COE alumnae are named teachers of the year in Candler County

December 12, 2016

Each year, in every public school in the state of Georgia, a top teacher is named. The Georgia Teacher of the Year Program annually spotlights the teaching profession and recognizes outstanding public school teachers. This fall, the Candler County School District recognized their Teachers of the Year (for school year 2016-2017).

The College of Education would like to recognize the Georgia Southern University alumnae who were selected as Candler County teachers of the year. Congratulations on a job well done!

Laura Lott
First grade teacher
Metter Elementary School

Jessica Walker
Seventh grade life science teacher and soccer coach
Metter Middle School
B.S.Ed. Middle Grades Education (2005), Gifted Endorsement

The College of Education is proud of all our alumni and would like to recognize any who are named teachers of the year. If you or a fellow alum receive this prestigious award for your school, please contact John Ramfjord, the College of Education’s Associate Director of Annual Giving and Alumni Engagement, at jramfjord@georgiasouthern.edu.
COE alums recognized as teachers of the year in Bulloch County

December 12, 2016

Each year, in every public school in the state of Georgia, a top teacher is named. The Georgia Teacher of the Year Program annually spotlights the teaching profession and recognizes outstanding public school teachers. This fall, Bulloch County Schools recognized their 2018 class of Teachers of the Year.

The College of Education would like to recognize the Georgia Southern University alumni who were selected as Bulloch County teachers of the year. Congratulations on a job well done!

Alicia Beth Cannon
Third grade ELA and social studies teacher
Julia P. Bryant Elementary School
Cannon is also currently enrolled the Ed.S. Educational Leadership at Georgia Southern and is anticipated to complete this degree in 2017.

Carlee James
K-5 art teacher
Nevils Elementary School

Carrie Fritch
5th grade math and science teacher
Stilson Elementary School
Charles Rockett
History teacher
William James Middle School
Double Eagle: B.B.A. Marketing (Sales & Sales Management) and M.Ed. Middle Grades Education with emphasis in Science and Math

Deborah Cartee
P-5 music teacher
Portal Elementary School

Kristin N. Blythe
Grades 9-12 literature, math, and social studies co-teaching and resource
Statesboro High School
Double Eagle: B.S.Ed. Special Education (2005) and M.Ed. Instructional Technology (2014)

Penny S. Aubrey
Grades 6-8 special education teacher
Portal Middle High School
The College of Education is proud of all our alumni and would like to recognize any who are named teachers of the year. If you or a fellow alum receive this prestigious award for your school, please contact John Ramfjord, the College of Education’s Associate Director of Annual Giving and Alumni Engagement, at jramfjord@georgiasouthern.edu.