Lime bike found on roof of Dining Commons

Another Lime product has been found in an odd place on the Statesboro campus.

Students found a Lime bike sitting on the roof of the entrance to the Dining Commons Wednesday morning, presumably put there by a group of students

the night before. Full Story

Lime recalls scooters after fear of them catching fire

Lime has recalled some of its scooters because of the chance that the batteries could catch fire.

The George-Anne has reached out to Lime about the safety of Georgia Southern University's scooters but only received a link to a blog post from Lime regarding the situation in general. Full Story

Four things we know about the ninth game of the season against Louisiana-Monroe

A week after knocking off No. 25 Appalachian State at home, Georgia Southern travels west to take on Louisiana-Monroe, in a conference game with a lot of importance. Full Story

Opinion: It's King Lunsford's court and we're all here for it

"From the slamming of the metal chairs to the waving of the hat to the Georgia Southern faithful, Chad Lunsford has done everything right. In just his first season at the helm of the Eagles, Lunsford has done a better job reinvigorating a program than any other coach in college football history." - Sports Editor McClain Baxley.
