2018 Constitution Day Poster Competition

September 12, 2018

There is still time to sign up for the Sept. 18 Constitution Day Poster Competition and compete for $500 in prizes (1st place: $300; 2nd place: $150; 3rd place: $50)!

Henderson Library has the beginnings of a MakerSpace, with high tables students can use to make posters, and a few supplies students can check out from the Checkout Desk.

Supplies include:

- sharpie markers
- expo markers
- scissors
- cutting mat
- glue gun
- stapler
- 6 inch ruler
- paper cutter

Sign up for the competition in the main office of the Political Science Department (Carroll Building, second floor). Each registrant will be provided with a tri-fold tabletop poster, instructions, and a "Poster Provided by Zach S. Henderson Library" label. Deliver your completed project to the first floor rotunda area of the Carroll building by 12:15 p.m. on Sept. 18. Display tables will be provided. Be prepared to give a 2-3 minute talk about your research during the 12:30 p.m. – 1:45 p.m. poster display period.
