Home-Coming To Be Gala Affair

ARMSTRONG 'GEECHEES WILL BE FOE OF PROFESSORS THANKSGIVING DAY

FIRST ENCOUNTER OF TWO SCHOOLS

Kick-Off Is Scheduled For 3
O'Clock On the Local Field.

The 'Geechees from Armstrong Junior College will be the foe of the South Georgia Teachers in the annual home-coming game here Thursday.

This will be the first game ever played between these two colleges, Armstrong inaugurating football as an intercollegiate sport only this year. The kick-off is scheduled for 3 o'clock on the athletic field and should prove one of the best played before the local fans this season.

Main cogs in the Armstrong line-up are Hart, Rossiter, Puckett and Cooley; Puckett is understood to be one of the best punters that the Teachers will come up against.

Included in the line-up of the Armstrong team is the name of A. Q. Poppel, Glennville, who will be remembered by local fans as a member of the Teachers squad last year.

The Teachers defeated South Georgia State College from Douglas by a score of 25-6, and have lost to Erskine, Mercer, Tampa, Miami, Stetson, Alabama Teachers, Gordon Military College, Georgia Military College and Middle Georgia College.

CONTRACTS TO BE LET DECEMBER 3-4

Three Buildings and Water System Soon To Be Realities.

Contracts for the erection of three new buildings and a water works system for the college are to be let December 3-4 in the office of the Regents of the University System, in Atlanta, according to President Marvin S. Pittman. Sealed bids are to be submitted at that time, according to legal advertising announcing the letting.

As announced in a previous issue of the George-Anne, the library will be erected on the site of the present Science Hall, which is to be moved to a new location. This new library is

Annual Flag Rush Be Held at 10:30 On Front Campus

The freshmen will have a chance to get revenge for the insults and indignities heaped upon them since school began when they tackle the sophomores Thursday morning at 10:30 in the annual Flag Rush. This affair will be held on the campus in front of East Dormitory.

As has been the custom, the sophomores will be defending the colors which are tied on a pole ten feet high. The freshmen must overpower or outwit the sophomores and obtain possession of the colors within eight minutes or suffer their corporal and mental punishment until school is dismissed for Christmas holidays.

The freshmen have won every contest held since the affair was inaugurated in 1934. Jack Ryals, McRae, captured the flag that year. In 1935 Leroy Cowart, Statesboro, was the hero for the rats. Jimmy Sconyers, Atlanta, secured the flag in 1936 in

Senior Class of Lab. School Sponsoring Oyster Supper

The senior class of the Laboratory School is sponsoring an oyster supper and dance Wednesday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the auditorium of their building.

Music for the big apple, round and square dancing, will be furnished by members of Carl Collins' orchestra, according to Pilcher Kemp, president of the student body of the Laboratory School.

"The Late Christopher Bean" Will Be Presented Wednesday, December 1

"The Late Christopher Bean" will be presented by the Dramatic Club December 1st, at 8 o'clock, in the college auditorium, according to Dr. T. B. Stroup, director of the club.

Dr. Stroup stated that the cast of the play was shaping up nicely and especially praised the work of J. L. Faircloth, who plays the part of Dr. Haggert, saying that he is doing a better job than Lionel Barrymore did in the picture version of the play.

INVITATIONS SENT TO TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY ALUMNI

"Band Frolic" To Be Presented By Marion Carpenter

Marion Carpenter, director of the Statesboro High School band, voiced an appeal last week to the college students to attend the "Band Frolic" in the High School auditorium Thursday night, December 2nd. New instruments will be bought with the money raised by the entertainment.

At present the band has a membership of fifteen, but Carpenter stated that he hoped to increase to twenty-five. "I shall not stop working until I have a first class band established in Statesboro High School. I hope that college students will help us by attending as many of our entertainments as possible," he said.

Carpenter is planning to enter the band in the all-state band concerts at Macon next April, which is being sponsored by the G. E. A.

As a result of the fine work being done by Carpenter, who hails from Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., the High School also has a five-piece symphony band and a seven-piece dance orchestra.

Shearer and Pittman Are On Program at Tallahassee

Dr. Allen E. Shearer and President Marvin S. Pittman left Thursday to attend a teachers' meeting in Tallahassee, Fla., where they were scheduled to make speeches.

Dr. Pittman was also the guest of President Caldwell of the University of Georgia at lunch and at the football game between Tulane and Georgia Saturday. Speaking of the football game, he said, "It was a magnificent spectacle and I enjoyed it."

There will be a meeting of the Alumni Association at 11 o'clock Thursday morning at which time the election of officers is scheduled. Mr.

LET'S CO-OPERATE

Why can't the school have a holiday Thanksgiving week end? We know that Thanksgiving is home-coming and we do not wish to detract from the significance of that occasion, however inappropriate that day may be for a reunion of our graduates. But we can properly observe home-coming and still have the week end off. This is our suggestion: The general census of opinion seems to be that the students are willing to remain over all day Thursday and until noon Friday under the same regulations that we have always had concerning holidays. Then school could be dismissed from Friday at noon until Monday.

Immediately the reply comes back that too many students would go home Wednesday and pay the penalty for Friday cuts. That is not necessarily true. Certainly all girls would stay of their own accord or because the Dean of Women would not see fit to sign their permit cards. If the freshmen boys, under the supervision of the upperclassmen, cannot be persuaded to stay, our school is getting in a deplorable state indeed.

There is no reason why students can't be induced to co-operate in making this a grand home-coming if the administration in turn is willing to co-operate and cede them the privilege of breaking the three-month grind of school by giving them a day and a half off. We will go even further than this and say that the students, if it is necessary, would be willing to make up the classes they miss.

What more could be asked? We are willing to stay and give the old grads a royal welcome and make up classes we miss. In turn we ask the administration for a day and a half off from classes with the privilege of spending a day or two with our families. We think the student body is not being unreasonable in requesting this concession. Will the administration be equally as reasonable?

UNSELFISH SERVICE

The George-Anne, in behalf of the football boys, wishes to extend thanks to Mrs. P. D. Landrum, college dietitian, for her kindness and the unselfish service which she and her assistants have rendered.

Quite often meals have been served to the team in between the regular meal times, thus necessitating extra work and preparation on the part of those connected with the Dining Hall.

So we say to you, Mrs. Landrum, and to all your assistants, "Thanks a million."

TEN COMMANDMENTS SET FORTH BY T. C.'s ROMEOS

1. When ready to marry thou shalt come to me.
2. Thou shalt remember me and forget all others.
3. Thou shalt remember that I like to talk to all girls.
4. Thou shalt not break any dates with me whatever.
5. Thou shalt not flirt with other boys.
7. Thou shalt not dare to kiss other lips than mine.
7. Thou shalt treat me with courtesy for I am tender-hearted and cannot stand rough treatment.
8. Thou shalt not talk to other boys in my presence.
9. Thou shalt permit me to "butt in" on all private conversations.
10. When ready to part thou shalt kiss me good-bye.

One thing we'd like to know. What is it that one freshman girl has that the others haven't. Elizabeth Zeagler can you help us out?

Professor Kent seems to be worried about coming out in the dirt column. Could it be his fling in Athens.

Tommy, you stop worrying about letting Nixon down. We believe it was the red hair he liked after all. Just a little peroxide did the work.

Chapel was a success Wednesday with the captivating bit of dramatic action done by Bobby Carroll and Willard Clanton. Too bad Wednesday doesn't come more often.

A word of warning to "Ye Note Writers." It is a hobby or should I say "Old Maid Curiosity" with Miss Veazy and Miss Newton to pick up bits of paper on the campus and put them together. Who writes on D. S. stationery with the name Bill?

All the cute freshmen girls have had their style cramped when the Pan-Hellenic Council had the dance Saturday night. That's all right, girls, sorority bids went out last week.

The High School turned their power on Bill Hicks but all to no avail. All they have is "Hard Luck!"

What do Cone and Mincey see in Economics 211? Could it be their professor?

Who had a date with Prissy's "blonde Blizzard" Sunday night?

James Thayer doesn't seem to be able to enlarge his territory beyond the city limits of Statesboro. We heard he asked eight T. C. girls for a date one Sunday night. Wonder if he ever got one.

Girls, when all else fails, try going to the store in bedroom slippers. They say it works wonders on the football boys.

Three very fresh freshman girls will give twenty years of their lives for one date with Ed Perryman. Come, girls, maybe we could arrange it cheaper than that and you could live twenty years longer.

Lost—Two babes in the woods! Last seen on D. S. picnic. Reward for return of Frank Zetterower and Catherine Gainey to the Dean's office. No questions asked.

Recently seen rendez-vousing: Everett Loosier and Irene Boland; William Parker and Hazel Benton; Abie Green and "Froggie" Breen.

A DRUNKARD WITHOUT A DROP

Hus nose was like the red, red rose. His face reminded one of a county jail with its dull brick redness. His tongue hung out by the roots like a thirsty dog, though apparently he had had a few too many drinks already. He staggered like an S. G. T. C. boy at a dance, finally pitching hearlong into the ground. Soon his nose was black (like most roses aren't) by his efforts to prove kinship to an ostrich and bury his head in the dirt. The people laughed and snickered and laughed as they passed by, but nary a soul offered to help him stagger away. He slowly comes up on one knee, regains his feet a whit the wiser to the ways of the world and says as he walks away, "I'll never ride another merry-go-round."

Statistics show that a large percentage of students who drop out of college after one year turn out to be criminals. No wonder, look at the example the upperclassmen set for them.

Pity the poor professor who gets in a class with students who have minds of their own.

We trust that the Blue Tide will really show us what a tidal wave looks like in the game with Armstrong Thanksgiving.

The impossible has happened. A faculty member said darn in a chapel speech and nobody criticized.

The S. P. S. D. P. (Society for Prevention of Stepping on Defenseless Pecans) has a membership of 510. However the college expects a larger enrollment next spring.

Mickey the Mouse staggered into the George-Anne office and in his dying squeaks wrote a front page story; we liked his story, but my how a dead rat can stink!

COLLEGE HUMOR

"Is the editor in?"

"No: Can I do something?"

"Yes, throw these poems in the waste basket."

Frosh: "I was out with a nurse last night."

Co-ed: "Well, cheer up. Maybe your mother will let you go out without one pretty soon."

Dr. Destler: "Are you cheating on this examination."

Vandiver: "No sir, I was only telling him his nose was dripping on my paper."

Burdelle: "I cursed the day I was born."

Trowell: "That's funny, I didn't curse till I was three years old."

He: "There's a reason why I love you."

She: "My goodness!"

He: "Don't be absurd."

Waitress: "Tea or coffee?"

Student: "Don't tell me; let me guess."

TEXTILE CLASS IS ARRANGING TRIPS

Miss Bolton Writes Letters,
Asking Information
About Mills.

The textile class under the instruction of Miss Ruth Bolton, is planning an observation tour of textile mills at an early date. Letters of inquiry as to what date will be permissible for the observation have been sent to the following mills: Clearwater Manufacturing Company, Clearwater, S. C.; Sibley Mill, Augusta, Ga.; John P. King Manufacturing Company, Augusta, Ga.

Following is the content of the letters sent to the mills:

Dear Sirs:

The textile class of the South Georgia Teachers College is very much interested in going through your plant for observation. The class consists of sixteen students and myself.

I would like to know if it will be possible for us to go through. If so, we would like to do so at your earliest convenience.

(Signed) MISS RUTH BOLTON,
Instructor.

"Gone With the Wind" Still Remains Most Popular Book

"Gone With the Wind" still remains the most read book in the college library, according to Miss Eleanor Ray, librarian.

"Green Light" and "The Magnificent Obsession," by Lloyd C. Douglas, come next in popularity.

"Middleton in Transition" is one of the new non-fiction best sellers just placed in the library.

Miss Ray says that more books have been checked out for overnight for the first part of this November than for the corresponding part of November last year.

Unsatisfactories Are Given to 122 Students

Only thirty-nine students out of a total student body of 510 were found unsatisfactory in more than one subject at mid-term. Eighty-three others were found unsatisfactory in one subject. This is a much smaller average than that of last year, according to President Marvin S. Pittman.

Dr. Pittman went on to state, "No effort will be spared to overcome all of the unsatisfactory situations. The dean, every faculty member and the house mothers are working in co-operation with the students to make the best record that has ever been made at South Georgia Teachers College.

"If any student fails it will be only because he hasn't the ability or proper background or that he hasn't devoted himself to his job. All students are urged to spare no effort on their part to make their work entirely satisfactory."

Destler and Mulkey Attend Meeting Held At Chapel Hill, N. C.

Dr. C. M. Destler, head of the social science department, and Harvin Mulkey left Thursday afternoon for the University of North Carolina, at Chapel Hill, where they will attend the meeting of the Southern Historical Association. They also planned to visit Duke University, which is only a few miles away from Chapel Hill, before they return to Collegeboro.

By attending the meeting of the historical association, Mulkey, recent winner of first prize in a nation-wide contest sponsored by the American Bar Association with his paper, "How and to What Extent the Rights and Liberties of the Individual Are Protected Under the Constitution," will have a chance to see how historical research is done.

The trip will also give Mulkey the chance to look over the faculties of both universities and give him a chance to decide at which of the two schools he might wish to do graduate work after receiving his degree from Teachers College.

The new girls' dormitory will be situated just to the west of West Hall in the dormitory circle. This building, which is to accommodate 100 students, will be valued at $60,000, according to President Pittman.

The new Laboratory School is to be located on the ridge southwest of West Hall, just back of the present practice field. It will have a capacity of 400 school children, Dr. Pittman said, and will be erected at a cost of $80,000.

In addition to these buildings, a $15,000 water system is to be constructed, Dr. Pittman stated, which will give the college a water supply independent of the city system.

Of Freshman Class In Run-Over.

D. R. Barber Jr., Bainbridge, was elected vice-president of the Freshman Class in a run-over election held during the chapel hour November 16. He defeated J. Brantley Johnson Jr., Statesboro. This was the second run-over, the first resulting in a tie.

Frank Zetterower, Dublin, was elected president of the Freshman Class in a run-over election held during the chapel hour November 10.

Other freshmen officers elected at the same time were Earl Byrd, Patterson, secretary; T. A. Bacon Jr., Manassas, treasurer, and Ennis Cail, Statesboro, student council representative.

The run-over election resulted in a tie between D. R. Barber Jr., Bainbridge, and J. Brantley Johnson Jr., Statesboro, for the office of vice-president and another run-off election will be held at an early date, according to Willard Cartee, president of the student council, who was in charge of the election.

Homer Blitch, Statesboro; Elliott Boswell, Robinson; Pat Colquitt, Cedartown; Harold Houston, Sylvester; Harold Jeremias, Washington, and Zetterower were all entered in the race for president, but Zetterower and Colquitt received a majority of the votes in the primary and entered the run-over, from which Zetterower emerged victorious.

In the race for vice-president, besides Barber and Johnson, were William Clifton, Statesboro; Winston Harrell, White Oak; Sephalee Hutchinson, Adrian, and Everette Loozier, Thomaston.

TWO HAVE PLAYED FOUR YEARS EACH

Strickland, Robertson, Golden, And Stewart To Play Their Last Game for Teachers.

Strickland, Robertson, Golden, and Stewart will wind up their football careers in the Turkey Day Teachers-Armstrong classic here Thursday.

Golden and Robertson have been on the local squad for four years while Strickland and Stewart are second-year men, having transferred from other schools.

Robertson has played for three years at guard and has been a mainstay in the Teachers' line this year. He has played all or a part of every quarter in every game.

Strickland, playing his second year for T. C., is the hardest charger and blocker on the team and has been a continuous inspiration to the whole team. Shifted from guard to quarter back this season, he has more than done his part in keeping the spirit so high.

Golden has been hampered by injuries for the last two years, but is still the most important cog in the Varsity Practice Will Begin Soon; Two Games Prior To Holidays.

Coach Jim Wrinkle, freshman cage mentor, states that he has written every high school in the district hoping to schedule games for his quintet. The first game probably will be this week end in Metter.

Wrinkle is anxious to schedule games away from the campus because the varsity will soon begin practice in preparation for their pre-holiday games.

The varsity will play Olsen's Red Heads, a fast girls' team, here December 8th, and will play Armstrong in Savannah December 17th. Those are the only games scheduled before Christmas.

Stewart, a green hand last year, has developed into a fairly efficient all-around reserve for any of the back field positions.

Johnny Deal to Coach T. C. Leather-Pushers This Year.

Boxing team aspirants are going to work with plenty of spirit already, although the season will not begin until after the Christmas holidays.

Johnny Deal, varsity fighter, has assumed the title of coach due to the absence of Mr. Fielding Russell, regular boxing coach.

Several of the football men will report for practice immediately following the close of the football season.

Letter men and last year men returning will include Cecil Waters, Tom Hodges, Ed Zachert, Oswald Hinson, Coach Deal, Charles Estes, Douglas Strickland and Tom Brantley.

New men now in training are T. A. Bacon, Eddison Wilcox, I. W. Bragg, Tom Eubanks, Willie B. McCollum, Reginald Thompson, Joe Battle and Jack Dies, two footballers, are also out.

IOTA PI NU's ARE IMPROVING

Cellar Position Is Apparently Sewed Up By Seig's Team.

After the third week of competition the members of the intramural touch football league are gradually showing which teams are strongest. With two weeks left to play the standings are liable to be scrambled in almost any game. Every team is showing improvement, especially the Iota Pi Nu team which got off to a very bad start.

The Pent House team has shown itself to be superior to the other teams in a determined bid for the championship so far. In its first game Mixon was the victim by a score of 26-6. In the second game Sieg with a spirited but small team was trounced to the tune of 46-0.

The mighty Pent Housers almost bit the dust, however, when they met the Delta Sigs. The ball had swayed back and forth between goals all afternoon and there seemed to be no hope for either team to score. In the last play of the game the ball was in possession of the Delta Sigs. They threw a pass which A. J. Bowen of the Pent House intercepted and with the aid of some beautiful interference ran it down the field, passing to Sowell. Sowell passed to Rape, who scored. The relative strength of the teams might be judged by the fact that it was necessary for the Delta Sigs to punt out of danger five times while the Pent Housers kicked out once.

The team of Mighty Mixon after its defeat by the Pent Housers has torn

By STUFFY STEWART

Well, having nothing to do and a lot of time to do it, last Monday I decided to look over the intramural program being run by Miss Hammack and Mr. Wrinkle.

Being interested chiefly in the basketball material, I strolled down to the Gym to watch the practice. Well, I saw three boys practicing, not even enough to get up a good 21 game. I was very disappointed in the showing here, so I ambled on out to see Mighty Mixon lead his team to a victory over Sneeds team.

Not seeing much here, I went over to watch the girls' volleyball practice. They didn't have a large crowd, but there were more girls than boys out for practice. The old, old question of sweaters is upon us again. It has been the custom for the Athletic Association to alternate years between the football and basketball teams in awarding sweaters. This is the information given to me by Mr. Hanner, chairman of the athletic committee.

Well, I've been here for two basketball and one full football season so far, and they have yet to offer the players a jacket or sweater that I've seen.

Mr. Hanner offered encouragement for this year, however, stating that the association was supposed to alternate.

Last year the boys sold "T" sweater tickets for a quarter each to students, townspeople and faculty members. I hope that after the Florida trip and the money it made, that the committee and Dr. Pittman can see their way clear to award those fellows a jacket for their fight and spirit if not for a successful season.

It looks like Dean Henderson and his pent house touch football team have a run-away to me. It just kinda reminds me of last year's softball league with the Praying Stewards chewing up all competition.

It was at the Cochran game. Scrappy Smith was sitting by me on the bench, when out of the clear he said, "2,000 people."

None of us said anything and about a minute later he said, "2,000 dam people."

Still none of us questioned him and so he got mad and said, "2,000 dam people and that bird had to fly over me!"

How about a little pep in the pep meeting Wednesday nig't and at the game Turkey Day?

TEACHERS LOSE TO M. G. C. 7-0

TOUGH BREAK IN FIRST QUARTER

Have Ball In Moving Position, But Are Penalized for Holding.

A scrappy Middle Georgia College eleven took advantage of a long pass and a beautiful 35-yard run by Reese in the second quarter to score the only touchdown of the game Friday which the Teachers lost 7-0.

In the first quarter the Teachers had the ball in scoring position, but were penalized for holding and put back to the thirty-yard line. Despite this tough break, the quarter was played entirely in Cochran territory, due to the expert punting of Ozier, Teacher half.

The Wolverines scored after a long pass to Hall over the Teachers' secondary for a gain of forty yards put the ball on the Teachers' thirty-five-yard line, and two plays later Reese cut off left tackle to pace thirty-five yards for a score.

The Teachers pushed back in the second half to outfight and outgain the Cochran outfit. On successive times they had the ball on their opponents 20, 15, 10, and 12-yard lines, but could not punch over the necessary yardage for first downs.

Captain Douglas Strickland was the sparkplug as well as the most consistent ground-gainer for the Teachers. Woodard played his usual stellar game at center.

Middle Georgia College registered four first downs while the Teachers made eight. The Teachers also out-gained Middle Georgia College on running plays, 193 yards to 150. Middle Georgia College gained 40 yards on passes and the losers collected 24.

Middle Georgia College attempted seven passes and completed only three of them. The Teachers completed five out of the ten passes which they attempted. Middle Georgia was penalized 60 yards and the Teachers were penalized 50.

The Teachers in the fourth quarter uncovered a good passing combination of Golden to Riggsby. The passing combination kept the ball in Middle Georgia College territory during most of the quarter.

The Wolverines began clicking in the second quarter when a pass, Maxwell to Hall, gained 20 yards, and placed the ball on the Teachers' 30.

down all opposition, defeating Sneed, the Iota Pi Nu and Sieg by large scores. Mixon still hopes to win the championship by an imagination that sees his team beating the D. S. and the defeat of the Pent House by Bragg or the Iota Pi Nu.

The Sieg team seems to be definite-

The T. C. band accompanied the football squad to Cochran last Friday and showed the folks at the game that T. C. has a band that can not only make sweet music, but can also "Big Apple" in a big way.

The thirty-nine members in the band took the field during the half and formed the "T" formation and, playing the Alma Mater, quickly formed a circle and continued the performance with the "Big Apple."

The thirty-nine members in the band and the instruments they play are as follows: Trumpets, Carol Beasley, Marion Carpenter, Irby Meadows, Edwin Beasley, Carleton Carruth and Jamie Aldred; clarinets, Edward Carruth, Winona Aldred, Robert Strippling, Ralph Kemp, James Aldred, Emerson Woodrum, Thelma Harrison, Edward Aaron, Frances Deal, M. C. Hursey, George Bing, Ches Faircloth and Frances Hughes; bass clarinet, William Chambliss; trombones, Johnny Austin, Roger Holland, Sam Wiggins and Gesmon Neville; alto saxophones, I. W. Bragg, Virginia King, Cora Page and Evans Taylor; tenor saxophone, Everette Loozier; baritone saxophone, John Allen; alto horns, Ceciline Swinson, Frances Neal and Helen Aldred; baritone horn, Len Lastinger; bass horn, William Sneed; snare drums, C. W. Graham and Carl Collins; bass drum, Charles Jeremias; cymbals, Sue Zetterower.

ly bound to the cellar with three losses and only one more game to play. They are still hoping to upset somebody in that last game with the Iota Pi Nu.

Interesting Facts Concerning T. C.'s Dining Hall Are Revealed by Survey

Did you know that 40 dozen eggs were used for breakfast this morning? This interesting fact and many others were revealed in a survey of the Dining Hall made by two George-Anne reporters.

Did you ever stop to think how many hundred pounds of food could be consumed by a student body in a day? We can assure you that according to our figures somebody is certainly increasing their waistline—or maybe it's being used as food for those things called brains that college students are supposed to have, or do they?

Did you know that the kitchen at T. C. is one of the best equipped electric kitchens in the University System? My word, they even have an electric potato peeler! Mrs. Landrum said that before the electric stoves were installed that a fire had to be made at 3 o'clock in the morning in order to have breakfast on time. The stoves are now turned on at 5 o'clock and are good and hot for the cooks who come at 6 and stay 'till 8 p. m. For three years, according to Mrs. Landrum, there were no ole brown biscuits to be had, but look at them now—just like the ones mother makes, ymm-ymm.

Did you know (we didn't) that murder was committed in the kitchen? A real sure nuff live murder— isn't that thrilling! Murder for Breakfast . . . Well, for those that are interested here are the facts: Several years ago two young negro cooks, Roosevelt and Pete, got into a fuss over which one broke a bowl that belonged to Miss Bolton. Roosevelt stabbed Pete and he died a few minutes later. Roosevelt is now serving a sentence for this crime. Mrs. Landrum said that Roosevelt was one of the best cooks she'd ever had.

ONE-MINUTE INTERVIEWS

The following statements of student opinion were gathered by a reporter on the question of whether or not we should have a week-end holiday after Thanksgiving:

L. C. Lee, sophomore, "I think every student would like to be at home Thanksgiving."

Pat Colquitt, freshman, "Every other school in the University System is getting Wednesday to Monday off. I certainly think we should at least get Friday and Saturday off. This would not conflict with home-coming."

Eleanor Murphy, Rosenwald student, "I think a holiday would be wonderful."

Louise Hollingsworth, senior, "Personally I can wait a few more weeks until Christmas."

Emily Akins, junior, "I think we should at least have Wednesday evening off."

Rebecca Shearouse, freshman, "I want to go home on Thanksgiving and spend the week end."

"Red" Maddox, senior, "Since we

David Proctor, junior, "Due to the fact that we are going to have home-coming on Thursday it would be an inopportune time to turn out school. I feel that home-coming should not be on Thanksgiving, the alumni as well as the students want to be home on that day."
