VANDIVER CARRIES PIGSKIN FOR SCORE

Ozier, Michael and Vickers Do
Iron Man Stunt, Play
Entire Game.

The Blue Tide defeated Wingate College 6-0 in the first home game of the season Friday night. The Teachers were out-weighted, but not out-classed in a fast game before 2,000 fans.

The lone score came about the middle of the second quarter with Captain Tom Vandiver carrying the ball. The ball had been worked from mid-field with successive 15-yard runs by Ozier, Vandiver and Alternating Captain Michael.

Every Teacher played excellent football. The line played a fine defensive game blocking three punts and providing a stone wall for the opposition. The superb booting of Ozier was a feature of the game. His educated toe averaged 45 yards and placed the pigskin in coffin corner time after time.

Kirby, kicking for Wingate, averaged 30 yards. Ozier, Michael and Vickers played the entire game. Most of the game was played in Wingate territory, but the Teachers seemed to lack the punch necessary to score.

SCHOOL SPIRIT

School spirit is a necessary part of any success that our football team may attain. It is the duty of everyone of us to yell ourselves hoarse at every game. The boys may not hear the yells during the heat of battle, but the realization that every student is backing them one hundred per cent will give them new strength and courage. The Blue Tide warriors will fight their hearts out in every game and win if it is humanly possible. Students, let's show those men who fight for the Blue and White that we are for them one hundred per cent!

AN APPEAL

The George-Anne is the publication of the entire student body. With the exception of the editor, assistant editor, business manager and circulation manager, no other members of the 1938-39 staff have been selected. Any student in school, from the smallest freshman to the largest senior, will be given an opportunity to work for a place on the staff.

We are anxious to have many applicants. We urge all students interested to try for a place on the staff. Get an assignment from the editor, or turn in anything that you think suitable for publication in the college paper.

ROBERT F. DONALDSON JR.,
Chairman Publications Committee.

OPPORTUNITY AND EDUCATION

A new school year is stretched out before you, a year which may mean much or little, and whether or not you may boast of achievements when June arrives will depend, of course, upon your individual efforts. The amount and direction of those efforts are matters of extreme importance in determining your course of action as a college student.

Here, in college the hackneyed old saying that opportunity knocks but once has no basis of truth. The opportunities for extending your learning to virtually unlimited horizons are sounding a continuous barrage at your intellectual door, and with a little concerted action in the right direction, you can let this plan of inviting knowledge into the doors to become a glorious asset, tipping that side of your mental balance sheet to an increasing high of enriched living.

Consider carefully all the aspects of your school life; neglect none of the worthwhile activities; develop a sense of values that will help you discuss the better things and the things that suit your individual tastes and needs.

Remember: Even as a rose spreads the velvet softness of its petals to the warm rays of the life-giving sun, so does life expand in the light of each new experience.

Diggings

The medical students came down from Augusta last week and gave physical examinations to the girls. A good time was had by all—the Med. students.

Wish of every upperclassgirl about this time of year: To be a freshman.

Can't somebody find out who stood up Tiny Ramsey last Sunday night?

The tea dance the Eppies and Dux gave last Saturday afternoon was a huge success. The fact that the orchestra kindly practiced an hour longer was no drawback. L. C. Lee was scared to death he'd be a "wall flower," but he "bloomed" before the dance was over. Even Gerald Groover got eight breaks in two pieces.

Congratulations, Jimmy! He wandered off Wednesday night and showed up in class Thursday morning with Mrs. DeLoach.

Excerpt from a letter written by a former T. C. student who is now teaching school: "Guess where I am? Yes, I'm in the schoolroom. Teaching? Oh, no! It's Monday. I never teach on Monday. I try not to on Tuesdays, Wednesday, Thursdays and Fridays, also. It's driving me crazy! I'm gray-headed, bedraggled, cross and mean; but still beautiful and I'm carrying on a 'serious' flirtation. It is much more interesting than the T. C. affair. . . . I really must stop now and listen to my brats make sentences with saw and seen. It is the worst class I ever seen, and I hope to never saw a worser. . . ."

Things that seem funny not to see—

"Mr. Zit." leading the freshmen.
The shrubbery without Mr. Gaar.
Annie B. without Tom V.
Rigsby without Tommy.
Frances Deal settled down to one.
Mincey without Johnny.
Prissy up to her old tricks.
Anne without Cartee.

Two-Gun Drew is the rage of the campus, boys, so hold your gals.

To the girls: We'd like to warn you to keep up with your "regulars," as this bunch of good looking freshmen could put a "thump" in most anybody's heart.

Where is Kitty? Has anybody seen Kitty? Yeah, but we sho' do hate to see her walking around by herself. She seems to have that "far-away look" in her eyes.

Cope, ole boy, is it true? We had hoped you'd come out as always—unspoiled by the wooly wiles of the female touch—but it looks as though you're in for it, too. Poor boy!

Virginia says it's a mighty fer piece to Albany. Don't worry, Virginia, there are quite a few around here who sympathize most understandingly with you.

How amazingly cute the freshmen girls were at the ball game Friday night. We can't get over it. Do you suppose they can?

It looks like Dean Anderson is having a time trying to decide between McKneely and Nelson. However, "Geechee" is being a good sport and helping Dean out on the last "item" mentioned.

Ask Danny "Gladys" Vickers how he likes boiled peanuts. You might suggest a peanut boiling to Rigsby, but be sure no one hears you but him.

Frances Harrison seems to be making hay while the sun shines, but just wait 'till East is through "rattling" Betty Smith.

"Marriage in Leesburg"

By JODY BROWN

The scene is on a modern highway at night. Two men are speeding along in a new sedan. They have just left Leesburg, where they stopped for a gas re-fill. Pat, the one not driving, talks with a lisp.

He begins telling a pensive, broody-looking Joe of a conversation he overheard back at the service station. He tells a deaf ear about this beautiful young girl and that gawky, dumb-looking boy and, how they talked of love—and the future.

"An' geth what?" asked Pat, "thee wanths to thettle down an' merry dith gawky, dumb-locking . . ."

As Joe came to life, let go the steering wheel, and aimed his left first at Pat's jaw, a telephone post jumped in front of the car and knocked the two men to sleep.

When Joe awoke, he found Pat glaring at him from his hospital bed. "Thay," Pat exploded, "why the devil did you jump on me when I wath telling you about that Leethburg couple's affair?"

"Oh . . ." said Joe. "Well, you see, several years ago I was very much in love with a girl in Leesburg and I was thinking about her last night, when suddenly I thought I heard you calling her a bunch of names, and I lost my temper. Her name's Anne Meredith."

TOM TABLE

At a corner table of our coveted dining hall, the element of chance has pulled up a chair and successfully formed a "Tom Table."

On the far side of the table, looking from left to right, sits Tom Scott, Tom Dews, Tom Jenkins and Tom Patat. On this side, looking likewise sits Tom Strickland, Tom Jones, and the exceptions but charter members, Joe Stanford and Jody Brown. At the head, looking blank, sits Mildred "Tom-Boy" Bowen, who has been deposited there to keep order.

Truly, a table of "Toms!"

IN THE BULL PEN

With BULL BROWNE

The Tampa-T. C. game wasn't as bad as it sounded. The Blue Tide actually out-played their heavier and more experienced opponents in the first half. The teachers made five first downs to the Spartans three in the first half and gained twice as much yardage. Bouquets to Ozier for his kicking and to Mikell and Vickers for playing sixty minutes and battling all the time.

One of the sidelights of the trip was a radio talk over station WIEF (Tampa) by Cope Ozier and Ye Sports Editor. The laurels all went to Ozier who told the radio audience that T. C. recruited her football players from the farms of South Georgia.

Ed Ray, sports editor Tampa Daily Times, refers to T. C.'s football warriors as "Crook Smith's Tough Boys." This name was given because of last year's Florida trip when the Teachers battled Stetson, Miami and Tampa in eight days.

The Teachers' toughest opponent of the year will be the Stetson "Mad Hatters," of DeLand. The Hatters upset the powerful University of Florida 'Gators by a 16-14 score at Gainesville, the home of the 'Gators. Stetson has sixteen seniors on the squad and eight of the starting players against Florida were seniors. Stetson, however, may be too "cocky" and may take the Teachers too lightly, and the Blue Tide may slip in an upset a lot of "mays," but it can happen.

Take note girls! The manager of the Edgewater Hotel at Tampa told Coach Smith that the T. C. boys were the nicest bunch that had ever stopped at his hostelry.

Among the 5,000 fans who saw the Tampa-T. C. game were over 1,000 Boy Scouts. They were the guests of the University of Tampa and were perhaps the most ardent Spartan supporters that night.

Three of the Tide's future opponents have already opened their grid seasons. Douglas tried the "iron man stunt" by playing two games in a week, both against Teacher rivals. Douglas conquered Sneed College 12 to 0, but lost to Alabama Teachers by a 27 to 0 score.

The Blue Tide lost two able reserves last week when both Dunn, a back, and Horn, a tackle, quit school. Both of these boys were valuable men and would have seen lots of service this year. Dunn went back to school over at B.-P. I.

This Wingate College that the Teachers trounced Friday night were no bunch of set-ups. They had a tough, hard-playing team. They continued to fight throughout the entire game although trailing in the score after the second quarter. These boys will have a strong team later in the season.

Teachers Defeated 40-0 By Spartans And Bad Breaks

The University of Tampa Spartans defeated the South Georgia Teachers College Blue Tide 40 to 0 by the virtue of a powerful last half offense in the opening battle of the season for both teams. The game was played on Tampa's new Phillips field and was viewed by over 5,000 fans. The Blue Tide held their heavier opponents during the first half and completely out-played the Spartans. The score at the half stood 6 to 0 in the Spartans' favor.

After the second half started it was a different story, however, with the Spartans running a powerful offensive with which the Teachers could not cope. The Spartans scored two touchdowns in the third quarter and three in the final period. The University of Tampa team had their offense centered around a triple reverse play which they worked continuously against the Blue Tide.

The Tampans used their superior man-power to a good advantage. They substituted freely in an effort to wear out the Teachers. The guards, Woodard and Hill, shone in the line for T. C. and Cope Ozier with his beautiful kicking was the backfield star. Ozier averaged around forty yards per kick and often kicked them out of bounds near the Tampa goal line. He had the Spartans in "hot water" continuously at the first half.

The starting line-ups:

Tampa	Position	Teachers
Mumbauer	LE	Hagan
Pittman	LT	Brantley
Manucy	LG	Hill
Yorkunas	C	Vickers
Alfieri	RG	Woodard
Brown	RT	Browne
Schleier	RE	Miller

TEACHERS, from page 1

The teachers had 25 first downs to 14 for Wingate. Five passes were attempted by the Blue Tide. One was complete, two incomplete, and two intercepted. The Tide drew 55 yards in penalties to 30 for Wingate.

The line-ups:

Teachers	Position	Wingate
Vickers	C	Broome
Woodard	RG	Atwater

Brantley	RT	Mabry

STETSON TO BE TOUGHEST FOE

Have An Experienced Team of Seniors Who Defeated Florida By Close Score.

The Blue Tide will meet their toughest opponent of the season when they encounter the Stetson "Mad Hatters" next Friday night at DeLand, Fla. The Hatters have already established themselves as one of the South's leading elevens by virtue of their 16 to 14 victory over the best University of Florida team in recent years. This victory was the first Stetson win over Florida since 1909. This was also the first Florida game in which Stetson had scored since 1912.

The Hatters will throw a powerful and experienced team against the Tide, as most of their players are seniors. Stetson boasts in Lyn Warren and Vincent Schaefer, two of Dixie's finest running backs. These two boys were the scoring threats against Florida.

After two tough games with Florida and Rollins, the Hatters may suffer a let down against the Tide. The Teachers are in good shape and have been working hard toward an upset victory over the Floridians.

The Hatters' line averages 189 pounds and the backfield 173 pounds. Seven seniors, two juniors and two freshmen make up the starting line-up. Although heavier and more experienced than the Tide, the Floridians have about the same size squad in number as the Teachers, having only twenty-seven men on the roster.

MANLESS DANCE

The W. A. A. is sponsoring a manless dance in the Gymnasium Saturday night. Every girl is invited to come and bring a date. For those who do not dance a variety of entertainment will be offered.

Pent House Champs To Defend Title In 8-Team League

Although a definite date has not yet been set, three teams have already begun preparations to wrest the touch football title from Gerken's Pent House team. They are Delta Sig, reputedly the strongest challenger, Pi Nu and the Faculty. Four other squads will form an eight-team league.

The schedule calls for each team to play one, and possibly two games a week until a round-robin has been completed. A Shaughnessy play-off will probably climax the season.

It is hoped by Wrinkle, director of the league, that as many boys as possible will participate in the contests. Wrinkle would also like to see any boys wishing to pick up experience in officiating.
