ABOUT THE COLLECTION

Biographical History: Robert David Ward was born in Montevallo, Alabama on February 13, 1929. He received his Bachelors and Masters degrees in History from Alabama Polytechnic Institute (later Auburn University). In 1957 Ward received his doctor of philosophy degree from the University of North Carolina where he was a Carnegie Fellow.

Ward joined the History faculty at Georgia Southern College (later Georgia Southern University) in 1955. From 1968 to 1971 he served as Head of the Department of History. During his career at Georgia Southern he was involved in many articles and books including Alabama: The History of a Deep South State. He was the recipient of the prestigious Ruffin Cup, awarded annually to a member of the Liberal Arts for outstanding accomplishments in scholarship and teaching. Among his other honors were the Alumni Achievement Award in the Humanities from Auburn University, a Certificate of Commendation by the American Association for State and Local History, and the 1995 James F. Sulzby Jr. Award of the Alabama Historical Association.

Scope and Content: This collection contains the personal and professional papers of Georgia Southern faculty member Robert David Ward. Materials span 1921 - 2006 and include correspondence, awards, teaching materials, student work, research notes, and manuscript drafts of published materials. Also included are personal notes from family and colleagues.
