'Take Back the Night' set for Tuesday on Armstrong Campus

GEORGIA SOUTHERN
2018
Armstrong Campus

TAKE BACK
THE NIGHT

Tuesday, April 10
Begins at 7pm at the fountain in front of the Student Union
Followed by an End the Violence Rally at the Meditation Garden

The Take Back the Night march is designed to unite the Georgia Southern community in supporting the end to sexual and domestic violence.

The Georgia Southern community will unite for a "Take Back the Night" rally, an event dedicated to raising awareness about sexual assault and intimate partner violence, in which participants will take part in a silent march in the International Garden. The event is sponsored by the Counseling Center, PEP, Health Services, Health Promotion, Resident Assistants Council, Student Government Association and Zeta Phi Beta.
