THE NEWS.

Published at Statesboro, Ga., EVERY FRIDAY
By The Statesboro News Publishing Co.

Anybody who thinks the nation is out of the woods is invited to reflect upon the 117,000,000 of Washington alone.

The Washington Star remarks that the idea of shirtwaists for men would assuredly gain more headway as a sensible suggestion if people would quit calling them "shirtwaists."

Ireland's recent census shows that her population has decreased at the rate of 5.5 percent since 1891. Scotland's population has increased in the same 10 years over 10 percent.

One of the greatest temptations of Wall street is shown by the number of people who believe they would have been smart enough to get out in time if they had had money invested.

A new military law of Peru makes every citizen liable to compulsory service from 19 to 20 years. The army has five classes—the regular, supplementary, first reserve, second reserve and national guard.

Gerónimo, the noted Apache chief, lives at the age of 80, in a frame house near Fort Huachuca, with an income of over $2000 a year. While little in sympathy with modern civilization, the old chief appreciates one of its inventions, the camera. He charges $5 for his picture.

The blind, through the cinematograph, will not enjoy the delight of seeing the beauty of their pictures. The machine passes under the fingers of the blind a series of different positions—the branch of a tree, a bird or any other object. The blind person has the illusion of moving scenes just as photographs passing over a luminous screen lend the illusion to those with sight.

A French writer, assuming that the property and power of Great Britain depend on her supply of coal, protests that "the end" will come during the 20th century. About the year 1950, he says, the supply will be exhausted. In this prediction he assumes that mines cannot be economically carried on beyond a depth of 2000 feet. Nature, the well known English scientific paper, in answering the Frenchman's ludicrous statement says that recent investigations have shown the possibility of economical mining at much greater depths than 2000 feet, and that the British coal supply will last indefinitely longer than he claims.

A world congress, called for the purpose of fighting the "white death," will meet in London this summer. Medical skill and knowledge of all schools will be brought together with the hope of finding means of combating this most dreaded of all diseases. It is estimated that 60,000 persons perish each year in the United Kingdom from tuberculosis. The United States loses 160,000 persons annually from the disease; still, in this respect, it seems the least afflicted of all the civilized nations. The total number of deaths from tuberculosis in Europe is about 1,000,000 annually. It is now generally agreed that the disease is not hereditary, and that it is possible to prevent its spread by infection. The problem before the world's congress is to tell how this may be done. If it should solve the problem, it will prove inestimable service to humanity.

A blow is being struck against one of London's picturesque characters. No less than eight of the new municipalities which make up the city have declared against the "coveys," and the familiar vender with his "bushy" his "doves" and his "minks" is beginning to feel the hand of the law. There are between 60,000 and 65,000 coveys in London who make their living by peddling. They are a really by-product, different from the rest of London in speech, customs and manners. Perhaps it is not true to say that their speech differs materially from that of the average covey, but it is full of wit and occasional allusions that do not find their equal anywhere. The complaint against the coveys is that they obstruct the streets and interfere with the trade of the shopkeepers. They have a very powerful union and expect to fight the effort which is being made to keep them off the street.

If you have something to sell, let the people know it. An advertisement in this paper will do the work.

PACIFICATION A MYTH

Military Rule Re-Established in Three Philippine Provinces.

CIVIL COMMISSION POWERLESS

This Move Places General Chaffee in Higher Authority Than That Exercised by Governor Taft.

A Manila special says: The United States civil commission announced Thursday that after three months' trial of a province of government in the islands of Cebu and Iloilo and the province of Batangas, Luzon, control of these districts, owing to their incomplete pacification, has been returned to the military authorities, it having been proved that the commission is backward and unadvising of civil administration. The provisional and civil officials continue their functions, but are now under the authority of General Chaffee instead of that of Civil Governor Taft, as heretofore.

General Chaffee has the power arbitrarily to remove from office any or all provisional or civil officers and to subordinate any section of the laws promulgated in these provinces.

The residents of the island of Cebu have protested, but without success, against the return of that island to military control. Several towns in Cebu are still besieged by the insurgents. The insurance on the island of Bohol has been removed and many of the residents have fled. A great sentiment in the province of Batangas is strong.

General Chaffee has ordered a battalion of the Philippine infantry to be sent to the island of Mindoro. The province of Batangas will be occupied by the entire Twentieth Infantry.

OLD MAN ADMITS GUILT.

English Peer Confesses to Having Two Spouses and Receives Sentence. A London special says: Earl Russell, 81, arrived at the bar of the house of lords Thursday for trial on the charge of bigamy, pleaded guilty after the English commission at their executive session Thursday. Mr. Russell denied every charge made against him. The commission's decision will be made known Saturday.

The trial was carried on with all the quiet middle age ceremonies. The arguments lasted one hour. Both the earl and Counsel Russell (Mr. Russell) were heard by the court.

After the reply of the prosecution to the argument of counsel for his defense, Earl Russell, in a voice audible, pleaded guilty. Counsel then addressed the house in mitigation, pleading that the accused had acted upon the best legal advice obtainable in Nevada.

Lord Russell then addressed the house and said he proposed to re-marry Mollie Cooke at an early time. The judges retired. The court then decided that justice would be satisfied by his being imprisoned in Holloway prison for three months as a criminal in a first division.

"NOTHING TO ARBITRATE."

Officials of Steel Trust Say Demand of Strikers is Only Sentimental One. The steel trust officials, according to The New York Journal and Advertiser, have been given out by a member of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co.

The United States Steel corporation will not consent to any arbitration of the present difficulty. There is nothing to arbitrate. The company stands willing to agree to the demands of the men as far as wages and hours. If there is any other question, it is merely a sentimental one raised by the Amalgamated Association.

TWO BOYS DIE IN FLAMES.

Roy Jones, 12 years old, and Bryan Jones, his four-year-old brother, were burned to death at Broad Ripple, Ind., Tuesday in attempting to start a fire with coal oil.

Lighting's Deadly Work.

Three persons were struck by lightning at Cartersville, Ga., Tuesday afternoon. Two are dead, while the third is not expected to live.

HISTS OF EPWORTH LEAGUERS

Gather at Frisco in Fifth International Convention—President McKinley Sends Message of Greeting.

The fifth international convention of the Epworth League was opened at San Francisco, Cal., Thursday under the most auspicious conditions. The weather was ideal and the attendance equalled the most sanguine expectations. The record at the Mechanics' pavilion, where the main exercises of the day were held, was one not soon to be forgotten. Every vacant place in the auditorium and galleries was occupied by enthusiastic delegates and every unsightly inch of wall was hid by tasteful decorations. Thunderous volumes of harmonious tones from human throats and the vibrant accompaniment of the monster Stanford organ inspired a feeling of reverent admiration and homage that entered into the full possession of participants and onlookers. The rubrics had virtually fulfilled their promises and, despite many annoying delays, landed the last of the eastern delegates in time for the introductory ceremonies. The great army of invasion, with 20,000 men and women in rank and file, had been provided for without the least trouble and in a manner most gratifying to all.

During the forenoon the streets leading to the Mechanics' pavilion, headquarters of the league, were thronged with thousands of delegates wearing the badges of the order, and long before the hour fixed for the preliminary proceedings the vast structure, which will accommodate 15,000 persons, was practically filled. The Alabama theater and Metropolitan Temple, where simultaneous meetings were held, each held 2,500 people and provision has been made for any possible overflow in churches.

President McKinley wired the following message:

"I have much pleasure in sending to the international Epworth League convention, assembled at San Francisco, my hearty congratulations upon the good work the great body of Christian men and women which it represents has accomplished in the past, and my earnest wish that even greater success will crown the future efforts of the league."

Other communications were from Governors McMillan, of Tennessee; Shaw, of Iowa; Dublin, of Kentucky; Yates, of Illinois; Bliss, of Michigan; Dockery, of Missouri; Stanley, of Kansas; and Van Sant, of Minnesota. All were received with cheers, those from McKinley and Roosevelt arousing the audience to much enthusiasm.

HANNAH TALKS EXPANSION.

In a speech at Buffalo Show He Comes Out Strong For Foreign Trade. At the exercises in Buffalo Thursday with which the Ohio building was turned over to the exposition, Senator Hanna spoke on "Commercial Relations of the American Continent." He said the men who conceived the idea of holding the exposition, just when the United States is taking the lead in industrial enterprises, deserved great praise.

"Let us make trade extension a great movement," he said, in conclusion, "and let this Pan American exposition be the beginning; let us see that nothing stands between us and closer relations with South American countries."

After Murdering Family, Fuchheim Applied Torch and Suicide. The coroner's investigation of the deaths of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fuchheim and their child, whose bodies were found in the ruins of their home at Glenwood, Ind., which burned Tuesday night shows that Fuchheim was driven insane by heat and jealousy, decapitated his wife and her son by a former husband with an ax, cut the throat of his four year old child, burned the house and barn and then shot himself after hanging his marriage certificate on the fence.

INSANE FROM JEALOUSY.

Bank Cashier Makes Strong Point For Defense In Forgery Case. In the Glen's forgery case at Parkersburg, W. Va., Thursday morning John R. Wallace, cashier for the Merchants and Mechanics' bank, stated that if the witness showed him, then the forgery of the name of George A. and Vesta Hoover to the $1,400 had never been made by Glenn.

This was a surprise to the state, as it was their witness that made the statement and he was put in as an expert.

MAY DEVELOP TRAGEDY.

Charred Bodies of Husband, Wife and Child Found in Burned Home. Three charred bodies were found in the ruins of the residence of Frederick Fuchheim, destroyed by fire at Glenwood, Ind., Wednesday morning. It is believed he killed his wife and child in a collision of Missouri, Kansas and Illinois. He was found with a revolver and a razor were found near the bodies.

Bulloch will have plenty of corn this year, and it is a great blessing. Corn is higher in Chicago now than it has been in twenty years, and the western farms are burning up.

Every day now a big fortune turns up. Ever since that $30-000 in gold was found in Bulloch
it seems that fickle fortune is smiling everywhere.

It takes over seven millions of votes to elect a president, and we wonder if the Palmer and Buckner men, who are making so much fuss now, think they will be able to deliver enough?

Bryan will never again be the Democratic nominee for president, but he probably got more votes than some other Democrats would.

Col. Estill for Governor.

It is generally conceded that South Georgia should name the next governor. Since Hon. F. G. dullignon has retired on account of his health, several gentlemen have been named for this high office. Among them is the name of Col. John H. Estill of Savannah.
Probably no man is more deserving of political honor and reward than this distinguished gentleman.
For thirty-five years he has been an important factor in the progress of his city and state, and, in season and out of season he has stood by his party and fought for the South and her best interests.
His great executive ability has won him fortune, and he has fought life's battles from the bottom, up; and South Georgia could do no better than to make him its candidate, and Georgia would be proud of such a man for governor.

REGISTER DOTS.

Misses Lela Donaldson and Genie Mathews of Statesboro are two pleasant visitors of our little town this week.

We are glad to learn that Miss Lucy Riggs who has been quite sick of fever for some time is improving.

Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Nevil Mr. and Mrs. Jim Holland and several others took a trip to Tybee last Friday; they returned Saturday and report quite a pleasant time.

It is supposed that there will be a lively time in our little town on the third of August as some of our young folks have decided upon having a picnic here on that day. There is no doubt but what they will have a nice time and will be glad to welcome their friends from other neighborhoods.

Mr. and Mrs. Lennie Zetterow attended church at Pulaski Sunday.

Miss. Charlie and Andrew Williams of Register visited relatives in Statesboro last Saturday.

Mr. Lemuel Zetterow visited his brother Louis last week.

See Here!
I have opened a blacksmith shop at the J. L.
Brown old stand on West Main street. I have a good workman employed and guarantee satisfaction.
Your patronage in horseshoeing and general repair work will be appreciated.

Jerome Items.

There was a picnic at the Golar landing Friday, given in honor of Oak Grove Sunday school, the school furnished plenty of refreshments and the fishing committee caught plenty of fish. Friday was a fine day and all present enjoyed it very much.

Mr. M. A. Newton and J. T.
Newton made a flying trip to Seven county Saturday on their wheels.

Miss Pauline Smith who has been visiting relatives and friends in Bulloch returned to her home at Oliver Sunday.

Mr. B. M. Smith has the finest patch of cotton in our community.

Mr. Jim Everett has been very sick of typhoid fever for five weeks induced very low. Thursday and Friday nights it seems that there was no chance for him, but Saturday morning there was a change for the better. Dr. Seibels says there is a chance for him now.

Mr. B. L. Sharp has closed his mercantile business at Jerome.

The river has gotten into its banks now, and the boys don't come home with the fishermen's luck so often.

Through Trains from Savannah to Dublin.

The Central began last Sunday to run through passenger trains from Dublin to Savannah via Statesboro. The people of Dublin have been anxious to get the trains to their city, and now they can go to Savannah, and return the same day. Heretofore the cars only went to Brunton and return. The distance from Dublin to Savannah via Statesboro is 141 miles, whereas it is 175 miles via Tennesse.
The Central is reaching out in every direction, and is getting to be a big system.

A Word in Season.

Albany Herald.

Chief among the loudest and most conspicuous Democrats in the land now are those who are asked or bolted in 1896 and 1900.
They seem to assume that they are called upon to recognize the party. There are only a few thousand of them, all told, while there are six and a half millions who were loyal to the party and voted the party ticket under circumstances which put party loyalty to the test. But a little discrepancy like this doesn't embarrass these reformers and would be leaders in the best.
They think that what they lack in numbers is more than compensated for in the superiority of their virtue and wisdom.

It is all right for all of the backsliders and reactionaries to come back into the Democratic party and line up against the common enemy, but such as these should be found in the ranks and not carrying swords and giving orders. Let not these fellows who have either been party donors or in aerial league with the enemy through two national campaigns assume to dictate to the great majority in everything with reference to the next campaign. If there are dead issues to be left out of the next platform and new ones to be brought in, the Democrats who stood together in 1896 and 1900 should be the ones to determine these things. And they will do it.
Let not these fellows who have been out of line and plumb be too quick to assume command in the operations of the party with reference to the next campaign lest they get called down later on when the common herd begins to stir.

Old Men in Public Life.

New York World: Senator Allison has declared himself barred by age from entering the presidential campaign of 1904. He will be seventy-five when the convention meets. William Henry Harrison, oldest of our presidents, was but sixty-eight when inaugurated, and only lived a month in office.
John Adams became president at sixty-two, Jackson at the same age.
Taylor at sixty-five, Buchanan at sixty-six. All the other chief magistrates have been under sixty when inaugurated. It is not always true that a man is only as old as he feels. There are things to be considered. Mr. Allison is still a man of observation, of keen thought, of forceful utterance. In the senate chamber he is good for active service probably for a long time yet. He is younger by three years than sturdy Senator Hoar. Messrs.
Hawley and Morgan, of Alabama, are his seniors—Mr. Pettus by nine years. But for the presidency, perhaps, it is true of the country as Mr. Allison says of his Iowans: "You could not convince our people that a man of seventy-five is not old." There are responsibilities centering at the white house which demand vigorous shoulders as well as a clear head, and no party wants to "take the risk" with a president past threescore years and ten. It is nothing to the point to argue that Palmerston, Gladstone and Salisbury have carried the British premiership in their several days when well beyond the threescore and ten. A president has no shift-y ministry with which to share the weight of commanding office.

How to Be Cheerful.

The sovereign path to cheerfulness, if our smiles are faintness be lost, is to be cheerfully, to look around cheerfully and to act and speak as if cheerfulness were already there. If such conduct doesn't make you feel cheerful, nothing else will that occasion can. So, to feel brave, act as if we were brave, use all our will to that end, and a courage it will very likely replace the fit of fear. Again, in order to feel kindly toward a person to whom we have been inimical, the only way is more or less deliberately to smile, to make sympathetic inquiries and to force ourselves to say kind things. One hearty laugh together will bring enemies into a closer communion of heart than hours spent on both sides in inward wrestling with the mental demon of uncharitable feeling. To wrestle with a bad feeling is to stultify the mind; whereas if we act as if from some better feeling, the old bad feeling soon folds its tent like an Arab and silently steals away.— Professor William James.

The Bed of Death.

One may live as a conqueror, a king or a magistrate, but he must die as a man. The bed of death brings every human being to his pure individuality, to that intense contemplation of that deepest and most solemn of all relations—the relation between the creature and his Creator. Here it is that time and reason cannot assist us; that external things must fall to aid us; that even from affection and human love and devotedness cannot succeed us.—Daniel Webster.

The Statesboro News.

STATESBORO, GA., FRIDAY AUGUST 2, 1901.

VOL. 1, NO 21.

A single sin however apparently trifling, however hidden in some obscure corner of our consciousness a sin that we do not intend to renounce is enough to render real prayer impracticable.

White Man Turned Yellow.

Great consternation was felt by the friends of M. A. Hogarty of Lexington, Ky., when they saw he was turning yellow. His skin slowly changed color, his eyes, and he suffered terribly. He was treated by the best doctors, but without benefit. Then he was advised to try Electric Bitter, the wonderful Stomach and Liver remedy, and he writes: "After taking two bottles I was wholly cured." A trial proves its matchless merit for all Stomach and Liver troubles. Only 25c. Sold by L. J. McLean & Co.

Call it happiness or call it blessedness, the life whose end is righteousness is a life which satisfies, and which one is not willing and glad to live, its ways are ways of pleasantness and all its paths are peace.

She Didn't Wear A Mask.

But her beauty was completely hidden by sores, blotches and pimples till she used Buckley's Arnica Salve. Then they vanished as with all Eruptions, Eczema, Scabies, Itch, Eruptions, and Feltous from its use. Infallible for Cuts, Corns, Burns, Scabs and Piles. Cure guaranteed. 25c. at L. J. McLean & Co.

Be generous. Meanness makes enemies and breeds distrust.

A Poor Millionaire

Lately stayed in London because he could not digest his food. Early use of Dr. King's New Life Pills would have saved him. They strengthen the stomach, aid the digestion, promote assimilation, improve appetite. Price 25c. Money back if not satisfied. Sold by L. J. McLean & Co.

Be punctual. Keep your appointments. Be there a minute ahead of time, if you have to lose your dinner to do it.

Be polite. Every smile, every gentle bow is money in your pocket.

Many thousands have been restored to health and happiness by the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. If afflicted with any throat or lung trouble, give it a trial for it is certain to prove beneficial. Coughs that have resisted all other treatment for years have yielded to this remedy and perfect health has been restored. Cases that seemed hopeless, that the climate of famous health resorts failed to benefit, have been permanently cured by its use. Bear in mind that every bottle warranted and if it does not prove beneficial the money will be refunded to you. For sale by L. J. McLean & Co., Druggists.

Trust to nothing but God and hard work. Inscribe on your banner: "Luck is a fool; pluck is a hero."

The Best Remedy for Stomach and Bowel Troubles.

"I have been in the drug business for twenty years and have sold most of all the proprietary medicines of any note. Among the entire list I have never found anything to equal Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for all stomach and bowel troubles. I have cured two severe cases of cholera mortis in my family and I have recommended and sold hundreds of bottles of it to my customers to their entire satisfaction. It affords a quick and sure cure in a pleasant form. No family should be without it. I keep it in my house at all times." For sale by L. J. McLean & Co., Druggists.

Don't try to begin at the top. Begin at the bottom, and you will have a chance to rise, and be surer to reach the top.

The pills that annoy you so will be quickly and permanently healed if you use DeWitt's Little Hazel Salve. Be aware of worthless counterfeits.

Enter into the business or trade which you like best, and for which nature seems to have fitted you, provided it is honorable.

"I am indebted to One Minute Cough Cure for my present good health and my life. I was treated in vain by doctors for lung trouble following a gripple. I took One Minute Cough Cure and recovered my health." E. H. W. Madison, Ga.

Cure for Cholera Infantum—Never Known to Fail.

During last May an infant child of our neighbor was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctors had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days the child had fully recovered. The child is now vigorous and healthy. I have recommended this remedy frequently and have never known it to fail.—Mrs. Curtis Baker, Bowdoin, Ohio. For sale by L. J. McLean & Co., Druggists.

A Georgia exchange declares that the one of men harried by a mob to the top of a tall telephone pole was "above reproach."

The One Day Cold Cure.

For cold in the head and sore throat use Kerr's Cold and Cough Cure. One bottle cures. Sold by L. J. McLean & Co.

It is curious to look back and recall what part Georgia played in the Chicago convention of 1896.

The Georgia delegation was for Bland. Bland was for restoration of silver, and the people had made furious the cry for "more money." They were answered until the almost disastrous discovery of silver since 1896.

When Bryan delivered his speech which electrified the convention, the Georgia delegation deserted Bland and went to Bryan. Up to this speech Bryan had no support.

Our Monitor slipped around among the Georgia delegation and they signed a paper for Bryan. They then notified the Nebraska delegation that Georgia would go for Bryan. A caucus was then held and the Georgia delegation selected Hal Lewis to put Bryan in nomination.

Yet we are told by some that the Northern Democrats dictated to us and that the South has no voice in Democratic National conventions, but his to do the bidding of the North—and those South hating papers, like the Chicago Chronicle are cited as proof that the Northern Democrats dictate and boss and control all Democratic National conventions.

And yet of the South are called upon to rebel against Northern Democracy for their ill usage of us.

The Chicago convention does not prove the charge against the Northern Democracy. The South and Georgia in particular, was much there. We were there in evidence and spoke and acted even to the dramatic. Northern Democracy had to take the back seat.

How of 1907? It was the same old way as 1896. Only the North advised and we acted not for advice, but we proceeded our way independent of Hill, and the views of the East.

How can it be said that we are apat upon by Northern Democracy. They have been wonderfully faithful under all the circumstances, and in congress they have voted with us on all issues affecting the race. We are the South should not prefer change against allies who have been so true and faithful.—Macon News.

Cuts and bruises are healed by Chamberlain's Pain Balm in about one third the time any other treatment would require because of its antiseptic qualities which cause the parts to heal without maturation. For sale by L. J. McLean & Co., Druggists.

A Cartersville girl contemplating a trip to the seaside, ordered a bathing suit a week or so ago and was surprised to receive it by mail under a two-cent stamp. Her mother says she will not go to the seaside this season.

Needed at All Times.
Faith is a daily requisite. It is more than a pair of spiritual wings, with which the soul may try to heaven. We are not to attempt to do, without the work may be in vain, but faith in its success will give it dignity and worth. Without this hopeful hopefulness no man can please God nor even himself.—Presbyterian Journal.
