1. Eagle Nation On Parade: Call for Artists

The Betty Foy Sanders Department of Art and Arthur and Carol Howard, of Howard Lumber and Hardware, are seeking an artist to create the next eagle to join the Eagle Nation on Parade Flock. The Eagle will depict the "History of the Howard Family Lumber Business in Bulloch County." The selected artist will work with the Howards to tell their family's story and will earn commission on the eagle.

2. Kai Lin Art Juried Exhibition: Call for Artists

KAI LIN ART is having an open call for artists in the Southeast and beyond to participate in their first annual juried works on paper art exhibition, THE NEW SOUTH. This exhibition's aim is to bring attention to the hub of artistic activity currently happening in the South and to celebrate the largely versatile and exciting medium of paper and the many uses it can facilitate. This competition is open to both established and emerging artists and will be juried by Savannah College of Art and Design Associate Dean, Dale Clifford, Kai Lin Art Director, Yu-Kai Lin, and Printmaker, Kofke Jason Kofke.

ENTRY DEADLINE: February 21, 2016 at 11:59pm EST

EXHIBITION DATES: April 8, 2016 – May 14, 2016

ENTRY FEE: $25
