ABOUT THE COLLECTION

Biographical History: Dorothy Vernon Brannen (1906-1990) was the daughter of Cecil W. Brannen (1883-1932) and Allie Olliff Brannen (1887-1965), and the granddaughter of James Alonzo Brannen (1858-1923). She graduated from Shorter College in 1927. She taught English at Statesboro High School for several decades and devoted herself to research into the history of her family and of Bulloch County. Her publications include J.A. Brannen’s Two Congressional Races, 1904 and 1906: Compiled from Local Newspapers (1981), Early Churches in Bulloch County (1983), and Life in Old Bulloch County: The Story of Wiregrass County Georgia (1992).

Scope and Content: This collection consists of materials related to Dorothy Brannen and her family from 1866 to 1990. Materials include personal and professional correspondence, administrative documents, genealogical materials, photographs, news clippings, and unpublished writings on Bulloch County.

System of Arrangement: This collection was donated in two parts and maintains the organization or the creator.
