IRC DISCUSSES MUNICH CONCORD

Meeting Held Wednesday Evening at Home of Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Destler.

Holding their first meeting of the current year, the International Relations Club met at the home of Dr. C. M. Destler, faculty advisor, last Wednesday evening. Over sixty-five people who were interested in international affairs attended the meeting. This is a record-breaking attendance for the first meeting.

Mr. Schiller gave an outstanding lecture on "The Munich Agreement." Taking up the conditions before and during the Munich settlement of the Czechoslovakian question. The motive of England in deserting the little republic at a crucial time was questioned. After the talk a heated discussion arose in which everyone present took part. Mr. Schiller stated that the condition of the lower masses had been improved under Hitler. Leader of the opposite group was Mr. Flora who said conditions were much worse under Hitler.

Miss Ceciline Swinson was automatically elected president when Lamar Wiggins tendered his resignation. Arthur Farrar was elected vice-

MISS MARY HOGAN TO SPEAK HERE

At First Joint Meeting of Y. W. and Y. M. C. A. To Be Held This Year.

The first joint meeting of the Y. W. and Y. M. C. A. will be held Wednesday night in the college auditorium. Miss Mary Hogan, Dublin, an outstanding speaker, will talk to the group. Miss Hogan is active in young people's work at the Statesboro Methodist church and is a teacher in the elementary department of the Statesboro High School. Mr. Harris, band instructor, will also be on the program with a solo.

The Y. W. cabinet for this year is composed of Agnes Hodges, president; Dorothy Cromley, vice-president; Anne Felton, secretary; Virginia Sands, treasurer; Emolyn Rainey, publicity; Sara Morris, socials; Mary Andrews and Priscilla Prather, freshman commission and membership; Miriam Girardeau and Dorothy Caldwell, social service; Julia Carroll, Reba Yarbrough and Kathryn Dubberly, morning watch; Ruby Sewell, vesper; Jewell Vandiver, world fellowship; Martha Lane Simpson, pianist; Elizabeth Edenfield, faculty advisor.

S. G. T. C. ROSES MAKING GOOD AT AMERICUS

"Four Roses" have made good at Georgia Southwestern College, according to a feature story in the Macon Telegraph. They are Miss Jane Quarterman, Valdosta, chief rose; Miss Ruby Lois Hubbard, of Carnesville; Miss Ouida Glisson, of Metters; and Miss Miriam Burgess, of Ashburn.

These "Roses" were among the first to complete the course given by a Rosenwald scholarship for supervision here at S. G. T. C. They proved themselves to be excellent students and were placed at Georgia Southwestern in an attempt to jock education out of a rut of mediocrity. They have inaugurated a new type of grammar grade education that makes education desirable to children instead of being dreaded. The "Four Roses" are four of five teachers in the school—the only four Rosenwald students banded together for practical purposes in the United States. The course they follow in teaching

PLANS MADE FOR ANNUAL BANQUET BY BACHELORS

Pledges were extended to four men at a special meeting of the Bachelors Club held last Tuesday night. They are Charles T. Estes, Bartow Miller, Albert Hagan and C. D. Sheley.

Plans were made for the annual banquet and dance to be given October 29th. Committees were appointed to cover the different functions. It is the custom of the club to have a member of the faculty as honorary guest on this occasion. Mr. Schiller has been selected for the honor. Invitations will be sent to all old members to return on this date. Miss Ruth Bolton and Miss Marie Wood are the club sponsors.

College Chorus Has 100 Members Enrolled

The College Chorus, under the direction of Mr. Ronald Neil, has established a new high record this year with one hundred members enrolled. There are 24 bass voices, 20 tenor voices, 38 soprano voices, and 18 alto voices. Mr. Neil is delighted with the fine start the chorus has made. He stated that the chorus has prospects of being second to none in the state of Georgia. Mr. Neil said the club sounded better at the beginning this year than it did at the end last year. The chorus meets three times each week.

ALABAMA HAS MIGHTY SQUAD

Blue Tide Handicapped in Game By Several Men Being Sick and Injured.

A fighting Blue Tide held a mightier opponent, Alabama Teachers, to a 7-0 victory here Friday night in the second home game of the season.

Apparently the presence of Albert Hagan, whose leg was broken in scrimmage, bolstered the spirit of the Teachers. Every man fought his best until the end. Ozier, Vandiver, Miller and Woodard gave especially outstanding performances.

The Alabama score came as a result of a long pass in the third quarter from the Alabama 40-yard line to the Teachers' 20-yard line. From there power drives carried the ball over.

It looked as if the Teachers were going to get all the bad breaks at the beginning of the game. The Alabamians threatened twice, coming down to the 20-yard line. The second time Ozier booted the ball 45 yards out of danger. A quick shift of events

COLLEGE BARBER SHOP IS OPENED

To Be Operated By College Men Who Have Seven Years' Experience.

A college barber shop was formally opened to the general public Wednesday night. Its proprietors are two sleek young collegiate men who are using this as a means to help work their way through college. They are Red Davis, Colquitt, and Lanky O'Quinn, Waycross.

The shop is located under the Dean's office in the basement of the Administration Building. It is open from 2 until 9:30 p. m. every day, except Sunday. The shop is sanitary and is completely equipped with modern tools. There are enough mirrors to suit the taste of a young lady. Both young men have had about seven years of experience and are capable of giving good service. Red and Lanky started the shop with the co-operation of President M. S. Pittman. The boys furnished the materials such as lumber, piping and paint while the administration gave the labor and the space for a year.

There is no doubt about it, we have the most beautiful library in the state on our campus.

We hope Miss Mae Michael is having a grand vacation. She deserves it, but how we miss her!

The George-Anne on behalf of the entire student body extends sympathy to Albert Hagan, who will probably not be able to return to school this quarter because of a broken leg. Any football coach would be glad to have a team made up of men of his caliber. Good luck, Albert, and we'll be looking for you next quarter.

SCHOLARSHIP AND OTHER ACTIVITIES

Do all students come to college to get book-learning? Is book-learning all you can obtain from four years of college life? Is it really the desire to get more book-sense that draws so many young men and women of today to the colleges? It is the highest ambition of some students to finish their college life with summa cum laude written upon their diplomas and they spend their entire time with their noses buried in books in order to achieve this honor. This is a worthy ambition and one to be desired by all, but do you realize that the majority of the jobs possessed today by college graduates are possessed by average students. Are you going through college with nothing to show at the end of it but a diploma signifying that you have a B. S. or B. A. degree conferred upon you? This isn't a criticism of scholarship because scholarship is undoubtedly a valuable asset in life but we want to show you the other side of college life—that side which will help you in gaining that well-rounded personality possessed by all the successful people of today. College life is open to everyone and it is up to you to get what you need most from it, to participate in everything offered you. Each student has some special interest, be it dramatics, literary work, music, athletics, or perhaps public speaking and it is the privilege of the leaders in college to help you find what you want. Don't be bashful, don't have an inferiority complex. If you have an accomplishment don't hide it until it is too late. Try out for everything; attend everything. You are given a chance to prove your ability and your ability may help to make our college here more successful. After four years of participation in various activities, you should leave here with that much desired personality which will bring you the laurels of success and the happiness of a lifetime.

Digging's

So you didn't like our column last issue! Well, we've got some new diggers this week. Let's see who they sling dirt at. Here they go!

Can you imagine—

Mae Michael throwing confetti on the front campus?

Mamie says, "The girls are what the boys make them."

Dean Nation forgetting to lock the gates on schedule time.

The Pi Nu and the D. S. merging to form one happy fraternity.

Charlie Paine and Major Cowart as staunch members of the W. C. T. U.

"Two-Gun" dashing 70 yards to make a touchdown for Teachers in the Armstrong game.

Little Booths with curtains drawn to at the Little Store.

Bert Ramsey contributing five dollars to charity.

June Carpenter with a Southern drawl. If any girl wants a steady boy friend Pat Patterson says he's ready, willing and able.

J. Brantley is taking good care of the Baby. She seems to be thriving on all the candy and dopes he sends her.

Charles Bunn should make a good student at T. C. because he has a genuine interest in the teaching profession.

We wonder if Marion Lanier will continue to make a Hitt now that she is caught in the Webb of T. C.'s social affairs.

Wrote the flattered freshman girl home: "Mother, I made the dirt column!"

Rigsby said he hoped he would get his name in the dirt column again this week. Harold Rigsby.

"Dramatic" Wallace has announced that her leading man for this fall will be a football hero.

Seems like Froggie is taking up where Annie B. left off.

New plans for intermission will certainly cramp our style. Ain't it awful!

Natty Allen says tell all the girls he is back and rearing to go.

It is rumored that Dr. Pittman would make a mighty good horse-doctor.

Hitler Hooks was almost seriously injured when he went to sleep in a certain class and fell gently off the chair.

Buck Woodard seems to be really a follower of Rivers. At least, he's doing all he can "to complete his program." How is it, Buck.

Danny, can't we ever keep up with you? You have a new girl just about every time we turn around. Is this one going to last long?

It looks like the two Bills are taking their time selecting one of the freshmen girls this year. Better late than never, though.

Have we been seeing Frances Hughes stepping out? Well, we just wanted to know!

Ask Bobbie how Atlanta was week end before last. He's gone in for nursing now.

How about those two cute little girls from Sylvania. They really get around. How about it, Maggie and Angie?

Wonder if Punky ever found that ideal girl he was looking for awhile back.

Eddie Najar claims to be the cutest boy on the campus. Which he is if dressed as a witch. You sonavagun.

IN THE BULL PEN

With BULL BROWNE

The Tide suffered a serious blow last week when Al Hagan, outstanding end, broke his leg in practice prior to the Stetson game. This was Hagan's first year of football, but he had developed into one of the best players on the squad. He is sorely missed by the team because he was a sparkplug in practice as well as in a game.

Several of the Teachers' rivals had big week ends. M. G. C., Cochran, was credited with two losses over the week end as Jake Morris split his squad in order to play G. M. C. on Friday night and Mercer Saturday afternoon. The Cochranites lost to the Cadets 13-7 and to the Baby Bears 18-6. Douglas was highly entertained by Rollins in Winter Park, Fla. before 5,500 Central Floridians. Incidentally, Douglas lost by a mere 54-0 score. Erskine, the Tide's Thanksgiving opponents, continued its backward drive by losing their fourth straight game. This time it was to Davidson, 35-0.

One of the sidelights of the Tide-Stetson game was the fact that Stetson started ten seniors and one junior in the game. Prior to the game the papers all reported that Coach Crowell was going to start his sophomore line, but a sudden change right before the game was made and the senior and more powerful team appeared on the field to start the game.

The Armstrong Junior College team played their first game last week against Tech's "B" team and lost 6-2, but All-American Chick Shiver's boys showed up well. The teachers will meet this team in Savannah Friday night and will have a real battle on their hands as the Savannahians are ready to avenge last year's defeat.

Little has been said in the Florida papers about Art Mickel's great return of a kick in the Stetson game. He pulled the single longest run of the game, traveling 54 yards before being pulled down by a Hatter. Incidentally, he "batted" about three or four Stetson players out of the way on his jaunt.

Two boys started their first game for the Teachers in the Stetson game and showed up well in their initial appearance. Bob Bell, Trion Flash, started at end and Billy Winn at halfback, and they gained the plaudits of Coach Smith with their performances. Bartow Miller played his usual jam-up game at DeLand, but that is just a habit with Bartow.

Teachers Defeated 28 to 0 By Heavier Stetson Hatters

A scrappy Teachers College team held a more powerful Stetson University team to a 28 to 0 victory in DeLand, Fla., last Friday night before 1,500 Florida fans. The Mad Hatters ploughed up and down the field throughout the game, amassing 22 first downs. The fighting Teachers' team repulsed the Floridians time and time again in the shadows of their own goal to keep their heavier opponents' score down. Hardy, Stetson fullback, was the offensive star of the game as he scored three of Stetson's touchdowns and did the greatest ground-gaining for the Hatters. Lyn Warren, held in check by the Teachers most of the night, passed 36 yards to Schaefer for the other touchdown. Schaefer was the outstanding defensive player for the Hatters while Miller and Bell were the luminaries for the Tide. After tallying in the first, second and third quarter, every Stetson offensive effort was repulsed by the inspired Georgia forward wall in the closing quarter.

The line-ups:

Teachers	Position	Stetson
Bell	LE	Swanson
Brantley	LT	Minehart

ARMSTRONG OUT FOR REVENGE

Teachers Are to Meet Strong
Squad Here Friday
Evening.

The Teachers meet the strong Armstrong Junior College team next Friday night in Savannah at the Municipal Stadium in their fifth game of the season. The Savannahians have a very powerful squad this year, having lost to Georgia Tech's "B" team only by a 6 to 2 score. Armstrong was leading up until the last two minutes of play 2 to 0, but the Baby Jackets by virtue of a pass and a long run scored to eke out a meagre victory over Chick Shiver's boys. The junior collegians will be out to avenge last year's defeat which they suffered in Statesboro. Chick Chiver is especially anxious to win the Teacher game, so Armstrong will be keyed up for this contest. "Beans" Brown, a big fullback, and George, a halfback, are the mainstays of the Armstrong aggregation. Brown does all the kicking and line-plunging, while George is the "twinkle-toe" artist of the team.

The probable starting line-up of Armstrong: Ends, Crannon and Straughton; tackles, Woodward and Poppell; guards, Brady and Pinckney; center, Adams; halfbacks, McLaughlin and George; fullback, Brown; quarter, DeLoach.

Plans Made By W. A. A. For Speedball League

Plans have been made by the W. A. A. council for the girls' intramural program for the next six weeks. At present the main activity will take place in physical education classes under the direction of Miss Hammack and Miss Bowen. The first activity will be an intramural league in speedball, which will begin November 8th and continue until a round-robin schedule is played off. A tennis tournament will begin November 19. All girls must be signed up by this time. Girl councillors who have charge of the various tournaments are elected by the W. A. A. council. The council consists of a group of girls whose duty it is to take the lead, guide, and organize sports for intramural tournaments. Froggie Breen will be in charge of the speedball tournament and Agnes Hodges in charge of the tennis tournament.

DIVISIONAL DINNER

The art division, consisting of the business department, music, industrial arts, fine arts, and home economics, gave a divisional dinner with Dr. Hostettler as chairman in honor of Mr. Livingston, who has been selected as chairman of the art division for this year, Saturday evening.

VESPER CHOIR

The vesper choir which furnishes music for vesper services is in need of more alto and tenor voices. An average of 35 people have been singing with the choir. The choir meets for practice in the auditorium on Friday night at 7:15 and on Sunday afternoons at 2. Officers for the year are Janetta Caldwell, president; Dorothy Caldwell, vice-president; Kitty Dubberly, secretary and treasurer.

SOCIAL DANCING

Over one hundred students are turning out for social dancing lessons in the Gym, a majority of those being freshmen. The class is beginning with the fundamental steps and will go into more complicated forms of the dance as they become more proficient. The class is open only to those who do not know how to dance.

Miss Hammack announces that there will be a formal dance for the students on completion of the six-weeks' course.

ROSENWALD CLUB

The regular meeting of the Rosenwald Club was held at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday, with President Thad Hollingsworth presiding. Committees for the year were appointed, as follows: Programs, Martha Watson, Ruby Brazil, Miriam Townsend; social, Blanche Anderson, Mrs. DeLoach, J. L. Faircloth; publicity, Ruby Sewell, Lamar Wiggins, Elizabeth Burns and Arthur Farrar. A letter from Mrs. William Deal telling of her work in Chicago was read.

DELTA SIGMA

At the last meeting of the Delta Sigma fraternity twelve new men were admitted to the club as pledges. They are C. W. Graham, Washington; Curtis Crook, Thomson; Buddy Young, Thomson; Haygood Morrison, Thomson; William Wilkinson, Bainbridge; Jodie Robertson, Americus; Tiny Ramsey, Statesboro; Jack Hogarth, Brunson, S. C.; Charles Bunn, Cedartown; Ormand Hamilton, Brunswick; D. R. Barber, Bainbridge. Club officers for the year are James Deal, president; Leroy Cowart, vice-president; Gerald Groover, treasurer; B. H.
