Operation Empower Health – Greater Savannah kicks off Thursday

Thousands of people in need of medical care can receive it at no-cost in May during Operation Empower Health – Greater Savannah, a U.S. Military exercise supported by St. Joseph's/Candler and Georgia Southern University. Troops from all over the United States will deploy to Savannah and set up medical, dental, vision and veterinary services in four key locations from May 10-18. It will be the 2018 flagship exercise of the Department of Defense's annual Innovative Readiness Training Program.
