The Armory Art Center West Palm Beach, Florida

The Armory Art Center announces upcoming Artist-in-Residence opportunities for your soon-to-be graduating students. This highly competitive eight-month residency program attracts a diverse group of emerging artists who have earned at least a BFA or MFA.

Current Artists-in-Residence

Artists-in-Residence are responsible for teaching classes and will also have the opportunity to refine their skills in workshops, eight-week classes, and at special events. The Armory provides each Artist-in-Residence a studio space to develop their work, and, at the end of their tenure, the Artists-in-Residence will exhibit their work in a group show at the Armory Art Center. Residents will also receive a generous monthly stipend and compensation for teaching.
