Online Education Debate

December 3, 2014

A recent article in the Bloomberg BusinessWeek quoted the Dean of the Haas School of Business at Berkeley as saying that due to the growing popularity and acceptance of online education, “Half of the business schools in this country could be out of business in 10 years—or 5.” As a result, QS Top MBA approached Dr. Geoff Dick in the College of Business Information Systems department to write an opinion piece which would run against one giving the opposite view to stimulate debate.
