Activities and Assignments (20 maximum points)

Students will complete in-class assignments and activities as assigned. These activities will vary throughout the semester. Students must be present and on-time to receive credit. No make-up activities will be provided. Activities will include things such as reflections, critiques, in-class work (individual/group), in-class brief presentations, etc. Each activity will have specific instructions and criteria, so please read before completion.

6. Lab Assignments (30 maximum points)

Students will complete assignments for each lab. These activities will vary and all contribute to the development of their Marketing Plan and Press Kit Materials.

Student Expectations and Course Policies:

1. Students are to be in class on time. After 5 minutes the door will be closed, if you are late please do not enter. You are responsible for all notes, classroom discussion, oral announcements, etc of what was covered on the day of your absence. IF you miss exams, quizzes or other assignments because of a missed class, then you will receive a “0”.

2. There will be no make-up exams given. Exams are the property of the professor, any exams removed from the classroom by students will result in the score of a “0” be assigned for that exam, and an “F” for the entire course. You must notify the professor IN ADVANCE if you have a university excused absence or a make-up test will not be offered. Any person not showing up for an exam without prior notification automatically receives an “F”.

No make-up tests are given except for an university excused absence with full documentation. If you miss a test, you have one week to make the exam up. If it is not made up within one week, you will receive 0 points for the exam. You have 24 hours after a test is taken by the class to contact me via email to schedule your make-up exam.

3. The final exam is mandatory (cumulative) and will be given during finals week. Early final exams will not be given. If this scheduled time is a problem, please consider dropping this course.

4. Late work assignments are not accepted. Most assignments will be submitted through Folio (a day and time will be posted), but some will be turned in during class time. For assignments turned in during class, please place on the front desk as you walk in. These assignments are due within the first five minutes of class, after that they are considered late and will not be accepted.

5. All assignments must be given to the professor directly, unless otherwise directed. Assignments should not be given to the Office secretary, slipped under my office door, left in my mailbox, etc.

6. Please consult the STUDENT CONDUCT CODE 2016-2017 for course policy concerning issues related to academic dishonesty. Anyone caught violating any of these regulations will be immediately reported to GSU’s Judicial Board, and be assigned a “F” for the course.

7. Last day to withdraw from class without academic penalty is October 10th, 2016. Students who stop attending class without officially withdrawing from the class will receive a final grade of "F".

8. Samples of your work may or may not be reproduced for research purposes and/or inclusion in the professor’s teaching portfolio. You have a right to review anything selected for use, and subsequently ask for its removal.
On the first day of class all students must sign an acknowledgement and consent form that they have received a copy of the syllabus and understand the course policies, expectations and grading procedures.

This syllabus, my lectures, and all materials distributed and presented by me during this course are protected by copyright law. You are authorized to take notes in this class but that authorization extends only to making one set of notes for your personal use and no other use. You are not authorized to sell, license, commercially publish, distribute, transmit, display, or record notes from this class unless you have my written consent to do so.

If you are receiving services from the Student Disability Resource Center (SDRC), please come and see me, as soon as possible, to schedule an appointment and to present me with an official accommodation letter.

This course is on Folio. You are responsible for downloading notes BEFORE you come into class. Please regularly check Folio for any messages that I might have for you.

When you need to contact me, please do so through the jcromley@georgiasouthern.edu email account for I check this one more frequently than the Folio mail messages. I will do my best to respond within 48 hours (with the exception of weekends and holidays).

Cell phones are expected to be OFF (or on silent) and OFF your desk (in your purse or bookbag) at all times during all classes. If you cell phone goes off during class, you are using the phone (i.e. texting) or cell phone is on your desk/person at any time during any lecture you will be asked to leave the class. If completing an in class activity and you are asked to leave you will not receive credit for participation. In case of an emergency, please notify me prior to class.

Please do not email the last week of classes asking to round up your grade. You have the entire semester to earn your grade and extra credit opportunities will not be given the last week of class or finals week.

My Commitment to You:

As a student in my class, you are important to me. I am committed to your continued learning and college experience. You are never an interruption of my work. You are the purpose of it. Students are the most important people at Georgia Southern University. I am honored that you entrust your education to me. I encourage all of you to stop by during my office hours or make an appointment to discuss your progress, review your exams or assignments or discuss your career choices. Furthermore, I believe that the collegiate learning experience must involve collaboration. Students and the professor have reciprocal obligations to each other that must be fulfilled, if the learning process is to be mutually beneficial and successful. Please feel free to visit my office, call, or e-mail me at any time.
Open Door/ Closed Door Office Policy: Most of the time, when I am in my office, my door is open. Please feel free to come in and visit any time when the door is open. When my office door is closed, it means that I am not there or I am working on something and can’t be disturbed. Please respect this and don’t knock unless it is a dire emergency.

Attendance
Georgia Southern believes that significant student learning occurs in the classroom and recognizes the importance of in-class experiences, and if missed by a student even for legitimate reasons, cannot be fully recovered. Attendance is highly recommended; however, if the student is unable to attend class please contact the instructor via email prior to class. The student is also responsible for the work missed during the day of absence. The instructor will be willing to meet with the student if clarification of missed material is needed; however, lecture will not be repeated. In-class assignments missed by the student will receive a grade of zero. If a medical/family emergency occurs on the day of a scheduled assignment or exam the student must contact the instructor immediately (see make-up exam policy).

Students with Special Needs or Disabilities: Georgia Southern University recognizes its responsibility for creating an institutional climate in which students with special needs or disabilities can thrive and learn. The Student Disability Resource Center offers various support services and can help you if special accommodations related to your special need or disability is warranted. If you have any type of special need or disability for which you require accommodations to promote your learning in this course, please discuss your needs with the instructor immediately. It is your responsibility to come to the instructor with issues that are potential impedances to your success in this course. Each student’s issue(s) will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis. Students who choose to wait until the issue has persisted for a lengthy time or the end of the semester will deny the instructor with the opportunity to evaluate their needs and/or a potential solution.

Academic Misconduct
As a student registered at this University, it is expected that you will adhere to only the strictest standards of conduct. It is recommended that you review the latest edition of the Student Conduct Code book, as well as the latest Undergraduate & Graduate Catalog to familiarize yourself with the University’s policies in this regard. Your continued enrollment in this course is an implied contract between you and the instructor on this issue; from this point forward, it is assumed that you will conduct yourself appropriately.

Plagiarism:
"According to the Academic Dishonesty Policy of GSU, Plagiarism includes (but is not limited to):

A. Directly quoting the words of others without using quotation marks or indented format to identify them.
B. Using published or unpublished sources of information without identifying them.
C. Paraphrasing material or ideas without identifying the source."
D. Unacknowledged use of materials prepared by another person or agency engaged in the selling of term papers or other academic material.

If you are accused of plagiarism by a JPHCOPH, the following policy, as per the Judicial Affairs website (http://students.georgiasouthern.edu/judicial/faculty.htm) will be enforced:

PROCEDURES FOR ADJUDICATING ACADEMIC DISHONESTY CASES

First Offense - In Violation Plea
1. If the professor and the Dean of Students agree that the evidence is sufficient to warrant a charge of academic dishonesty, the professor should contact the Office of Judicial Affairs to determine if this is a first violation of academic dishonesty. The incident will be reported via the following website: http://students.georgiasouthern.edu/judicial/faculty.htm
2. If it is a first violation, the professor should talk with the student about the violation. If the student accepts responsibility in writing and the professor decides to adjudicate the case, the following procedures will be followed:
   a. The student will be placed on disciplinary probation for a minimum of one semester by the Office of Judicial Affairs.
   b. The student will be subject to any academic sanctions imposed by the professor (from receiving a 0 on the assignment to receiving a failing grade in the class).
   c. A copy of all the material involved in the case (Academic Dishonesty Report Form and the Request for Instructor to Adjudicate Form) and a brief statement from the professor concerning the facts of the case and the course syllabus should be mailed to the Office of Judicial Affairs for inclusion in the student’s discipline record.

First Offense - Not In Violation Plea (student does not admit the violation)
If the professor and the Dean of Students agree that the evidence is sufficient to warrant a charge of academic dishonesty, the professor should contact the Office of Judicial Affairs to determine if this is the first or second violation of academic dishonesty. The student will be charged with academic dishonesty and the University Judicial Board or a University Hearing Officer would hear the case. If the student is found responsible, the following penalty will normally be imposed:
   a. The student will be placed on Disciplinary Probation for a minimum of one semester by the Office of Judicial Affairs.
   b. The student will be subject to any academic sanctions imposed by the professor.

Second Violation of Academic Dishonesty
If the professor and the Dean of Students agree that the evidence is sufficient to warrant a charge of academic dishonesty, and if it is determined this is the second violation, the student will be charged with academic dishonesty and the University Judicial Board or a University Hearing Officer would hear the case.
   If the student is found responsible, the following penalty will normally be imposed:
      a. Suspension for a minimum of one semester or expulsion.
      b. The student will be subject to any academic sanctions imposed by the professor.

NOT RESPONSIBLE FINDING
When a student is found not responsible of academic dishonesty, the work in question (assignment, paper, test, etc.) would be forwarded to the Department Chair. It is the responsibility of the Chair to ensure that the work is evaluated by a faculty member other than the individual who brought the charge and, if necessary, submit a final grade to the Registrar. For the protection of the faculty member and the student, the work in question should not be referred back to the faculty member who charged the student with academic dishonesty. In the case of a Department Chair bringing charges against a student, an administrator at the Dean’s level will ensure that the student’s work is evaluated in an appropriate manner.

CONFIDENTIALITY
In accordance with provisions of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 and the Georgia Open Records Act, any information related to a violation of academic dishonesty or the outcome of a judicial hearing regarding academic dishonesty, is prohibited and must be treated as confidential by members of the faculty."
