Top stories from October 30, 2018

Editor's Note: Thank you for subscribing to The George-Anne Daily Newsletter. Be sure and keep up with us through our social media links above.

Student-led march and class walkout to take place on Thursday
According to a tweet by GS student Tyler Hicks, the walkout, sit-in and march will begin at the Carroll Building and end at the Marvin-Pittman Building on Sweetheart Circle. Full Story

Brian Kemp to hold rally in Statesboro Friday

Kemp will be holding his rally in the Anderson General Store. According to Kemp's website, the rally is part of the Georgia Republican Party's "Road to Victory" Bus Tour. Full Story
Statesboro Police Chief Mike Broadhead has previously said that in 2017, there were a total of 212 "entering auto" cases, of which 38 were forced entry and 174 were to unlocked vehicles. Full Story

---

Statesboro PD strives to decrease vehicle break-ins

--

Around the Sun Belt: Week 9

Each week The George-Anne sports section will give an update of what's going on around the conference. Here’s a rundown of all the games this past week in
With a senior led group and a favorable schedule, men’s basketball begins quest for first Sun Belt Title

The schedule is set, the talent is there and the hype is beginning to build around Georgia Southern’s 2018-19 basketball season. Full Story
Ghostly legends of southeast Georgia

Halloween is the season for creepy things that go bump in the night. To get in the ‘spooky’ spirit, Reflector Magazine shares a few ghost legends from southeast Georgia. Full Story
Campus Reporter Cabri Gordon goes out and asks Georgia Southern students about their Halloween plans and their all time favorite scary movies. Check out what they had to say! Full Video