Big Home-Coming Thursday

ERSKINE SECEDERS WILL BE FOE OF PROFS THANKSGIVING

TEACHERS ARE IN GOOD SHAPE

Two Teams Evenly Matched To Give Outstanding Game
For Fans.

The Flying Fleet from Erskine College, Due West, S. C., will be the foe of the Blue Tide in the annual home-coming game here Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock on the new athletic field.

Information from Due West indicates that the fans will be treated to one of the best games of the season. The two teams will be almost evenly matched.

For the first time this season all of the Teachers will be in good condition. The team has been hampered all year by injuries and sickness. The Profs have shown good spirit in scrimmage all last week and are anxious to win this game in order to make a more favorable balance in the win column. The element of revenge will also enter the picture. The Seceders soundly trounced the Blue Tide last year at the beginning of the season. The Teachers will be out to change that picture.

The Tide has a better record than the Erskine gridsters, winning three and losing three against teams in their class. The Flying Fleet has won only one game all season.

The Seceders have a somewhat

CLUBS TO STAGE FLOAT PARADE

Ideas Conceived in Student Council and Accepted
By Clubs.

The streets of Statesboro will take on the appearance of Pasadena and the Rose Bowl when the clubs of South Georgia Teachers College stage a gigantic float parade at 11 o'clock as part of the Thanksgiving program.

The idea for this new work of progress at the college was originated in the minds of the Student Council and was eagerly grasped as something new and different by the clubs.

An award will be given by the Student Council for the best float, according to David Proctor, president of the organization. Proctor also stated that he hoped the parade would be successful enough to warrant making it an annual event.

W. A. A. To Present Decorative Award To Best Building

An outstanding event Thanksgiving will be the presentation of a loving cup by the Woman's Athletic Association to the building judged to be the most attractively decorated for Thanksgiving Day at the banquet Thursday night.

All residence halls and the administration building which is sponsored by the faculty will be entered in the competition. The presentation of the cup will be an annual affair henceforth.

The rules for decorating buildings are:

1. The decorations are to be on the outside of the dormitory porch and campus, in front.

2. Decoration is to be completed by 9 o'clock Thursday morning.

3. Judges are to be selected by a committee appointed by the W. A. A. Council, as follows: Two people from town, two faculty members, and one

Students to Receive Long Weed-End Holiday Friday

Students at South Georgia Teachers College will receive a long week end holiday beginning Friday evening after classes, according to President Maryin S. Pittman.

Residence halls and the dining hall will remain open for students who do not wish or who are unable to go home for the holidays. Most of the students did not go home last year and it is expected that a majority will remain here this year. The holiday became popular last year and will probably be made a permanent part of the calendar.

INVITATIONS SENT TO THREE HUNDRED AND EIGHTY ALUMNI

Freshmen Will Bid For Freedom In the Flag Rush Thursday

The freshmen will make their try for freedom Thursday morning in the annual flag rush to be held at 10 o'clock on the campus in front of East Dormitory. If they succeed in taking the flag from the defending sophomores they will no longer be subject to the will of the upper classes. However, if they fail to get the flag they must suffer the rat stigma until Christmas.

Here are the rules for the delightful affair:

1. Sophomores to defend colors as they see fit.

2. Freshmen to be 25 yards from colors at beginning of contest.

3. One freshman boy will be present for every eligible boy member of the sophomore class regardless of whether he is present or not.

4. Sophomores must not touch colors in defending them.

5. Freshmen must not tear down or

Hostetler and Livingston Attend Recent Conference

Mr. Hostetler and Mr. Livingston attended important conferences in Atlanta recently. Mr. Hostetler, chairman of the state curriculum committee on industrial arts, aided in the completion of the new state bulletin on industrial arts. Mr. Livingston, resident project director, conferred with state director of the NYA, Lasiter, about purchasing a considerable amount of equipment to be placed in the college shop.

DAVID PROCTOR TO WELCOME GRADS

New Plans and Hard Work To Make This Home-Coming Biggest Success.

The Alumni of South Georgia Teachers College will be greeted with the most elaborate home-coming program in the history of the school Thursday. Excellent work has been done and new plans have been made to make the day a success.

Invitations have been sent out to three hundred and eighty alumni by the Student Council. Plans have been made for the acceptance of most of these invitations.

David Proctor, president of the Student Council, in a message to the alumni, stated: "It is always a joy to have the alumni come back to see us. It gives us an opportunity to renew old friendships and it gives you an opportunity to see the progress we have made."

The main event on the day's program is the Erskine-Teachers football game. At the meeting of the alumni association new officers will be selected. The senior class, of which Cope Ozier is president, will be hosts to the alumni at a luncheon to be held in the lounge of Sanford Hall at noon. Jack Wardlow, one of the outstanding orchestras of the South, has been secured to play for the dance in the Alumni Building.

BUILDINGS TO BE DEDICATED SOON

Tentative Date for Exercises
Has Been Set For December 6.

Plans are now being worked out for the dedication of the three new buildings on the T. C. campus. These plans are being arranged along with the dedication program of all the new buildings in the University System.

On the Teachers College campus the girls' residence hall costing $60,000, a library costing approximately $60,000, and a laboratory school costing $80,000 will be among the buildings to be dedicated by the University System within the next few months.

The plans for the dedication exercises at the various units of the System have not been completed and

HOME-COMING

Home-coming on Thanksgiving Day at South Georgia Teachers College is always a happy occasion. It is like a big family reunion. For weeks before Thanksgiving the upperclassmen are thinking of the return to the campus of former students who will bring back interesting stories of their work. The freshmen have heard a good deal about the graduates of the past years and are anxious to see how T. C. graduates look. Faculty members are interested to hear of the work of the work the graduates have been doing. Home-coming gives all an opportunity to renew old friendships and make new ones. May the day spent on the campus make you feel a little closer to your "Alma Mater."

DEAN Z. S. HENDERSON.

HOLIDAY FOR STUDENTS

The administration deserves much praise in making the policy of having holidays on the week end after Thanksgiving a permanent one.

The students will gain a great deal of satisfaction in having the holiday. Those who are able to go home will be especially pleased. However, those who do not have the opportunity to go home will be able to do some real work in the library. They will also have time for pleasure with their friends which the hurry of regular school-life does not often permit.

In catering to the desire of the students the administration is making a sacrifice because the majority of the students will remain here, making it necessary to keep the dining and residence halls open.

MRS. P. D. LANDRUM

South Georgia Teachers College sustained a severe loss in the passing of Mrs. P. D. Landrum, who for more than six years had been dietitian and director of the dining hall. With meager equipment, with untrained assistants, and with limited budget, she administered her job not only to the satisfaction but also to the amazement of all who knew the facts. She did her work not only with efficiency, but also with poise of mind and spirit. She kept her kitchen help clean, busy, and harmonious. Annually she took practically a new corps of waitresses and trained, inspired, and refined them. She kept her guests satisfied to a degree not common in college dining halls.

But skill as a manager was not Mrs. Landrum's supreme quality. That was but a concomitant of other more fundamental characteristics. She was a woman of superior native intelligence. She had lived a life of action and usefulness in a needy world; she had reared a family, had labored for the good of the community, had promoted education; and with it all had found time to live her own life. She had time to have personal friends and to be a friend to many. She rarely seemed hurried; she found time to listen, to be sympathetic, to laugh and to cry with others. Her optimism and her cheerfulness were boundless. She believed that we can build a better world and proved her faith by laboring humbly, constantly and cheerfully at her own task.

We need people like Mrs. Landrum and her going has left us poorer by far. May our recollection of her prompt us to imitate her worthy example and cheer us on to ever nobler ideals in simple, useful service.

AS OTHERS TELL US

A good description of the college man comes from Dean R. E. Manchester, of Kent State University. We quote from the Erskine Mirror:

"The college man is a living paradox. Most people cannot understand him and those who do come to their conclusions by indirect proof. He talks of the future, but worships the past. He is liberal in his conversation, but conservative in his action. He is radical in his opinions of politics, but elects stand-patters to the class offices. He demands freedom of thinking, but defends with all his strength the traditions of his institution. He takes wild stands on religious theories, yet attends colleges and universities that are created and maintained by orthodox creeds. He preaches democracy, yet supports the most rigid campus caste system. He demands that his university maintain the highest athletic standards, yet in the same breath also demands a professional football team. He scoffs at his profs, yet defends them strenuously when they are criticized. He rebels against rules, but sets up more rigid ones when given the opportunity. He hazes the high school graduate who comes with a Boy Scout badge on his coat, but he covers his own vest with medals and keys. He laughs at convention, but insists upon it. He cuts classes the day before vacation, but comes back three days early. What are we going to do about it? We are going to praise the Lord that we have him and he is just what he is—a walking contradiction of himself."

Kryl Says Music Appreciation Is On the Increase

By GESMON NEVILLE

In an interview following his concert Wednesday Kryl said that each year there is a decided improvement in music appreciation by the general public. He also mentioned an increasing number of good musicians all over the United States.

"And do you think music appreciation is improving, Mr. Kryl?"

"Oh, yes! Yes!" he exclaimed, smiling, "All over the country music appreciation is being taught in public schools and colleges. Even in the last ten years there has been a decided improvement."

"The number of good musicians in the United States is increasing every year," Kryl said.

"Do you find that people usually prefer heavy classics or lighter classics?" I asked.

"Well, people generally prefer the lighter music, but the heavy classics are good for them. You'd probably like to go bumming around the country, it's easier than studying (I agreed with him), but studying is good for you; it's the same with music."

Then Kryl turned good-naturedly to autograph a student's program.

Pat and Mac To Be Wed On December 22

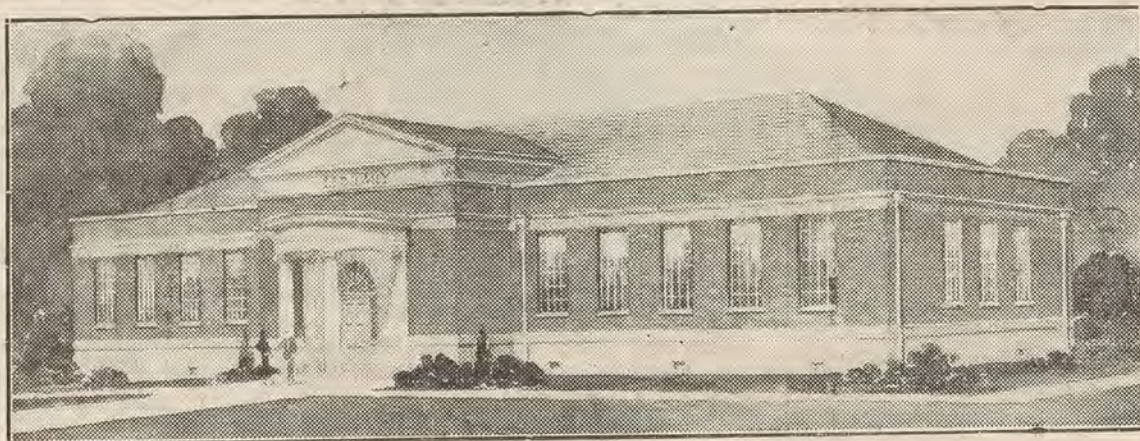

By MIRIAM GIRARDEAU

Of much interest to the faculty and students of South Georgia Teachers College is the announcement of the engagement of Miss Iris "Pat" Roberts, of Blakely, Ga., and Mr. Henry Johnston McCormack, Charleston, S. C.

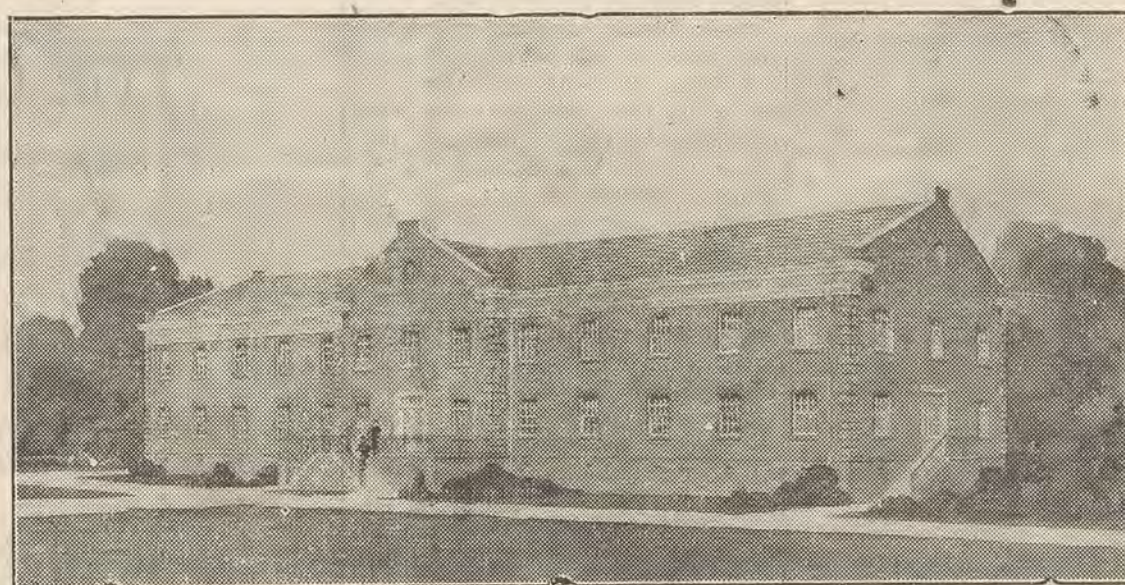

Miss Roberts attended school at Berry College, Florida State College for Women, East Carolina Teachers College, and South Georgia Teachers College, where she received her bachelors degree. She received her masters degree from Columbia University. She is now a critic teacher in the laboratory school here.

Mr. McCormack received his bachelors degree at Wofford, later attending the College of Charleston, University of Chicago, and Columbia University, and received his masters degree from the University of South Carolina. He is now principal of the laboratory school.

The marriage will take place December 22 at the Blakely Methodist church, with the Rev. Spencer B. King officiating. Miss Wynn Roberts, a sister of the bride-elect, has been chosen as maid of honor. The bridesmaids are: Mrs. Frank C. Hodges and Miss Margaret McCormack, sisters of the bridegroom-elect, Miss Marjorie Roberts, a sister of the bride, Mrs. Lunus Roberts, a sister-in-law, and Miss Minnie McGee. The young couple will make their home in Statesboro.

DELTA SIGMA AND PENT HOUSE LEAD

Fight for Championship Now Narrowed Down To Two Teams.

At the end of the fourth week of play and with the schedule drawing to a close the touch football championship has narrowed down to a race between the Pent House and the Delta Sigs.

The next three weeks will decide whether the present tie for first will have to be played off between the two teams. In a previous game the two teams fought to a 0-0 tie. If either of the teams are defeated it will mean the championship for the other. However, anything might happen and the other teams still have a chance to reach pay dirt.

Both the teams have shown up good in recent games, but the big surprise of the season was the strong opposition put up by the supposedly weaker teams.

The Delta Sigs have not been scored on during the entire season, however, the Pent House has racked up a larger score. In the past rounds the Pent House has displayed a fast offense in defeating "T-42's" 18-0; Training School 33-6, and the Hill-Tops 26-7. Delta Sigs turned back the NYA 27-0; Pi Nu 14-0, and Hotshots 14-0.

Other recent games saw the Pi Nu's defeat the Hotshots 36-0, and the "T-42's" turning back the NYA 12-0, and the Training School 18-0, and Hill beat the Hotshots 7-0.

The standings:

	W.	L.	T.
Pent House	4	0	1
Delta Sigs	3	0	1
Iota Pi Nu	3	2
T-42	3	2
Hill	2	2

TEACHERS DEFEAT M.G.C. 3-0

Blue Tide Members Who Play Their Last Game Thursday.

TEN OUTSTANDING PLAYERS TO SING SWAN SONG THURSDAY

The Blue Tide of South Georgia Teachers College will suffer a severe loss when ten outstanding men sing their swan songs in the game with Erskine here Thursday. Woodard, Rigsby, Browne, Ozier, Hill, Estes, Carswell, Vickers, Miller and Wilson play their last game as Profs on that day.

It is the custom of the Teachers to have great centers. Woodward has been one of the truly great centers of all time for the Blue Tide. The backfield never has to worry about bad passes while Woodward is center. He has played a consistent good game of football.

Rigsby and Miller have made two of the best ends that Coach Smith has produced. Excellent pass snappers on offense and cogs in the line on defense.

Browne became a regular from the very start and has proven to be one of the best players for the Teachers, really a part of the brick wall.

Ozier has an excellent record for this year as well as past seasons. Averaging 40 yards in punting for the season Ozier has been one of the main cogs for the Teachers. His educated toe has kept the team out of danger countless times.

Hill has been a mainstay in the Teacher line all four years. He is one of the scrappiest fighters the team ever had, and will be sorely missed next year. Estes has played a consistent brand of football for the entire time he has been on the squad. He is known as a real battler and never gives up. Carswell, although, not seeing much service as the others has made an outstanding record. Vickers saw much service until an injury took him out of his regular berth. The team has missed his heads-up football.

Wilson, holding a key position in the backfield, has played outstanding football all the year. The team will miss his staunch service next year. He is an example of the intelligent rather than spectacular brand of football.

FIELD GOAL BY MICKEL SCORES

Team Plays Best Game Of Season In Thrilling Battle.

A beautifully kicked field goal, booted by Art Mickel, gave the Blue Tide a 3 to 0 decision over a favored Middle Georgia College team. Jake Morris' junior school outfit was outplayed from the start of the game and never seriously threatened the Teachers' goal line. The nearest the Cochranites ever came to scoring was when Gas House Parker caught a 25-yard pass thrown by "Bear" Dickinto place the ball on the Teachers 16-yard line. Cochran's fast backs, who previously had been harassing the opponents, were bottled up all afternoon by a hard-charging Tide line. The entire Teachers' line played outstanding football to give their best performance of the season.

Buck Woodard and Bartow Miller turned in their usual stellar performances, but Jody Robertson and Billy Winn shared the honors as the outstanding Tidemen of the afternoon. Woodard stopped M. G. C's. last attempt at scoring by intercepting a pass on his own thirty-yard line and returned it to mid-field. A large crowd witnessed the inspired Teachers win a clear-cut victory over a highly favored opponent.

The starting line-ups:

IN THE BULL PEN

With BULL BROWNE

The Teachers have hit that comeback trail at last. After winning two straights and not allowing the opposition any points, they will be primed for a victory over Erskine. This will be the Teachers' first victory over a major foe in five years. The last being a defeat of the University of Tampa 19-14.

Our vote for the most improved ball player on the squad goes to Billy Winn, who has developed into one of the finest pass catchers we have seen in some time. Incidentally Billy showed promises of being a forth-coming "twinkle-toes" artist in the Cochran game.

Now that the Tide has finally hit their full stride we can afford to talk about other teams losing. The prize goes to the California Institute of Technology football team which has lost 20 straight games. In the past six years they have lost 45 games, tied 3, and won only 6. Stranger still, the team's home field is the Rose Bowl.

Another choice morsel of news from losing battle fronts comes from Reno, Nev. It seems that the University of Nevada football team dissatisfied with their present season signed a petition to fire the coach. The coach hearing of this tendered his resignation. The surprise came, however, when the board of regents hired the coach back and fired the football players from their scholarships.

A move is being sponsored on the campus by the Student Aid Club that should have the full support of all followers of the football team. It seems, that due to a policy of the athletic council, that several senior boys will not receive sweaters this year for playing football. Under the present system a player receives a sweater when he first makes the coveted "T" and regardless of the years or teams he plays on he receives no other sweater. Some of the boys have worn out their sweaters they received several years ago, and really would like to take a nice sweater away with them to remember the institution by in years to come. The S. A. C. will try to give a dance with a very small script charge and maybe one or two other minor activities to raise money for these sweaters. It is their hope that the

TEACHERS DEFEAT SNEAD IN 6-0 WIN

Teachers Play Fine Ball Game Against Scrappy Squad On Sand Mountain.

A smooth South Georgia Teachers eleven coasted to a 6-0 victory over a weak Snead College eleven after establishing a six-point lead in the second quarter. Playing a smooth brand of ball the Tide showed superiority in every phase of the game. Ozier scored the touchdown on a line buck from the 4-yard line after the Teachers had driven down the field from their own 20-yard. Bartow Miller contributed in the drive by spear- ing an 18-yard pass to put the ball on the Snead 11-yard line. The Teachers ran up a big advantage in yards and first downs, but muffed several opportunities to score.

The Tide outweighed their opponents for the first time this year and used their superior weight to a good advantage. However, the junior collegians had a well coached and fighting team, which turned in a good performance. A small crowd witnessed the game which was played on Sand Mountain.

students will see fit to give full-hearted support.

A new regular has taken his position on the Teachers eleven. Jody Robertson, a protege of Jake Morris, has established himself on the starting eleven by his consistent playing. Jody, after trying out practically every position on the team this year including tackle and quarterback, has finally settled down to the guard position. According to reports by the opposition after the M. G. C. game he seems to have the situation well in hand.

The new field has been given the O. K. of everybody including Dr. Pittman. It is really an improvement after playing on the town field. However, it is not complete as yet and much is to be done in connection with building an adequate athletic field for Teachers College. With the exception of a new dining hall that is S. G. T. C's. need No. 1.

When Erskine and the Tide meet it will be a strong line against a strong backfield. It is generally conceded the Tide has a strong defensive line as proven by past results. The Seceders, however, boasts of a dozen sets of strong backs, who have been nursing a mediocre line along all season.

SUMMARY OF FOOTBALL SEASON SHOWS TEACHERS ARE NOT BAD

ORMAN HAMILTON,

Football star, who was elected president of the Freshman Class.

FRANCIS PUFAHL,

Erskine 195-pound tackle, to play against Tide Thursday.

HAVE MADE MORE POINTS THAN FOES

Hard Luck, Sickness and Injuries Prevented a Better Record.

When a close-up view is taken of the Teachers' record for this year in football it can be seen that it is not at all bad. In fact it is one of the best records made here in years.

There is no doubt that the team is one of the best ever produced here with every man playing heads-up football at his position. Only hard luck, injuries and sickness has prevented a better record.

But let's look at the facts. Teachers have won three and lost three against teams in their own class. They have defeated Wingate, Snead and Cochran, their hardest opponent so far, while losing to Alabama, Armstrong and Douglas. The Teachers have made 28 points to 26 for their opponents. Over half of the passes thrown by the Blue Tide men this season have been completed. The backfield has averaged forty yards in punting, which is no little feat in itself, for the entire season. More ground has been gained in the games lost than by the opponents. The margin of victory in the three lost games was so narrow that if fate had pointed its finger in another direction it would have been a different story. The Tide has not been scored on in the last two games. The game with Erskine is bound to be a thriller and the Professors are determined to win it.

DR. MARVIN S. PITTMAN

President Pittman Welcomes Alumni

Dear Alumni:

Home takes on a new meaning when the children come back. Old memories are revived, experiences are recounted, plans and prospects are told, and secrets are revealed. This is true of the college home just as it is of the family home; so we your college parents and college brothers and sisters welcome you and we shall listen with eager ears and responsive hearts to all that you have to tell.

May your home-coming give you as much joy as it brings to us.

Sincerely,

MARVIN S. PITTMAN.

Lynching Would Be A Federal Offense By Debate Club Decision

Lynching would become a federal offense with all the significance attached to a national law if the members of congress were steered by a decision of a debate of the local Forensic council.

More than fifty people were present in the auditorium to hear the affirmative side to the question: "Resolved, That the Federal Government Should Pass an Anti-Lynch Bill," which brought in such convincing material that the judges saw fit to render a unanimous decision in their favor. The winning side took the offensive from the very start and built their argument around the horror of lynching and the inadequacy of the states to provide for its doom. The arguments of the negative side were centered around the point that lynching is a sectional problem and a national law for such would be an infringement on state rights. Gesmon Neville and J. A. Boatright represented the affirmative side; Floyd Watkins and John Cromley the negative. The judges were the three faculty sponsors.

159 STUDENTS HAVE UNSATISFACTORY CARDS

There were 159 students who did unsatisfactory work for the first six weeks of school, according to Dean Z. S. Henderson. There were 104 students who were unsatisfactory in one subject, 46 in two subjects, and 9 in three subjects. Of the 159 who were unsatisfactory 80 of them were freshmen, 43 were sophomores, 16 juniors and 10 seniors. When worked out on a percentage basis it was shown that 35 per cent of the freshmen received unsatisfactory reports, 33 per cent of the sophomores, 16 per cent of the juniors, and 11 per cent of the seniors.

light but fast team whose chief weapon is a passing combination from Burris to Edwards. The Teachers will depend on the usual inspired game of every man on the team.

EDDIE NAJJAR DIRECTS PLAY

Students Are Urged to See Clanton Give Lesson In Kissing.

New faces in dramatics will be the feature attraction at the presentation of "The Patsy" on the night of December 1st. All will be new actors except the old stand-bys, Clanton and Faircloth.

The players are at work under the direction of Eddie Najjar, who has taken over the job in Mr. H. J. McCormack's place.

The play will be a 100 per cent student production. There will be no faculty connection in any way. This is one thing that the students should give their loyal support to.

The cast for "The Patsy" is the same as announced in the last issue of the George-Anne with the exception of Miss Bernice Griffin, who is taking Miss Evelyn Baggett's part as Mrs. Harrington.

You will enjoy the show, especially when Willard Clanton kisses June Carpenter in the end, according to Eddie.

Dean Nations Is Now 74 Years Old

Dean Nations, well known member of the college faculty, who has spent the past several years here as professor of Bushology, celebrated his 74th birthday Wednesday.

Telling of one of his most interesting experiences since becoming a faculty member, he said:

"It was just about 12 o'clock at night. I heard the bangingest noise coming from upstairs over at East Hall. When I got around back I could tell it was coming from a third-story window and was some gal a snoring. Durned if it didn't sound just like a whang doodle."

Dean Nations, who hasn't missed locking the gates on time since the chain was put up, says he "wouldn't even let Dr. Pittman through if he got locked in."

Themes and Topics For I. R. C. Have Now Been Selected

The theme and topics for discussion in the International Relations Club have been decided for the entire year, according to Miss Ceciline Swinson, president.

The theme chosen was "The United States in World Affairs." The first topic for November, "Should the United States Increase its Armament?" was discussed Wednesday. The affirmative side was under the direction of Evelyn Baggett. Arthur Farrar led the negative. The topic for December will be "Should Steps Be Taken to Prevent Fascist Penetration of the U. S.?" For January: "Can the United States Prevent Fascist Penetration of Latin America?" February: "Is Isolation the Policy for the United States?" Topics will be furnished by the Southeastern International Relations conference.

Bugger Daggers New Social Club

Fourteen charter members make up the Bugger Daggers, the newest social club on the campus recognized by Dean Henderson. The members are: Red Davis, president; Clifford Wells, vice-president; Eugene Thomas, secretary-treasurer; Melton Findley, ———— Butler, Ernest Trowell, Graydon Pierce, Nicholas Dunbar, Clyde Anderson, Oliver Fussell, Arthur Farrar, Gus Carswell, David Guffey, and Shelton Brannen. The title of the club means "the overcoming of obstacles," according to Dunbar, one of the charter members. The club plans to function as any other social organization on the campus. Plans have been made to enter a float in the Thanksgiving parade. Teams are to be entered in every intra-mural event.

definite dates have not been announced. The tentative date for the dedication exercises here has been set for December 6.

Pictures of the new buildings will be found in this issue of the George-Anne.

HAMILTON IS FROSH PRESIDENT

Chapman, Cobb and Murray Also Receive Freshman Class Offices.

Orman Hamilton, Brunswick, was selected as president of the freshman class by a landslide in a special election of officers by the freshmen. There were three other men in the race but Hamilton received a big majority in the first count. James Proctor, Bill Sartain and William Chambliss were also entered in the race.

No candidate for vice-president received a majority in the first election for that office. Sheldon Chapman, Waycross, who received a plurality, defeated his nearest opponent William Wallace, Louisville, in the run-over. Roy Pate Warren and John Dunn also ran.

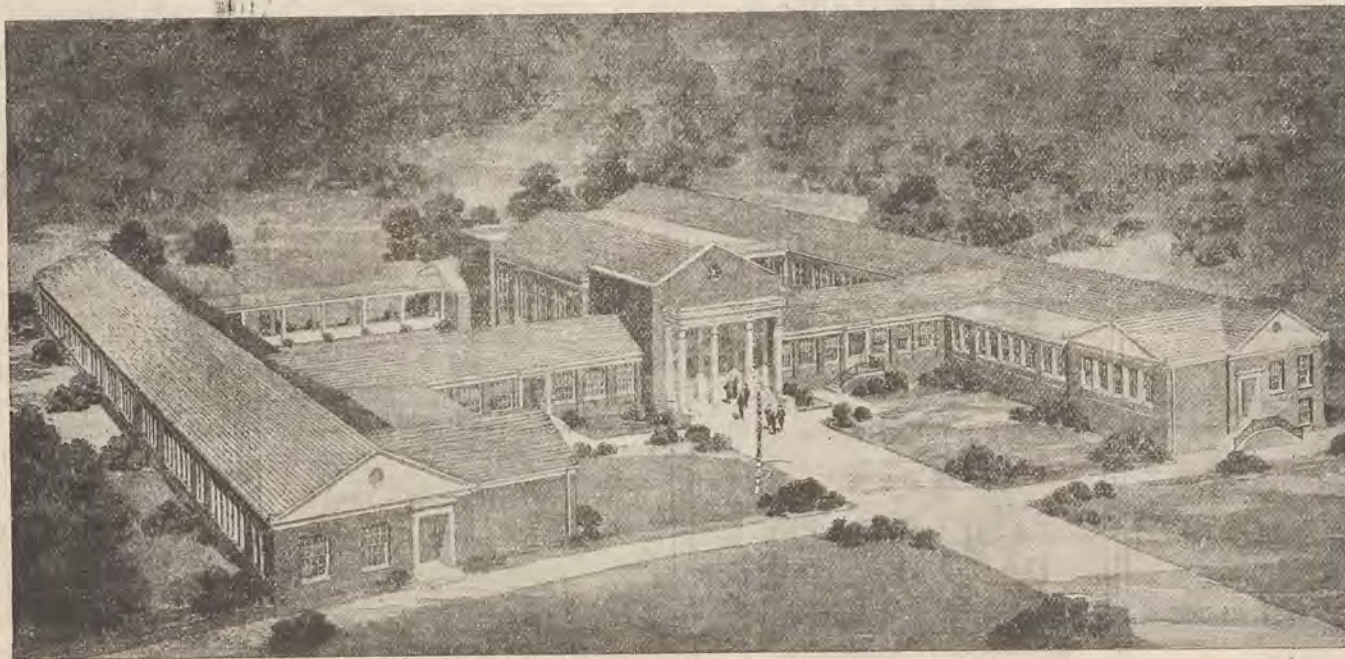

Marjorie Cobb, Bainbridge, received a clear cut majority to defeat Nancy Strickland and Dru Rambo for secretary-treasurer.

Jack Murray, Forsyth, defeated Tiny Ramsey, Statesboro, in a run-over for Student Council representative.

The election came after a period of six weeks which gave the freshmen opportunity to become acquainted with their prospective officers.

MACON COMMENDED FOR SHOWING GOOD PICTURES

Every student should make it a point to see "Valley of the Giants," showing at the Georgia Theatre today and tomorrow. The story is told so spen taneously and photographed so beautifully against a natural setting of the gigantic California redwood forests that you can't help liking it. Wayne Morris portrays the likeable young hero. Claire Trevor is outstanding as the lady saloon owner who reforms in order to catch our hero. Alan Hale plays the part of a loyal lumberjack. You'll hate Charles Beckford, who enacts the part of the villain up to the hilt. Mr. Macon, who is a consistent advertiser in the George-Anne, has been successful in securing outstanding pictures for the entire season.

Jack Wardlow to Play for Alumni Dance

BANQUET AND DANCE IN HONOR OF ALUMNI TO BE GALA OCCASION

Clubs Have Many Delightful Times

The banquet and dance with Jack Wardlow, an outstanding orchestra of the South, playing for the latter, in honor of the alumni to be held here Thursday evening will easily be the outstanding social event of the year. The banquet will last from 6:30 until 8 o'clock in the college dining hall. The dance will then be held in the Alumni Building.

MUSIC CLUB

Officers for the College Music Club were elected at its first meeting. They are: Marion Carpenter, president; Ted Booker, vice-president; Frances Hughes, secretary; June Carpenter, treasurer; Bill Wingate, publicity chairman. The club plans to organize several good programs to be given at the different churches and at chapel exercises. Meetings will be held on the third Wednesday of every month.

EPICUREANS

The Epicureans entertained their sponsor and pledges with a buffet supper at the Tea Pot Grille after the football game on Armistice Day, November 11th. Members and their date: Eloise Mincey, Jimmy DeLoach; Priscilla Prather, Charles Olliff; Anne Breen, Charles Paine; Froggie Breen, B. H. Ramsey; Meg Guntner, Cope Ozier; Emily Akins, Jodie Robinson; Tommy Gray, D. R. Barber; Frances Deal, Joe Joyner; Frances Hughes, Sonny Blitch. Pledges and dates: Betty Smith, Albert Branswell; June Carpenter, Bill Ware; Marguerite Mathews, Punky Perryman; Margaret Ann Johnston, J. B. Johnson; Miss Susie Hammack, Eppie sponsor, and Leonard Kent.

Betty Smith, Margaret Ann Johnston, Marguerite Mathews and June Carpenter, all new pledges, were welcomed into the Epicurean sorority at its last meeting. Plans were discussed for the annual breakfast dance which is to be held on Thanksgiving morning. Priscilla Prather, Eloise Mincey and Anne Breen acted as hostesses at the meeting.

The Epicureans will open their Thanksgiving Day program with the annual breakfast dance. Breakfast will be served from 7:45 until 8:30 in the dining room of the new coffee shop at the Rushing Hotel. Immediately following breakfast, dancing will begin and continue until 10 o'clock.

DELTA LAMBDA DELTA

Old members and freshmen girls who were invited to the Delta Lambda Delta barbecue picnic were: Thelma Harrison, Doris Wallace, Virginia King, Winona Carpenter, Mary Briggman, Burdelle Harrison, Margie Dekle, Adel Dozier, Mary Fries, Rebecca Grace, Frances Harrison, Abbie Mann, Elizabeth Miller, Jerry Nelson, Elizabeth Latham and Ollie B. Bostwick. The class was recently entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Neil with a five o'clock tea. A few of the old members of the sorority entertained informally at the Tea Pot Grille. Those present were Julia Reese, Gladys Thayer, Grace McNorrel, Doris Wallace, Winona and Marion Carpenter, and Frank Rushing. Bids were extended last week to Mary Fries, Rebecca Grace, Marcia McKneely, Elizabeth Miller, Jerry Nelson, "Pat" Cannady, Margie Dekle, Annie Mae Taylor, Evelyn Baggett, Julia Reese, Gladys Thayer, Sue Zetterower, Jurelle Shuptrine, Doris Wallace, Mrs. J. D. Fulford, Bobby Carroll, Eddie Najjar, Jim Wrinkle and Horace McDougald.

LAMBDA THETA CHI

The L. T. C. sorority entertained its pledges with a tea dance at the Tea Pot Grille Saturday. The pledges and their dates were Margie Dekle, Curtis Crook; Frances Harrison, B. H. Ramsey; Isabelle Trussell, Harry Crawley; Eula Beth Jones, Tom Carpenter; Abby Mann, Tiny Ramsey. The members and their dates were Anne Felton, Jack Hogarth; Reba Yarborough, Frank Hook; Dot Cromley; Sara Morris, Robert Brown; Lorraine Arnsdorff, Everett Loosier; Jewell Vandiver, Robert Moyer. Miss Trussell, the club sponsor, was hostess to the members and pledges on Wednesday, November 16th. At this time definite plans were made for the fall dance which is to be given on Wednesday, November 23.

VESPER CHOIR

The vesper choir had a picnic and wiener roast recently. The members attending were Edna Kent, Marguerite McCarthy, Sheldon Chapman, Inman Davies, C. W. Buchanan, Neal Hodges, Kitty Dubberly, Lela Mae Johnson, Gertrude Urquhart, Linnie Powell, Hazel Cleveland, Edison Wilcox, Louise Elkins, Ethel Nix, Janet Caldwell, Burdelle Harrison, Eva King, Sue Shivers, Margaret McDaniels, Martha Lane Simpson, Ophelia Duming, Bill Sartain, Sybil Shepherd, Geraldine York, Emma Jane Autry, Laura Hodges, Anne Slade, Isabelle Trussell, Alvin McLendon, Elliot Boswell, Madelyn Young, Ted Booker, Dorothy Caldwell and Mrs. Henderson.

DUX DOMINA

Discussions concerning the Dux Domina social for November 19 were brought up at the last meeting. Committees were appointed for this. Those taking part in the discussion included Alice Hill, Catherine Gainey, Marion Lanier, Mary Powell, Miriam Girardeau, Rose Lockhart, Doris Sands, Virginia Sands, Elizabeth Horne, and the pledges, Sara Godbee, Virginia Blitch, Beulah Rogers, Marjorie Cobb, Ida Lewis Cannady, Ann Powell, Marion Edwards, Margaret Remington and Elizabeth Latham. Refreshments were served.

ROSENWALD CLUB

At the third meeting of the Rosenwald Club to be held this year Evelyn Baggett reviewed "I was a Share Cropper," by Kroll and "A Southerner Discovers the South," by Daniels. After the report several members presented "Who's Who in Silhouette." During the business meeting plans were made for entertaining the Rosenwald Club members of last year who will be back for Thanksgiving. Miss Mirian Townsend served coffee and cake after the meeting. The second meeting of the year was held at the home of Miss Blanche Anderson. Mrs. Roy McAfee presented a most interesting and helpful program on parliamentary procedure.
