BACHELORS BEGIN REHEARSALS ON ANNUAL VARIETIES SHOW TONIGHT

PROFESSORS WILL PLAY FOR AFFAIR

Floor Show Begins At Eight O'Clock Friday Night In Gymnasium.

Rehearsals begin tonight on the Bachelors Annual Varieties Show, which this year is to be staged in the gymnasium Friday evening, April 22nd, at 8 o'clock.

With Carl Collins and the Professors furnishing music for the affair, ten of the most beautiful girls on the campus giving a modern dance number using the theme, "Ten Pretty Girls," tap-dancing by Lestina Stanley, an interpretation of the modern dance by two of its foremost exponents on the campus, and a comedy skit which was written by those two inimitable wits, Bobby Carrol and "Skipabout" Clanton, in addition to several other numbers, musical and otherwise, this program promises to be as varied and entertaining as any ever put on here.

Tickets for the show are being sold under the direction of Roy Rabun. There are two types of tickets, one selling for 15 cents and the other for 25 cents. The 15-cent ticket entitles the purchaser to a seat in the balcony, while the 25-cent ticket entitles one to a seat at a table downstairs with the additional privilege of dancing in the intermission between acts.

The floor committee has decided that to eliminate any misunderstandings that might arise, no breaking of See PROFESSORS, page 4

MISS PERRY GOES TO NEW ORLEANS

Will Attend Registrars Meeting There On April 19th, 20th and 21st.

Miss Viola Perry, registrar, will attend the annual meeting of the American Association of College Registrars to be held in New Orleans, La., on the 19th, 20th and 21st of this month.

Registrars from all over the country will meet and discuss problems pertaining to registrars, according to Miss Perry.

There will be an opportunity to hear several prominent speakers, but, according to Miss Perry, the round table discussion groups will be the most important part of the program. The round table conferences will take place on Tuesday, the 21st. There will be several of these meetings going on at the same time. Miss Perry has See MISS PERRY, page 4

College Registration This Quarter Is 463

Final registration figures reveal that 463 students registered for the spring term, according to Miss Viola Perry, registrar. This is practically the same as last year when 464 students entered at this time.

Of the students who entered this quarter, four of them had been present during the fall quarter, nineteen had not been here during the year.

Last year's short spring term had a registration total of 75.

Largest Summer School Enrollment In History of College Is Expected

Plans for the biggest summer session in the history of Teachers College have been completed as announcements have been sent out over the state.

The 1938 summer quarter with the first term scheduled for June 15th and the second term July 25th is expected to enroll even more students than attended the 1937 session when 744 students representing 93 counties and six states were enrolled.

The summer session bulletin, which was mailed to over 10,000 Georgia teachers, is a departure from the usual summer school announcement. The new bulletin is illustrated, condensed, and a new style type used throughout. The bulletin has pictures of Sanford Hall, West Hall, College Store, Administration Building, lake scene, girls' athletics, library scene, laboratory school scene, shop scene, the symphony orchestra and a drawing of the new laboratory school under construction.

Recreational features of the two summer terms will include a supervised play period, the "Men's Dinner" at Beechwood, the swimming pool, parties, stunts, group singing, and all kinds of outdoor athletics.

During the 1938 summer quarter special emphasis will be given to work in library science, industrial arts, manuscript writing, laboratory school, school for janitorial service

"Tomorrow and Tomorrow" Will Be Presented Near Middle of Next Month

Rehearsals are well under way on the Dramatic Club's spring production, "Tomorrow and Tomorrow," by Philip Barry. According to Dr. T. B. Stroup, director, it will be presented about the middle of May.

The part of Eve Redman is played by Doris Wallace. Jack Dees as Hay,

Dean Leaving Today on Visit to Four Colleges

Dean Z. S. Henderson is to leave today for a four-day trip on which he will visit four junior colleges in middle and southern Georgia.

Tuesday, he is scheduled to be in Cochran, Wednesday in Americus, Thursday at Tifton, and Friday at Douglas; returning here either Friday night or Saturday morning.

While visiting these schools he will make addresses in their respective assemblies on the days indicated.

COLLEGE VARIETIES IS TITLE OF EVENT

Dance In Gymnasium That Evening Will Conclude Program for the Day.

The annual May Day Pageant will be presented at this college Friday afternoon, May 6th, in the amphitheatre behind the Gymnasium, at which time the center of interest will be the crowning of John Maude Kelly, recently elected May Queen, by her maid of honor, Vernice Bacon.

The court attendants who were selected at the same time are as follows: Senior class, Fay Foy, Marjorie Maddox and Julia Reese; junior class, Priscilla Prather, Eloise Mincey and Virginia Sands; sophomore class, Lil Baldwin and Meg Gunter; freshman class, Nettie Claire Brayan and Frances Deal.

As soon as the guests have assembled at 5 o'clock the queen will lead the procession from the Gymnasium to the throne. After she has been crowned, the pageant will begin. This will be entitled "College Varieties." First number will be two exhibitions by the first, second and third grades of the Laboratory School.

The tumbling class will then perform and will be followed by the 2 o'clock physical education class which will give two dances. Other numbers on the program include a group of eight dances by the Dance Club, among which will be two negro spirituals and a modern folk dance which See VARIETIES, page 2

BAND TRIP WILL BEGIN APRIL 26

Group Will Be Gone Four Days On Visit to North Georgia Schools.

Tentative plans have been made for the band tour for this year, according to President Marvin S. Pittman.

The tour, which has become an annual affair, will begin on April 26th and last for three days.

The band will visit Richmond Academy, Tugman Girls' High School, Harlem, Dearing and Thompson High Schools, on Tuesday, April 26th. A night program will be given at Washington on the same date.

On Wednesday the band will make short visits at Lincolnton, Boone, Centerville, Nancy Hart and Elberton. The night program will take place in Hartwell.

The trip will end on Thursday after visits to Lexington, Union Point, Greensboro, Madison and Eatonton.

and Collier Davidson as Gail Redman, also have principal roles in the play. Others in the cast include: Carolyn Oliver as Ella, J. L. Faircloth as Burke; C. B. Kestler as Gillespie, and Irene Borland as Miss Frazer.

The play is a Broadway production of 1931 and is composed of three acts and nine scenes.

CONCERNING STUDENT REGULATIONS

Much of the discussion that occurs on the campus in connection with the social regulations is caused by misunderstandings of just what is permitted and what is not permitted.

The recent action of one of the student governing bodies in requesting the posting of a set of regulations concerning house rules was a step toward the elimination of much of this misunderstanding. But there is still much that needs to be done.

It is much better to forestall trouble than it is to wait until it happens and then act. Decisions made when feelings are already rubbed the wrong way are likely to appear biased to some parties.

As was emphasized in the Student Council meeting last week, the majority of the students want to do what is right. But when they do what they think is right and find out that the rules have suddenly been changed, or that a new interpretation has been given to existing rules, dissension is certain to occur.

As has often been stated by visitors to our campus, we have a splendid spirit of co-operation and friendliness on our campus. Let us strive to keep it so.

GOING TO CHURCH

The greatest influence on a college student's life should be that influence which he gains by going to church. Now perhaps more than at any other time in his life will the training he receives from this source most benefit him. The ideas he forms, the opinions of the world that he makes, and generally the standards he sets for himself originate largely in the years at college. His attitude toward his fellow beings and the difference between right and wrong is developed during this period. Only the church and its ideals can successfully aid the boy or girl in the carrying out of these plans. It should be regarded as a place where the student may go, after a week of continuous moving and studying, and find the peace and relaxation that only the church can offer. Sunday school and church require only about two hours of his time during the week and certainly every student should be willing to give that time to such a worthwhile purpose.

The churches in Statesboro afford the highest type of religious training in all denominations and it should be the aim of every student to attend church and Sunday school regularly.

Diggings

This is one week that the writer of this column doesn't know anything. He's only out to find out something—for that reason the column is published in the form of a questionnaire. If you know the answers, fill them in and hand it in. It will be published next issue. There are so many things that need clearing up, it is hard to know where to start.

1. Does anyone know whether or not the editor or any member of the George-Anne staff was threatened a few weeks ago when they didn't print all the dirt handed in to this column? If so, who threatend them or him?

2. Why is it Bill Hicks looks like a preacher these days? Can you account for his sartorial splendor on week days? There's another question about Bill, what is the meaning of the "R" in his name?

3. Who knows who the boy was with Pris the other night when the light was turned off down by the Little Store? Was it the same one she was with the next night?

4. Will everybody be willing to contribute one day in chapel to buy Willard Clanton a bugle on which to blow taps? or do you suppose Miss Veazey could hear that more easily than his whistling? Who was it he was whistling for any way?

5. How does it happen that Joe Jardine takes a certain red-head home from the library and then meets her five minutes later in the Little Store with another certain red-head?

6. Does anybody have any extra vases to lend to Miss Groover for her cut flowers that the Casa Nova of the campus brings or sends her every day?

7. Why doesn't Vivian go down to the store at night and save "Goat" the trouble of having to send her "sweets" by somebody else?

8. Can you fill in the blank for the third K: Kent, Kestler and _____?

9. Has Charlie been asked to judge the posture contest on play day because of his ability at dealing with figures?

10. How is the new club progressing? Is it true that Admiral is the president?

11. Who will find out what is the matter with Howell Martin that he hasn't fallen for one of the co-eds?

12. Where did Roy Rabun go Friday afternoon after he got his hair set?

13. Is it because of the cool weather that we have had so few new love affairs to develop on the campus this spring?

14. Have Mary Cromley and Virginia Sands really remained true to those distant?

15. How did Mr. Wrinkle manage last week end?

16. Who cut the screen on third floor in East Hall?

17. How does Robbie get back to the campus so early from Ogeechee?

18. Or is it 'Geechee who has to hurry back to his Audrey?

19. Who finally taught the history class last week, Miss Newton or Dr. Destler?

20. Is it true that Carol is really somebody's secretary?

21. Does anybody know where he can get a copy of Alvin McLendon's poem, "Ain't Love Pretty?"

22. Who are the girls who are going night riding? (There might be a reward for this answer.)

If you don't want to make your answers public, just stick them under the George-Anne office door before next publication.

OWED TO THE BUSHWHACKERS (No Apology to Mr. Whitman)

By BOBBY CARROL

Listen to me!

I be a Bushwhacker, worker, time-killer (and a few other things that can't be printed), poet and almost a nut.

I have read Whitman: I do not know who he is; or yet, who am I?

Oh, Bushwhackers, precursors of beauty, companions of shovels, shov-ers of lawn mowers.

I sing the earth, magnificent earth; trees, rivers, mountains (Blue Ridge, Rockies, etc.), and lakes.

Colossal, unleashed earth, out of which came that greatest of creations, the Bushwhackers!

This must be so, for we say it ourselves: There are none before whom we bow (Miss Michael? Well - er - maybe!) between the rising and the waning of the moon.

O, deep earth, producer, creator of all things, maker of S. G. T. C. and the Bushwhackers, hidden under a million cellars; pressed by a million highways, hidden behind a million signboards, advertisements for the cure of colds, abolishment of athlete's foot; push these down, raze the facades, open the cellars, lift up the stones, and beneath them you find Washington, Napoleon, ants—look deeper, you will find 300,000,000 Chinamen, all starving.

Let sunlight and grass erase forever these masses—only one thing shall remain—Time (not the magazine).

We are poets, Shelley, Sunburne, Bryan, No! We are the greatest. No rhyme for us, what if we wrote, One flew east; one flew west, etc." Could we lay claim to any abbreviated segment of sanity? No!

But our words echo down windy lanes of pale delight; echo against the burnished azure of deep summer; echo from the dark green spearpoints of pines against the sky in silhouette. Ah, words—

Could we but follow the sun, would we be immortal? If we follow the night, would we be immoral? I sing the night! Are we destined to follow the red road strife forever? Half is blood, half is night?

I sing of fields, flowers, warm afternoons. Student Council, cheek dancing, and a matron who lies to the East of us. I'll take spaghetti!

No subject too large, none too insignificant.

I shall paraphrase our part for this gigantic work: One could do worse than be a whacker of bushes.

in certain respects resembles the "Big Apple."

There will be other dances by the physical education classes and the afternoon's entertainment will conclude with the winding of the May Poles by the fifth through the eleventh grades of the Laboratory School.

In the evening the college will be host to all guests at a dance in the Gymnasium for which the music will be furnished by the college orchestra, under the direction of William Deal.

JEFF STEWART
Sports Editor

.. SPORTS ..

SPORT SLANTS

By JEFF "STUFFY" STEWART

(Editor's Note: Mr. Hickey, a transfer student from Americus, has consented to take this editor's place while he is away on a little trip home. He was selected because he has been an impartial observer of the heated struggle going on in the softball league.)

I have asked the manager (by the way, he believes Mg. stands for Mighty Good) of the famous Praying Stewards to permit me to write his column this issue of your George-Anne. I will admit that I am a poor pinch hitter for such a home run king as "Stuffy," but here I go on the sports at T. C. as I see them:

"Stuffy's" Praying Stewards have had no competition thus far in the softball games. He rejected the Rosenwalds last week 21 to 1, and this week took up the D. S. 11-3. I expect him to run up against stiffer competition when he meets the combined forces of "Bull" Brown and Coach "Crook" Smith. "Bull's" bull will equal that "Stuffy" can shoot and Coach is the best twirler in the league, I think. I believe this team will cause some of "Stuffy's" chicken suppers to take wings and fly away.

Football practice seems to have spring fever. Everybody is so lazy I believe everyone should be forced to take hookworm treatment or something to pep them up. Softball is playing havoc with the number out for practice as most of the members of the football squad play on softball teams.

I haven't heard from the girl's games, but if "Stuffy" is as optimistic over his better half's team as his own, the D. L. D.'s are sure to win the championship.

Don't blame me for this nonsense, blame "Stuffy," because he is such a strict censor that I couldn't talk about him as I wanted to.

By the way, he says he has six suppers and only needs a half-dozen more to feed his team.

Tennis Team Soon
To Be Selected

The tennis team will be selected from a field of seven of the most promising applicants, according to Mr. W. S. Hanner, tennis coach.

The five-man team will be chosen from the following seven men, Mr. Hanner stated: Howell Perrymon, Owen McKenzie, Pat Colquitt, Bill McLeod, Corepland Ozier, Ed Perrymon, and James Thayer.

The team has a match scheduled with Douglas here Friday, April 22.

President Marvin S. Pittman will make his first commencement address at Rincon High School April 25th.

Dr. J. E. Carruth will speak on the commencement program at Dexter tonight.

Scores of games: Praying Stewards 21, Rosenwalds 1; Delta Sigs 16, Roach 2; Brown 10, Baby Yanks 0; Pi Nu 6, Faculty 5; Praying Stewards 11, Delta Sigs 3; Brown 14, Rosenwalds 5.

History Repeats Itself

You have all heard the old adage. It appears to be true, at least insofar as Teachers College is concerned. Witness the following headlines from an issue of the George-Anne published April 10, 1937:

Pan-Hellenic Council Dance To Be Held At Armory—Professors to Furnish Music.

Or these: Verna Lassetter Is Named May Queen—Grace Cromley to Be Maid of Honor.

Do you freshmen still have the "T" Books that were given to you when you entered school last fall? The following lead from a story in that issue of the George-Anne might be interesting to you: "Work will begin on the 'T' Book as soon as Editor Will Hill Fields returns to school, it was announced by George Carter, president of the Student Council." The story goes on to reveal that Kenneth England was associate editor of the publication. Other members of the staff were B. H. Ramsey, business manager, and Eugene Bell, assistant business manager. Dean Z. S. Henderson and Professor Robert F. Donaldson were faculty advisers to the publication staff.

Ruth Pound Elected President YWCA. And Ruth didn't come back to school, so now Fay Foy is president. Martha Hardin was elected vice-president; Minnie Chance was elected secretary, and Frances Cone treasurer. Martha and Minnie, too, failed to return, so now Jewel Vandiver and Virginia Sands fill those offices.

Thirty-Five Make New Dean's List. That was for the winter quarter last year. This year fifty-one made it for the winter quarter. The story reveals that Sudie Akins, Willard Cartee, Mary Katherine Sneed and Juanita Thomas made A in all their courses, receiving a grade point ratio of six.

The grade point ratio for that quarter shows the X Club on top among the social clubs with a 4.02 average, while the I. R. C. led the special group with a 3.93 average.

Leonard Kent Will Address S. S. Class. The S. S. stands for Sunday school; must have been one of Shelley's headlines.

Methods Students Leave Sunday for Greenville, S. C.—Remember Miss Dunlap?

Prof Trackmen Training Hard—This headline is followed by a story which states that McKneely, Cartee, Hamil, and Oliver are looking best among the old men (how about it, Goat), and that plenty of help should come from Harris, Winn and Bagley.

At the Movies—"General Spanky" was on Saturday, Grace Moore and Cary Grant were to be presented Monday and Tuesday in "When You're in Love."

In the editorial columns could be found the following squib: "Rumor hath it that some of the boys are planning to stage a bare-foot strike on Wednesday night. It seems that they want more Wednesday night dances like those held last quarter." And this: "Looks like the college is going commercial, what with the Little Store opening up every night. But really, it's a fine thing and will do much toward increasing studying by keeping the students on the campus at night." At any rate, we were right about it keeping the students on the campus.

Bobb Harris was writing something about the Dexterous Doodle Bug. By the way, we wonder what he finally made on that Nature Study course.

As for the Dirt Column, we see such names as these: Anne and B. H., Verna and Jim, Mincey and Johnnie, Jean and Bill, Buster and Frenchy, Bacon and David, Carol, Cope and Carpenter, Virginia Sands, Lil and Dabber. We are not going to write what is said about them in the Diggings, 'cause we've already had our cussing out about that issue.

Oh, yes, this appeared on the front page, through an error that we're still hoping Dr. Pittman will forget. "I know," said the little violet, "The stalk brought me."

BULL BROWN TO ORGANIZE
COLLEGE BASEBALL TEAM

A college baseball team is soon to be organized here, according to Bull Brown, who is planning to attend a county-wide meeting of those interested in forming a league in Bulloch county.

An offer has been made through the WPA to assist in the financing of the league. Mr. B. H. Ramsey and Mr. G. D. Wynn have charge of sponsoring it in the county.

"Were you copying his paper?"
"No sir, I was only looking to see if hed had mine right."

COLLEGE HUMOR

"Angel face, say hello to your aunt."

"I hate choo! I hate choo! I hate choo!"

"Baby dumpling, that's not nice. Say hello to auntie."

"I hate choo! I hate choo! I hate choo!"

"Please, snookums, for momma's sake, say hello."

"I hate choo! I hate choo! I hate choo!"

"Listen, pug ugly, say hello to your aunt before momma knocks whatever teeth you've got down your little throat."

"Why auntie, dear, when did you arrive?"

"No, you can't take my daughter riding."

"Why not?"

"I don't allow college boys to go out with my daughter."

"But I ain't a college boy. I work over to Kelly's pool hall."

"I beg your pardon, sir. My daughter will be ready in a moment."

Teacher: "Junior, I think I'll keep you in after school."

Junior: "It won't do any good. I'm a woman hater."

"What's all the hurry?"

"I just bought a text book and I'm trying to get to class before the next edition comes out."

Voice of the phone: "Pop, guess who just got kicked out of college?"

Columnette

By C. D. SHELEY

Congratulations to Marion Carpenter for his swell chapel program of last Friday. It was evident that the students enjoyed it very much. No one studied, no newspapers rattled.

Some people think that what they say is true because they said it.

A record mass of humanity journeyed home for the week end. The George-Anne attempted to print a list of these, but there was a difference of opinion among the members of the staff; some thinking it would be more appropriate to print the names of those staying at school. Others wanted to print a list of the entire student body. It was finally decided to confine names to the dirt column.

Gossip monger: One who feels satisfied when a reputation is ruined by lies.

Safe Bet: This year's Reflector will be more popular than a Sears, Roebuck catalogue.

A man-of-six feet, eight inches applied for a job-as-life guard.

"Can you swim?" asked the official.
"No, but I can wade to beat hell."

MR. WINBURN'S DAUGHTER IS ON RADIO CITY PROGRAM

Mrs. R. L. Winburn, who has been visiting Mr. Winburn here for a few days, has returned to Midville. Prior to coming here, Mrs. Winburn had been visiting her daughter, Miss Bess Jones Winburn, in New York City.

Friends will be interested to learn that Miss Winburn is broadcasting on the Camel cigarette program from Radio City.

ATTEND UNIVERSITY DANCES

Among those attending the Little Commencement Dances at the University of Georgia last week end were Misses Jo Simmons, Priscilla Prather and Virginia Sands, and Frank Hook and Eugene Heckle.

MISS SMALL ENTERTAINS

DUX DOMINA WITH SUPPER

Miss Mary Small, sponsor of the Dux Domina, entertained the club with a supper at the Tea Pot Grille Sunday night, April 10. The following members were guests: Fay Foy, Sibyl Strickland, Miriam Girardeau, Doris Sands, Alice Hill, Marion Lanier, Margaret Remington, Claire Bryan, Catherine Gainey and Mary Powell.

Alice Hill and Mary Powell were hostesses at the regular meeting of the Dux Domina Thursday night, April 14th. Refreshments and flowers carried out the Easter motif.

Y. W. C. A. CABINET

Mrs. M. S. Pittman was hostess to the members of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet at a lovely dinner at her home Friday night, April 8th. The guests were: Fay Foy, Jewel Vandiver, Frances Cone, Leonelle Jenkins, Julia Carroll, Agnes Hodges, Louise Bennett, Vernice Bacon, Jeanette Willets, Anne Felton, Dorothy Cromley, Miriam Girardeau and Miss Elizabeth Edenfield.

gan, Ill.; C. R. Townsend, O'Keefe Junior High, Atlanta; J. T. Ecker, Middle Georgia College.

The expenses for the summer quarter at Teachers College are very reasonable. A college fee of $15 a term is charged every student. Room rent and board for the term is $23. A reservation fee of $1.00 must be paid before any room can be reserved on the campus.

MUSIC CLUB

The Music Club met Wednesday night, April 13, in Mr. Neil's studio in Anderson Hall. Gladys Thayer had planned as a program a study of the three periods of German music: Classical, romantic and modern. Compositions of outstanding composers of each period were given as piano and vocal numbers. The program was concluded with a brief study of the Operetta, "Hansel and Gretel," which is to be given in the college auditorium next month as the concluding lyceum attraction of the season.

After the program, the club went to the parlor in West Hall, where Horace McDougald, Sue Zetterower, Thelma Harrison, Julia Reese and Gladys Thayer were host and hostesses for a delightful social hour.

The next meeting of the club will be on the second Wednesday night in May. Mr. and Mrs. Neil have invited the club to meet with them at that time. All members are requested to see the club president, Fay Foy, before that time and tell her if they plan to attend, as that meeting will be the last of the year. All members are urged to be present.

tagging will be allowed on the dance floor. Dances must be arranged for at the tables, one dance tune constituting a dance.

The following committee chairmen have been appointed: Edward Zachert, decorations; Howard Waters, lighting and the spotlight; Tom Vandiver, floor committee; Harold Rigsby, furnishings; in addition to these Jim Wrinkle and Miss Ruth Bolton have been appointed to investigate the possibility of selling soft drinks and sandwiches to the audience; Jeff Stewart and Hugh Hodges have charge of the girls' chorus; David Proctor is arranging a comedy song for a male quartet; Willard Clanton has written a song for the Bachelors Club members to sing, and Bobby Carrol, Clanton, and Leroy Roughton have written the continuity.

MUSIC FESTIVAL RESULTS

Johnnie Austin and Roger Holland, trombonists, received a rating of superior at the State Music Festival, held at Milledgeville last week, according to William Deal, band director of the college.

The Laboratory School chorus received a rating of excellent and the string group was awarded a rating of good.

BRIDE-ELECT HONORED AT THEATRE PARTY

Winona Aldred and Sue Zetterower were hostesses at a theatre party in honor of Pauline Mallard Tuesday afternoon. The hostesses presented Miss Mallard with a piece of china matching her set. After the show the guests went to the Tea Pot Grille, where they were served delightful refreshments.

The guests included Misses Helen Lanier, Florence Kenan, Grace Gay, Grace McNorrill, Nora Zetterower, Jurelle Shuptrine, and Mrs. William Deal.
