BACHELORS' SHOW
PLANS ARE MADE

Annual Variety Show to Be Given in Gymnasium
February 23.

Plans to make the Bachelors' Annual Variety Show the most successful ever produced here in the history of the school are well under way, according to Willard Clanton, president of the club.

The show will be modeled after the one which obtained such great heights in popularity last year. It will retain the old favorite, the black-face skit, as well as the new features introduced last year. Out-of-town artists will be secured to help put the show over. A toe-dancer from Savannah has already been contracted. The program will also contain a costume waltz by a group of boys and girls and solos by local artists, according to Clanton. There will be dancing during intermission between acts for those who buy tickets to the tables downstairs. These tickets will be 40 cents and the balcony will be 25 cents, if the present plan is followed.

President's Ball
To Be Held Tonight
In Alumni Building

The President's Ball will begin in the college gymnasium tonight at 8 o'clock and last until 11, according to David Proctor, president of the Student Council.

The dance will be part of a nationwide celebration in honor of President Franklin D. Roosevelt's birthday. The proceeds will go to the Warm Springs Foundation to help in the fight against infantile paralysis.

Plans have been made to make the dance one of the outstanding social events of the season. The music furnished by the Student Council will be much better in every detail than the average individual orchestra. The cost is not enough to set any individual pocketbook back, being only twenty-five cents per couple. The dance will be the culmination of the drive made on the T. C. campus for funds to send to Warm Springs. Previously a benefit game was arranged between Cochran and the Profs and buttons are still being sold in the "March of Dimes" campaign.

PAN-HELLENIC COUNCIL TO GIVE PARTY THURSDAY

Chinker-checks, bingo, bridge and checkers form a part of the varied program planned for a benefit party in the Gym Thursday night, given by the Pan-Hellenic Council. The party will begin immediately after supper and will last until eight. Refreshments will be served.

A small admission will be charged, the money received to be added to the council's fund for "a worthy cause." Tickets may be obtained in advance from Reba Yarbrough.

English Club Formed
By Mrs. John Guardia

A campus organization, the English Club, composed of those students majoring or minoring in English, has been granted a charter by the student council.

The first meeting of the group was instigated by Mrs. John Edward Guardia and was held at her home December 6th, of last quarter. All the English majors and minors who were present voted that the group should form a permanent club. Officers were chosen, and a committee was selected to draw up a charter and by-laws. Since the charter has been granted, the club is now an official organization and will meet regularly once a month.

Officers for this year are: James Sharpe, president; Miriam Girardeau, vice-president; Jouett Davenport, secretary; Wyatt Bonner, treasurer. Mrs. Guardia will be faculty sponsor for the same period.

WILLIAM LONSDALE TAYLER

DR. TAYLER TO SPEAK MONDAY

Address Will Take Place In College Auditorium
At 8 o'clock.

Dr. William Lansdale Tayler, sponsored by the International Relations Club of South Georgia Teachers College, will speak in the college auditorium Monday night, February 6th, at 8 o'clock. His subject is "Behind the Headlines."

Dr. Tayler is the executive secretary of the International Labor Organization Committee, assistant professor of social science at Queens College, New York, and lecturer in social legislation at Columbia University. After the address there will be an open forum in which everyone will take part.

Everyone is invited to attend the lecture. Dr. Tayler is a nationally known speaker and every student should grasp the opportunity to hear him. The International Relations Club is very fortunate in securing a speaker with the caliber of Dr. Tayler.

COLLEGE HEADS
ATTEND MEETING

President Marvin S. Pittman and Dean Z. S. Henderson will take part in a citizenship forum to be held at Armstrong Junior College, Savannah, February 2nd. Dean Henderson will speak on "Is There a Youth Problem in Georgia?" Dr. Pittman will introduce the dean of the school of education at the University of Georgia, who is to make a speech also.

Dean Henderson and Dr. Pittman attended the meeting held by the Association of Georgia Colleges held last week end at Macon. Dean Henderson took part in the program and spoke on "Better Relations Between High Schools and Colleges."

T. C. Clubs Are
To Be Organized
Over the State

T. C. clubs are to be organized all over the state by graduates of South Georgia Teachers College, according to Mrs. H. J. McCormack, president of the Alumni Association.

The clubs will be formed at every point where there are enough T. C. graduates to meet together and who are within reasonable distance. A map of Georgia is to be divided into club sections. Mrs. McCormack will pick a chairman from each section who will be responsible for the organization of the club. J. D. Cherry, at Waycross; Mrs. Clark, at Savannah, and Bill Stewart, at Nelson, will be requested to be group leaders in their sections.

The purpose of the clubs, according to Mrs. McCormack, is to bring new life and spirit into the alumni association, to arouse new interest in our school here, and to make greater contributions to South Georgia Teachers College. Every year the activities of the club will culminate in a greater home-coming day. These are the main purposes of the clubs, however, Mrs. McCormack stated that the clubs might be organized in any manner desired by the alumni of the different sections.

Other officers of the association are: Mrs. H. V. Clark, Savannah, and Roy Rabun, secretary and treasurer.

LIBRARY STAFF TO HAVE NEW MEMBER

Mrs. Wheatley, of University of Colorado, To Work With Us for Six Months.

The new library is to have a new member added to its staff. She is Mrs. Mildred S. Wheatley, from the University of Colorado, Boulder, Colo. Mrs. Wheatley is being loaned to the South Georgia Teachers College library for a period of six months. She is to be in charge of the catalogue department. Mrs. Wheatley has been very successful in her work at the University of Colorado and is expected to make many improvements in her department here. This addition to the staff has been made possible by additional funds contributed by the Rosenwald Foundation, which is very much interested in our library conditions here.

The new library is making great progress in satisfying student needs. The efficiency has been greatly increased by the division into departments. One of the most important departments is the projection room with its motion picture equipment. There is also a new curriculum laboratory under the direction of Miss Sally Smith.

"The Lord, before whom I walk, will send his angel with thee. . . ."—Gen. 24:1-40-67.

Every one should grasp the opportunity tonight to hear the noted speaker secured by the I. R. C.

We hope you'll be successful in your efforts to form T. C. clubs over the state, Mrs. H. J. McCormack.

Congratulations to Emory University! Would you like to share those three million dollars with us?

Our library grows more and more efficient with every new addition to its staff. Welcome to T. C., Mrs. Wheatley!

Again a Georgian is first. Gene Cox, thirteen-year-old daughter of Representative Eugene Cox, was the first girl to be a page in congress.

BUTTON, BUTTON!

Button, button, who has the button? Practically everybody has a button. About this time of year the button takes on a greater significance than ever before. It is worn with the pride one might ordinarily possess in wearing a gold medal. And is something to be proud of, for you are doing your part in helping someone else toward happiness; for it the button that helps cure infantile paralysis that we are wearing now. The money we buy buttons with and contribute in other ways will go to the Warm Springs Foundation and give some thankful person a better chance in the battle against infantile paralysis. Every penny we contribute will help some child nearer to his dream of walking as normal children do.

Tonight these buttons will enlarge into ballroom floors with the same worthy purpose in mind. The jitterbugs will dance all over the nation to a worthwhile tune. Perhaps the money will help others who are now using crutches to dance some day. Even if you can't dance, perhaps you will buy a ticket anyway. It's really great fun giving when you know it is going to do some great good, though it be only a small amount.

The eyes of the United States are on Georgia, not only for the healing waters at Warm Springs but also for the new progressive and liberal state government; a new kind of government that realizes the best good can be done by helping its people. When you give your money, think of the world's greatest humanitarian whose birthday it is and who instigated the "March of Dimes."

Diggings

A certain person wants to know who the blonde Holloway girl is who occupies all of McGowan's time.

Billy Good remarked in Georgia Problems class that the New England states had everything. Even though this is true, you still say "Grace," don't you, Billy?

Miss Edenfield must be expecting business to pick up since West Hall has a new telephone.

Does anyone know what it was Homer told Olive on the way to the postoffice after math class the other day?

It seems that three co-eds are too much for Alvin McLendon. He has to go to Milledgeville quite often—some think, for treatments.

We didn't know until recently that Mary Edith Andrews was such a good basketball player. She seems to be guarding Mr. Anderson right well—thanks to college algebra.

This is just to bring to the attention of all the old students that Chavous is back on the campus to rake in the freshman trade. Two dollars isn't bad for a palmist to palm in one night. I suppose there are still some unexposed methods of working one's way through college, and some never thought of.

"Little Bill" Chambliss has a terribly hard time keeping up with all the girls. We suggest, Bill, that you settle down somewhere—it creates fewer enemies.

It has been stirred around that B. H. is going to cut out some of his social life. He's unable to keep his mind on physics in the physics laboratory.

Several people have inquired lately whether Mary Mercer and Bob Stripling are attending college on the co-op plan. I suppose if we wait around until the spring quarter, we can find out. Mary won't talk.

Some one has said that Miss Smithson is "the cream of the crop!" Can you guess why? "Sonny," it must be great to be twenty in years, and in experience (?)

Bill Battle, will you tell us how you get girls to remark that they just can't stop looking at you long enough to eat? Don't get the big head, Bill.

Janette had her wisdom tooth pulled. This is just a "tip to the teens."

Ann should make a good wife, for by the time she finishes from this college she will have a major in home economics, a course in "The Family," and experience in how to win friends—which kind?

Kenneth Bandy wanted his name in the dirt column, and do you know what he did to get it here? He held hands with a certain brunette in front of the court house one Monday night not long ago. It has been rumored that she was brunette to the extent of being black all over.

Note to Froggie: Did you know that Abie is just dying to come back to you? He is afraid he won't get a cordial reception. Why not drop him a line?

Nomination for sweetest of new romances: Laura and Ed. . . .

Mildred Bowen and her newest have it so bad they can't even talk; they just sit and write notes.

Every lassie has her laddie! Who was that man we saw you with, Miss Veazy?

Practically every boy has a goldfish or two in his room. Practically every boy has more pictures in his room than he has girls on the campus. The Greeks had a word for it, they called it "double-crossing."

IN THE BULL PEN

With BULL BROWNE

Well it seems that the Teachers are off to a slow start in basketball similar to the one they had in football. We are betting that the Teachers will stage even a better come-back than they did in football this last season.

Those Celtics were really good as usual. Some of the Teachers seemed unable to cope with the situation at the local court Monday night when the Celtics really went into action. However, the Teachers pulled a fast one on the Celtics in Rentz when Davey Banks pulled his famous sleeper act. The Teachers' players bench was right under their goal and when Davey whistled for the ball to be thrown to him from the other end of the court, a Teachers' sub with warm-ups and all on, ran out on the court and stopped Banks from sinking a snow-bird.

The Savannah papers weren't far wrong when they wrote up this year's Middle Georgia College quint as being the best junior college team in five years. After seeing them in action against the Teachers, this column firmly believes that statement an underestimate of that ball club. Incidentally, Cochran was awarded the Southeastern Junior College Tourney, which gives the Middle Georgians a more than even chance to cop the said tourney. Cochran lost to Austin Peavy 53 to 51 last year in the finals of the tournament. With all that said, however, the Teachers should beat Cochran in their next engagement which will come at the last of the season.

Among the student body of our institution there is a trio of young men who are gaining wide repute because of their able officiating of basketball games in this territory. Faircloth, Vandiver and Hugh Hill have the situation as far as officiating is concerned, sown up in Brooklet, Statesboro and other points.

Work has been started on the cinder track down on the new athletic field this week. A quarter-mile track is being built by the members of the football squad, who are on scholarship and are now working since football season is over. All the boys are turning into good civil engineers because there is much measuring, etc., to be done. Buck Woodward claims it's good training for the WPA.

Last thought of the day: Hats off to the most improved basketball player this column has ever seen—and the firebrand of the Teachers' attack this year—Harris Rape.

"Are they very strict at your college?" "Strict? You remember Brown? Well he died in class, and they propped him up until the lecture was over."—Exchange.

PROFS DEFEATED BY NEWBERRY

Teachers Were Leading At the Half in Rough Game.

Newberry College successfully turned back the Teachers' invasion of the Palmetto State by handing them a 44-32 defeat Thursday night in Newberry, S. C. The Teachers were leading at the half 18 to 17, but fell before a second half Carolina attack. The game was exceptionally rough, which marred the playing of both sides. The Teachers were supposed to play College of Charleston on the trip, but that game was cancelled due to mid-term exams at the Carolina institution.

The box score.

Teachers Give Celtics An Interesting Game

The world's champion Rosenbloom Celtics of New York breezed into town for their annual appearance against the Teachers and came out of the game holding a 56 to 53 advantage. In the first half the Teachers played the Celtics on almost even terms, but in the second period the champions displayed their famous tricks and wizardry with the ball and completely baffled the Teachers before a capacity crowd in the Alumni building. Davy Banks, who was the high point man for the Celtics, started playing the pivot position for the Teachers in the waning moments of the game and succeeded in shooting a field goal for the collegians.

The Celtics defeated the Teachers again in Rentz the following night 58 to 53 before a capacity crowd in a hard-fought game in which the Collegians extended their superior foes.

"Gone With the Wind" Now Running Third

By "RED" BURGESS

"A Southerner Discovers the South," is the most popular book in our library today. It isn't in the library really; it stays checked out all of the time. The book, by Daniels, deals with the economic condition of the south, and well deserves its popularity.

Second most popular is Dr. A. J. Cronin's best seller, "The Citadel," now on the screen as a product of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Studios.

Margaret Mitchell's world famous "Gone With the Wind" is running a very close third. Books such as these do credit to reading as an extra curricular activity at S. G. T. C.

Frances McCrary's Team Takes Lead In Tournament

The first round robin color basketball tournament for girls ended here last week. The teams of Frances McCrary and Marjorie Bacon had the best records and were tied for first place with two won and only one lost. Teams captained by Tommy Gray and Froggie Breen were next in that order.

Standings:

Team	Won	Lost	Tied
McCrary	2	1
Bacon	2	1
Gray	1	1	1
Breen	1	2

Frances McCrary's team remained undefeated until the last day when Tommie Gray's team, which had been defeated by Marjorie Bacon and tied with Froggie Breen, came up for an upset win by a two-point margin.

The second tournament began Friday. The standings of these teams will be found again in the next issue of the George-Anne. Junior and senior girls are still being urged to come out and form a team. Co-operation and fine spirit is being shown by all the girls in the league.

ROSENWALD STUDENTS SEE WORK OF MISS WINN

The ten Rosenwald students who are now doing their practice teaching and supervision visited Miss Nell Winn, helping teacher for Clinch and Lanier counties, January 20th and 21st. Those doing cadet supervision went Friday with Miss Kate Houx and visited several schools to study the plan of supervision as it was being carried out by Miss Winn. The teaching group, with Mr. Donaldson, joined them on Saturday and all took part in the zone meeting. Miss Houx spoke to the whole assembly on "Creative Expression," and Mr. Donaldson spoke to the high school group on "Remedial Reading."

M. G. C. WINS BY BIG 56-37 SCORE

Was One of the Best College Teams Ever to Play Here.

A fast-breaking Middle Georgia College quintet defeated the Teachers by the virtue of a last half rally 56 to 37. At the half the Teachers led 29 to 28 and played superior ball to the junior collegians in the initial period. Rape was high point man for the Teachers with nine points while "Bear" Dickinson was the luminary for the Cochranites with 18 points. The Middle Georgia team was one of the best junior college teams to appear at the local court in several years.

"Mr. Ree" Explains Mystery of His Art

Being a magician is just another form of business, according to "Mr. Ree," well-known magician with the W. E. Frye Co. A person thinking that the tricks and feats which a sleight-of-hand artist performs are the only things necessary, is mistaken. A good magician must first be a good psychologist and an actor.

The art of magic requires more knowledge of science than any other profession. To present his tricks well, a magician must first understand each part. Invention of new illusions means a concentrated study on the part of the user to become familiar with the effect.

"Magic is divided into three parts," said "Mr. Ree," "First, there is the sleight-of-hand tricks which depend on the performers' ability and the public's susceptibility. Then, the mechanical part of the art takes in a great deal as does illusion, the third division."

According to "Mr. Ree," Harry Houdini was the greatest escape artist, while Dante, now in Europe, is the greatest magician at the present.

College Chorus Will Sing At Methodist Church Saturday

The College Chorus will present a concert for the entertainment of the "Church, School and Farm Association" to be held at the Methodist church in the city of Statesboro, February 4th, according to Ronald J. Neil, director of the chorus. The chorus will also sing at Ogeechee School on February 10th.

According to Mr. Neil, the chorus will hold a concert singing "The Seven Last Words of Christ," at a union service on Palm Sunday, April 2nd, in the college auditorium.

Students To See "Dawn Patrol" At Georgia Theatre

"Dawn Patrol," our nomination for "movie of the week," is showing at the Georgia Theatre today and tomorrow. Produced by Warner Brothers, it is the most thrilling air epic since "Wings." The picture is highly recognized by all the leading movie magazines. It is given four stars by "Motion Picture."

"Dawn Patrol" has everything that a good war picture should have. Every moment of the action which takes place on the British front in 1916 is thrilling. Errol Flynn, Basil Rathbone, David Niven, Donald Crisp and Melville Cooper, all officers in the Royal Air Corps, give perfect characterizations. Besides its other good points the picture carries a timely and forceful message. "Dawn Patrol" is only one of the fine pictures coming to the Georgia Theatre in the near future. Mr. Macon arranges his programs especially to suit the student body here. The George-Anne is glad to recommend "Dawn Patrol" as a very worthwhile picture to see.

.. CLUB NEWS ..

INDUSTRIAL ARTS CLUB

The Industrial Arts Club will have as its main social function of the quarter, a banquet which will be held at Cecil Kennedy's. Sponsors, members and their dates will be present.

EPICUREANS

The Epicureans held their regular meeting on Tuesday night with Froggie Breen, Frances Hughes and Meg Gunter acting as hostesses. Miss Hammack, Eppie sponsor, was present. Formal initiation of pledges will be held tomorrow evening.

DUX DOMINA

The formal initiation of the Dux Domina's will be held Thursday night, February 2nd. The following will be initiated into the club: Marion Edwards, Marjorie Cobb and Anne Powell. A steak fry at Mr. Hanner's cabin, Springlake, is being planned for Monday, February 6th.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The Home Economics Club held its regular meeting Wednesday night at 7 o'clock in the parlor of West Hall. A short program was presented by Reba Yarbrough, with Mary Powell, Kathleen Ferguson and Sarah Morris assisting her. Plans were made to send delegates to the G. E. A. to be held in Atlanta in March.

"X" CLUB

The "X" Club held a meeting Sunday, January 22nd, in the parlor of West Hall. The following accepted their bids and became members: Fay Hall, Mary Ellen Battle, Sue Shiners, Cleonelle Powell, Nell Pittman, Ira Lois Brown, Ruth Cone and Majorie Boatright. The club also made plans for a dinner party which took place Friday night at the Tea Pot Grille. After dinner the members and sponsors attended the movie, "Suez."

ROSENWALD CLUB

The Rosenwald Club held its regular meeting on Tuesday, January 24, in the lobby of Juliette Lowe. A very interesting and stimulating program was presented by a group of members who recently attended the Progressive Education Association meeting in Atlanta. The club membership divided into small groups for discussion of the learning process and the topics discussed at the conference in Atlanta. These groups were led by Byrd Ivester, Elizabeth Burns, Mary Webb and Thad Hollingsworth. A general discussion in the form of a forum was led by George Donaldson as a culmination of the group meetings.

MODERN DANCE CLUB

The dance club under the direction of Miss Sue Hammack, had its first organized meeting last Tuesday afternoon in the play room of the Laboratory School. Plans were made for the club to be more active in its functions this year and there was a discussion about attending the recitals given by some of the famous modern dancers. All the members of the club seem interested and earnest in the work, and a progressive, successful club is expected.

DELTA SIGMA

The first social event of the winter quarter was the annual winter dance of the Delta Sigma fraternity, which was given at the Statesboro Woman's Club last Saturday evening. A tea dance for members and dates was given Saturday afternoon from 3:30 to 5:30. The club room was beautifully decorated with the fraternity colors, blue and gold. Approximately forty couples were present. During intermission of the night dance members of the fraternity and their dates were entertained by two former sponsors, Misses Fay Foy and Menza Cumming, and the present sponsor, Miss Eloise Mincey, at the home of Miss Foy. Coffee and sandwiches were served by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. I. M. Foy.

Members and their dates present were as follows: Joe Joiner, Frances Deal; B. H. Ramsey, Catherine Gainey; Tiny Ramsey, Mary Powell; Charles Paine, Ann Breen; Albert Braswell, Betty Smith; James Blitch, Elizabeth Horn; Gerald Groover, Frances Breen; Robert Brown, Sara Morris; Pat Patterson, Marcia McKneely; Buddy Young, June Carpenter; D. R. Barber Jr., Tommy Gray; Johnnie Deal, Eloise Mincey; Tom Vandiver, Dorris Wallace; Charles Bunn, Priscilla Prather; James Thayer, Mary Mercer; Haygood Morrison, Reba Yarbrough; Frank Olliff, Frances Harrison; Frank Zetterower; Nona Thackston;
