Jessica Hines Invited to Teach a Workshop in Maine this Summer

May 30, 2014

Photography Professor, Jessica Hines, was invited to teach a week long workshop this summer at The Maine Media Workshop in Rockport, Maine.

The oldest photography workshop school in the US, The Maine Media Workshop, embraces historical processes as well as leading-edge technologies in image making and narrative expression. The Workshops at the school offer a unique opportunity to learn in a beautiful remote environment and join a community of other passionate imagemakers and storytellers — all gathered to become better artists.

The title of the workshop Jessica Hines will be teaching is: “The Personal Documentary”. The aim of the workshop is to collaborate to hone the student’s creative and story-telling skills through the use of photography.
