COLORFUL MAY DAY PAGEANT WILL BE PRESENTED HERE MONDAY, MAY 3

QUEEN AND COURT TO BE PRESENTED

NATURAL DANCES BY PHYSICAL EDUCATION CLASSES WILL BE GIVEN. GUEST DANCE TO COMPLETE PROGRAM.

Plans for the May Day program to be performed before the queen, Miss Louise Quantock, and her court on May 3rd are rapidly taking more definite form. The program will be held at the open air stage by Lake Wells at 5:00 p. m.

Members of the boys' and girls' physical education classes will put on stunts and dances, and various independent groups have also been practicing to do their parts in making this day a success.

A formal minuet by the members of the court will open the program. The Training School is planning to do its part toward the entertainment of the royal group. These children will do a Norwegian folk dance and a dance around the May Pole.

The girls' physical education classes have planned to do several folk dances and will wind six or eight May Poles. The boys' physical education classes will put on stunts directed by Coach Smith.

Little Ann Wells will be the crown bearer. Edward and Carlton, the Carruth twins, are court heralds. Alva Caroline Singley and Gene Henderson will carry the queen's train.

Following the afternoon program will be the quarterly "guest night" dance in the Gym. A grand march led by the queen, Louise Quantock, and Leonard Kent will be the feature

Georgia History Class To Make Annual Tour

The Georgia history class and several members of the faculty will leave on Friday, April 26, for the annual Georgia history trip.

During the afternoon the party will visit Wormsloe Gardens, Bethesda, and the Georgia Historical Society that night. Saturday morning is to be devoted to visiting the Colonial cemetery, city hall, Telfair Art Academy, the Independent Presbyterian church, at Savannah, and other markers of historical interest.

On the way to St. Simons, the following places will be visited: Church and cemetery at Midway, Sunbury, Fort Morris, Spanish mission out from Darien. While at St. Simons, the class will visit the Cloister Hotel, site of Battle of Bloody Marsh, site of Oglethorpe's home, Wesley Oaks, Christ church and the fort at Frederica. The party will return Sunday, April 28.

COLLEGE FOREST OFFICIALLY CHRISTENED AS "HERTY PINES." DR. DeLOACH GIVES IMPRESSIVE TALK.

Dr. Charles H. Herty, noted Georgia scientist, was paid high honor and tribute here last Monday by the Teachers College and the Statesboro Chamber of Commerce. Dr. Herty, here for the ceremonies, was principal speaker on a program which included Dr. M. S. Pittman and Guy H. Wells, present and former presidents of this institution.

Dr. Herty, in reviewing his life in the turpentine cup experimentation for which he first became famous, spoke to his large audience of students and visitors in an informal manner as he graphically described some of the difficulties encountered in starting something new. Dr. Herty was obviously delighted to revisit the scene where 34 years ago he hung the first Herty turpentine cup on a pine tree.

"I have no intention of making an address here today," spoke the inventor, "I just came to have a good time."

Following the morning address, the audience went to the tree on which Dr. Herty's first cup was hung and a marker for the spot was unveiled. From there the crowd walked to the scene where the pine forest was named in honor of Dr. Herty.

The scientist, in responding to the christening, expressed his hope that

Debate Team Will Meet A. B. College

Both the affirmative and negative debating teams of South Georgia Teachers College will debate Abraham Baldwin College of Tifton on Wednesday, April 24, on the subject, "Resolved, That the several states should enact legislation providing to its citizens at nominal cost general medical care and the service of hospitals and clinics."

The negative team represented by Bob Espy and Lofton Giddens will go to Tifton to meet the affirmative team of the Abraham Baldwin College, while the affirmative team, composed of George Carter and Hearn Lumpkin, will remain here to debate the negative of the same college.

This is the second inter-collegiate debate of the club. The first was with the Freshman team from the University of Florida. This will be the last debate on the campus but several more have been scheduled for the teams at other places.

IN APPRECIATION

In the course of our every-day lives we are apt to overlook the many small things that are effected to make our surroundings more pleasant. From time to time Dr. Pittman has taken advantage of every opportunity in an effort to improve our campus, buildings, grounds, and entire physical plant. During his stay of ten months on the campus of South Georgia Teachers College many improvements have been made and the student body in general has received a benefit from each one.

Our latest addition to the campus is the modern track field that has recently been constructed behind West Hall. This is the first time in the history of South Georgia Teachers College that we have been known to have a varsity track team, a coach and a suitable field on which to practice.

Many changes in the buildings have been completed, but most noticeable among them is the enlarging of the library and cutting of doors in the ends of the Administration Building thereby relieving the congestion of the halls. Now the library can accommodate twice as many students as formerly. The kitchen has been benefitted a great deal, too. The floor has been completely reconstructed, and a new range has been installed so that our food can be prepared more tastefully. Then, too, a steamer for sterilizing the dishes has been added to increase the efficiency of the dining hall from a health standpoint.

Even the cows are more contented now. They, too, have a nice new home and we have, in turn, sweeter milk. The building of a new barn not only increased the efficiency of the farm unit, but also made a great difference in the physical appearance of our campus. An improved cannery is in the process of building. This will be ready for the early spring vegetables.

To develop a thorough appreciation of the arts, literature and finer things, Dr. Pittman has been the financial backer of inter-collegiate debating, the thoughtful introducer of the leisure arts program, and a strong advocate of student participation in government. Under his guidance the band and orchestras have been encouraged to success and a competent musical director secured. Dr. Pittman secured money from the Rockefeller Foundation for carrying on the helping teacher service plan which has been carried on during the past nine months in Wheeler and Treutlen counties under the leadership of Miss Jane Franceth.

To a man who has had as his sole purpose the building of an institution, we offer congratulations for a wide measure of success in the beginning. With such determination his visions of the future for South Georgia Teachers College can but become realities.

THE NEW CHANCELLOR

Announcement of the selection of Dr. S. V. Sanford, president of the University of Georgia, as chancellor of the University System has been received with profound interest throughout the state. Nowhere could the board of regents have found a more capable individual, a person more devoted to higher education in Georgia, and a man better prepared to hold the highest position in Georgia education.

The university will suffer a distinct loss. Dr. Sanford has devoted much of his life work to this institution and has built for Georgia an institution that is second to none in the country. With unceasing effort he has worked to advance Georgia to a par with the other states.

The Red and Black, University of Georgia newspaper, of Friday, April 12, praised Dr. Sanford very highly:

"When Chancellor-elect Steadman Vincent Sanford assumes the controlling reins of higher education in Georgia next July, the state at large will benefit in direct proportion to the personal loss that the University of Georgia will sustain.

"That the board of regents of a great University System has had the intelligence, the foresight and the courage to select a man of the caliber of Steadman V. Sanford to head the state's educational system is a compliment not only to their own ability but also to the governor and the people of the state who selected them.

"Working always with the idea that a university can be no greater than its least-important student, Dr. Sanford in his 32 years at Georgia has built on the foundations constructed by such men as Abraham Baldwin, Walter B. Hill and David C. Barrow an institution whose greatness is measured by the love for it borne in the heart of every student and graduate.

"Two thousand five hundred students and 10,000 graduates today acclaim the election to the supreme educational seat of the state a man whom each knows as his personal friend.

"Untiring in his efforts despite obstacle after obstacle, Dr. Sanford had fought for a greater University of Georgia with every vestige of power that comes from his capable hands and head. New buildings for the university, a greater and larger faculty, paved roads on the campus—all loom as a certainty for the university because of the efforts of the man who has now been taken away from the confines of one institution to administer the educational affairs of the entire state.

"The Red and Black joins the thousands who today pay him tribute. That he must leave the University, the scene of his 32-year fight for the cause to which he has dedicated himself, higher education, is indeed a blow. But if we must, we give him up with the assurance that the state and society at large will receive as great benefits from his leadership as the University of Georgia has during his term as its guiding spirit."

After Three Years—They Haven't Changed

Shelby still goes with Helen.
Pafford is still playing around.
Chapel speakers still fan gnats.
Quat is still the Freshmen's ideal.
The students still gripe about the food.

The pool is still just before being filled.

The Little Store still gets all our money.

Sarah Kate still reigns as "Queen of Jazz."

Jim Wrinkle still plays pretty good basketball.

Dr. Carruth still cautions, "Now, don't be ugly!"

Jake Hines still signs up for all of Coach's courses.

We are still promised plenty of hot water—eventually.

Boys and girls still can't sit on the campus together.

"Crook" Smith is still feeding teams a nickel a head.

The George-Anne still gets criticized and congratulated.

Mr. Singley still completes every statement with "so to speak."

"Coonie" still picks out Freshmen to bestow his attentions upon.

People are still being asked to "call by the business office, please."

Miss Mamie still insists that "the boys are what the girls make them."

Kent still rates as most intellectual and Louise Quantock as most beautiful.

We're still on the verge of constructing $200,000 worth of new buildings.

Miss Michael still wages war against paper and couples who loiter in the halls.

We still date in the auditorium which resembles the Grand-Central Station at train time.

Couples still find the library an ideal spot for courting if one keeps a sharp lookout for Miss Ray.

of the evening. The Student Council is planning to make this the outstanding event on the social calendar for the entire year. There will be a musical program and other forms of entertainment for those who don't dance. Each student has been urged to invite some special friend to come here for that affair and invitations have been issued to all alumni.

All parents of the students and interested friends have been invited to witness the afternoon's pageant and then stay for the dance in the evening.

Among the Athletes

Teachers baseball team split a two-game series with the Douglas Tigers here Friday and Saturday, April 12th and 13th. Douglas won the first encounter 14-11 and the Teachers took the second engagement 10-7.

Bish Ratley and Abie Abelson pitched the first game and Hayman did the mound work in the second against an old T. C. man, Harold McKneely. Abie seemed a little wild, walking a number of men in the first game.

Hayman will probably start the first game against B.-P. I. Friday, with Ratley or Abelson seeing service on Saturday.

Dodie Lambright seems to have replaced the Golden on third and Dubose has a good chance at the second base position.

Little Paul Robertson looked mighty good behind the plate when he replaced Cliett. But he has yet to go a long way to keep pace with the Bainbridge snagger.

Blakely Thornton showed his ability in the practice track meet held Wednesday with both high school and college boys participating. All-around man, Wrinkle, jumped 21 feet the same day.

The meet showed that the track team is rapidly getting into shape and will be able to take care of themselves in any meet. Spec Landrum won the 22-yard dash and another member of the Statesboro High School team won the 440-yard dash.

The tennis team has again started work and held its first match with Abraham Baldwin College at Tifton. A number of other meets have been scheduled.

The football line-up for next year promises to furnish quite a bit of competition for T. C. There are games with Cochran, Stetson and other old opponents.

The T. C. net men showed up rather well in the tennis meet with Mercer last Friday. Coach Hanner deserves lots of praise.

The high school track meet on the college field Saturday showed a lot of good material in the neighboring high schools. The Statesboro boys looked good.

PROFS WIN OVER BREWTON-PARKER

The Blue Tide baseball team got off to a good start in the first inning of the series with Brewton-Parker here Friday afternoon by scoring two runs in the first inning. The game was fast from the first and both teams played "heads up" ball.

Klontz, star catcher for Brewton-Parker, played well for the visitors and Baird and Woods starred for the Teachers. Baird got two hits out of five trips to the plate and Klontz secured three out of five. Woods, veteran Prof first baseman, played an unusually good game at his position.

Hayman hurled for the Teachers, while Wimberly was on the mound for Brewton-Parker.

District Track Meet Held Here Saturday

South Georgia Teachers College was host to the First District track meet, with both B and C schools represented here Saturday. The events were held on the new track field near West Hall. Coach B. L. (Crook) Smith officiated for the high school association.

Schools represented included: Sylvania, Statesboro, Portal, Vidalia, Stilson, Metter, Claxton, Swainsboro, Adrian, Hinesville, Springfield, Lyons and Emanuel County Institute.

COUNCIL NEWS

(By NANCY YOUNG)

This afternoon's games will decide who wins the B's for the championship of the baseball tournament. Both the Sophomores and Seniors as well as the Juniors are being spotted. It will be the team who can play the festest and the best ball who will win. And—the game between the Sophomores and the Freshmen, which had been spotted to be a heated battle wasn't hot at all. In fact it wasn't even warm, because they didn't play. You ask the Freshmen why—'cause the Sophs won't tell. Anyway, the score was 2-0 in favor of the upperclassmen and not a Freshman to be seen.

And after baseball there's swimming and tennis. The pool has not been opened yet, but we're expecting it to open every day.

The tennis tournament will begin next week and every one should be getting in shape in order to put out the best team for every class so the tournament will be real interesting. Personally, we're wondering who'll be the lucky one to wear the crown of the Queen of the Tennis Courts. The Seniors looked mighty good out there represented by Edenfield and Dekle. Maybe this is the tournament that the Seniors have been saving all their energy and spirit for.

It is just a few weeks till the "Big Event" in the life of every W. A. A. Council member—"The House Party Down at Tybee." The date is set for May 11th, and if nothing happens we'll all be there. Here's to the sleepless nights and the shrimp salad and above all the blistered backs we're sure to get.

We almost forgot to mention the bridge party last week sponsored by the council. It was a real success, and we're planning on having many more in the future. Thanks, Eloise, for your good work. The W. A. A. appreciates it and every one who uses any of the equipment purchased with the money will appreciate it also.

.. DIRT ..

(By THE DIGGERS)

Trouble in paradise! Hugh Hodges once said Claxton was heaven to him. However, after a little commencement date for Mary Jones and strong Glennville competition for Hugh, he has replaced the star in his firmament with Foy.

In the pages of history no one has ever been known to manage a harem with such ability as does the mighty Wrinkle. He's stringing three at one time. This past week end he spent the time in Warrenton with Fat Land; next week it's a spree to Atlanta with Verna, with a few glances at Mildred Brannen on the side.

Sighs from East were even louder than the pines when Bachelors were pledged. Some of the Freshmen were contracted for in advance for the banquet. Ethel Mae Byrd has done meritorious work along this line.

Patrons of the Grand-Central Station on Sunday night are not kicking about the lack of chairs and space, but earnestly request that Miss Collins stay just around the corner.

Many girls in East have unique ways of getting visitors in their rooms. It is rumored that Katherine Tedder and Bernie Mallory served lollypops; "Truck-Horse" McElveen and "Full Back" Young gave sugar-coated pecans, and Helen Irvin and Melba Harvey kept a visitors' book.

This Pafford-Harvey affair is just too much. Melba has realized her strategic position and never lets Paff out of her sight. Whether it's town, class, or the Little Store, she's there.

The Rahn-Gray-McKneely triangle is in the limelight at this time.

Kent and Quantock, the satellites, will lead the grand march at the May Day ball. "Oozie" and his all-Americans are to provide the rhythm. It is being whispered that Mr. "C" is on the spot. A showdown looms in the distance.

Three years and they're still the same.

Dr. Carruth still proves a favorite with his unusual performances in class and "I don't mean to be ugly."

Dr. DeLoach continues to say, "You won't find anything like it in a hundred years."

Chapel speakers still fan gnats.

After three years Kathryn and Sid are still faithful to each other.

Sophie still chases all the faculty men and is "crazy about her boys."

Mamie still gives teas and spreads it on, having all the notables over to East. She still has definite ideas at the bottom of it all.

Miss Ray still juices around in that Pontiac. She hasn't yet learned to drive. We would suggest that she buy an Austin. It would be a lot more economical and it's about her speed.

One hundred and thirty-five undergraduates at Princeton University working as waiters in the dining halls during 1933-34 received $31,971 wages. —Cluster.

CLUBS

DELTA SIGMA

The Delta Sigma fraternity announces the initiation of William Garrison, Durwood Fulford, Charles Paine, Robert Espy, George Cliett, Albert Green. Members, new pledges and the faculty sponsor, Dr. R. J. H. DeLoach, enjoyed a stag supper Saturday evening, April 20th.

EPICUREAN

The spring term will be a full one for the Epicureans. The most important affair will be a dance at the Woman's Club on May 4th. This spring dance is always looked forward to, and this year many out-of-town guests will attend. Music will be furnished by "Oozie" Deal and his all-Americans. On Monday, April 22, Mr. and Mrs. William Deal, sponsors, will entertain the members and their dates with a picnic.

DUX DOMINA

The Dux Domina held its regular meeting Wednesday night with Lillian Reddick and Elizabeth Moody as hostesses. Plans were made for a dance to be given May 4th.

Dr. and Mrs. Pittman Honor Y.M.C.A. Group

Dr. and Mrs. M. S. Pittman were hosts last Thursday evening at a dinner given at their home on North Main street in Statesboro in honor of the Y. M. C. A. officers, cabinet members and faculty members composing the advisory committee.

Those present were R. L. Winburn, Mr. and Mrs. Fielding Russell, Miss Sophie Johnson, J. D. Purvis, Daris Raulerson, George Carter, Bill Stewart, Lofton Giddens, John Bridges, Alton Ellis, Douglas Jackson, Leonard Kent and Howell Martin.

ley, Bainbridge, treasurer. Other officers of the "Y" will be Marvin McKneely, chaplain, who defeated Hearn Lumpkin; Leroy Roughton, "Y" leader, elected over W. H. Fields; John Bridges, by defeating Joe Burton, will again be pianist and Delmas Wheeler, chorister, having won over Paul Robertson.

Carter, who was on the "Y" cabinet this year, goes to the presidency with an outstanding record in college activities. His work has been connected with various groups other than the "Y." Part of his record follows: Member Freshmen Commission, held minor offices in the Oglethorpe Literary Society and the French Club before becoming president of both, serving two terms with the Oglethorpes. This year he was chosen to head the Popular Science Club.

Carter debated for his society in 1934 and is now a member of the Inter-collegiate Debating Team and the Bachelor's Club. At present he is making two appearances each week with the "Y" Deputation Team.

Other officers of the "Y" for next year have enviable records in extra-curricular activities, scholastics, social clubs and athletics. Young men from practically every department of college activities compose the "Y" staff for next year.

R. L. Winburn, F. D. Russell and Miss Sophie Johnson were asked to continue in the advisory capacity to the "Y."

W. A. A. Will Observe National Dance Week

National Dance Week, sponsored by the Woman's Athletic Association, will be observed at South Georgia Teachers College during the week of April 28 to May 5 under the direction of Eloise Graham, W. A. A. councilman for dancing.

Tentative plans are being made for a program to be presented by the Ebba Thomson School of Dancing in the auditorium one night during the week.

The leisure hour every day during this week will be given over to demonstration dancing in the form of natural, clog and folk. There will also be a class in which modern dancing steps will be taught.

The May Day program and the Guest Night Dance will complete the observation of the dance week. A contest will be held at the dance Friday night and prizes will be given to the couple who do the best waltz and the best fox-trot.

Go to Church Easter Drive Was Success

It is estimated that ninety per cent of the student body and members of the faculty attended some church service yesterday as a result of a "Go to Church Easter" drive by the religious organizations here on the campus.

Students were asked to wear a tag the last two days of the week preceding Easter Sunday, bearing the inscription, "To Church Easter." A large increase in church attendance was the result of this drive.

A sunrise Easter service was held on the campus near the lakes earlier in the day. A committee from the Methodist Sunday school class, the Baptist class and one person from the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. here made arrangements for the program.

SUMMER SCHOOL FACULTY NAMED

The first half of the summer school at South Georgia Teachers College will last from June 14 through July 20. The faculty will be composed of twenty-two members of the regular faculty and twelve new instructors.

Each term of the summer session will last five weeks and full-credit will be given for two courses a term. Classes will be held six days a week and will last two hours each.

The new teachers will include Mrs. Ganerio Honeycutt Bowen, B. S., of Statesboro, and Miss Nelle Chablee, A. B., who will assist Miss Lane in the physical education department; Miss Mary Lou Carmichael, A. B., M. A., who will teach history; Miss Frances Ruth Carpenter, A. B., M. A., who will teach art; E. G. Elcan, A. B., M. A., of Bainbridge, A. J. Hargrove, A. B., M. A., of Dublin, Miss Nan Lacy, A. B., M. A., of Lexington, Ky., will all assist in the department of education; Earl W. Phelan, B. S., Ph. D., of the Woman's College at Valdosta, will teach physical science; C. A. Reed, B. S., M. S., of South Georgia State College at Douglas, will teach mathematics; Miss Norma Sterly, of Savannah, will act as one of the critic teachers in the Training School, and J. W. Yoder, A. B., of Huntington, Penn., will teach music.

Teachers of the regular session who will be here the first term are: Mrs. E. L. Barnes, Miss Ruth Bolton, Mrs. Carrie Clay Buttrill, Miss Nelle Bracey, Dr. J. E. Carruth, Dr. C. M. Destler, R. J. H. DeLoach, Robert F. Donaldson Jr., W. L. Downs, Miss Jane Franseth, Dean Z. S. Henderson, Miss Caro Lane, Miss Zulime Lane, Miss Mae Michael, Miss Viola Perry, Miss Eleanor Ray, Talmadge Roberts, Felding Russell, Dr. C. W. Smith, Coach B. L. Smith, Miss Malvina Trussel, Miss Marie Wood.

The second term will begin July 22 and will continue until August 24.
