ABOUT THE COLLECTION

Biographical History: Dr. William H. Schubert received his Bachelor’s Degree in Liberal Arts & Elementary Education with a Minor in Psychology from Manchester College and a Masters’ Degree in History and Philosophy of Education from Indiana University-Bloomington. He received his Ph.D. in Curriculum Studies from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. In 1975, Dr. Schubert became a faculty member at the University of Illinois at Chicago (UIC) where he would stay for another 36 years. He was Chair of Curriculum & Instruction for seven years. During this time, he was the coordinator of the Ph.D. Program in Curriculum Studies from 1982 to 2011. Alongside his role as a professor, some of Dr. Schubert’s major projects included: The Teacher Lore Project; The Student Lore Project; The Curriculum Improvement Project; and the Project on Curriculum, Globalization, and Peace. After his retirement in 2011, Dr. Schubert continued to impact the education field with symposium work and advising work with Universities, including Georgia Southern University.
