ABOUT THE COLLECTION

Biographical History: Bette B. Anderson was born on October 16, 1928, in Stilson, Ga. She attended Georgia Southern College and Armstrong State College and received certification from the Stonier Graduate School of Banking at Rutgers University in 1975. She holds the title of being the first woman to serve as Under Secretary of the U.S. Treasury when she was appointed by President Jimmy Carter. In her life, she was responsible for the Treasury Department's Office of Administration, Office of Enforcement and Operations, U.S. Secret Service, the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms, U.S. Customs Service, Bureau of the Mint, Bureau of Engraving and Prints, Bureau of Governmental Financial Operations (now the Financial Management Service), Office of the Treasurer of the United States and the Savings Bond Program.

Scope and Content: This collection consists of papers of Bette B. Anderson from 1977-1981. The papers include general correspondence from the public or friends, chronological files (1977-1978) containing copies of Anderson's outgoing correspondence as Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, appointment books (1977-1980), photographs, clippings, and speeches (1977-1980) given by Anderson to various clubs and organizations or as Assistant Secretary of the Treasury. The materials document Anderson's duties in the Treasury Department during President Carter's administration and her interest in finance and banking.

System of Arrangement: Materials are arranged by type.
