MASQUERS TO PLAY "LOST HORIZON"

Cast Being Selected; Production Begun

"Lost Horizon," a dramatization of the novel by James Hilton, has been selected as the first production of the Masquers' play to be given this school year. According to the director, Miss Mamie Jo Jones, the play will be presented before the Thanksgiving holidays.

Those of us who remember former plays given by the Masquers, have been looking forward to the fall production since the first day we came back to T.C. The proven ability of the Masquers to give us entertainment of varied types, makes us remember the laughs we had in "You Can't Take It With You"; the tears we shed in "Our Town", and the eerie feeling that prevailed during the presentation of "Ladies in Retirement."

Our thoughts have been directed toward the Land of Shangri-La by President Roosevelt's reference to it as the place from which United States planes flew to bomb Tokyo. However the theme of the play stands in sharp contrast to the war. This, we understand, is one of the reasons it was chosen for production.

With men at a premium this year, it is interesting to note that they are to have the leads in the play. Although many of the prominent actors and actresses of former years will be missed, the new talent looks promising. Among the newcomers to the stage are: Red Prosser; Harold Waters, we call him "Hard Rock;" Parrish Blitch, and Tiny Ramsey. We understand that "Pop" Raulerson isn't running true to form and playing the comedian, but is going to be serious for a change.

The people behind the stage are as important as those behind the footlights in making the play a success. Wayne Culbreath's ability to design and build an attractive set to fit the

REFLECTOR EDITOR ANNOUNCES STAFF

Contract To Publisher To Be Let Soon

Abbie Mann, recently elected editor of the annual senior class publication, the Reflector, announced her complete staff today and at the same time stated that contract for publishing the yearbook would be let in the near future.

The editorial staff selected by the editor from the senior class includes Thomas Robinson, of Sardis, as associate editor; sports editor, Durward Brannon, Ashburn; club editor (girls), Mary Thomas Perry; club editor (boys), Hargaret "Pop" Raulerson, Lake Butler, Fla.; photographic editor, Carlton "Cigar" Stephens, Sycamore. The business staff working with Harold Waters as business manager, has for its advertising managers, Joe Feaster, Bath, S. C.; Dorothy Garner, Adel, and Robbie Lee Mallard, Metter.

Miss Mann said that all the members of the staff had pledged to work toward making this year's Reflector the best that has been edited at Georgia Teachers College regardless of the small enrollment and the reduction of the budget allowed for publishing the annual.

Individual and group pictures will be made during the early part of November, according to the editor, but at present no definite date has been set.

mood of a play has been demonstrated in both "You Can't Take It With You" and "Ladies in Retirement." Wayne has already started plans for the set and it will not be long before we hear the ring of the hammers and smell the glue. Dot Remington has already started looking for costumes, Mary Thomas Perry is again assisting wherever she is needed, and Jimmy Gunter is working out the lighting plot.

Be on the lookout for the announcement of the date, and price of your ticket to the Land of Shangri-La.

Over One-Third Of Men Grads In Service

Women Students and Faculty Answer Call to Colors

Out of the 331 men degree graduates of Georgia Teachers College, the office of the registrar has listed 113, over one-third of this number, as being in the armed services of their country. Fourteen former faculty members, including one woman, and five former women students are in various branches of the service.

RECENT ELECTIONS FILL VACANCIES

Waters Is Vice-President Of Student Council

In a campus election here last week, Harold Waters, a senior from Statesboro, was elected vice-president of the Student Council when he polled a majority of the votes cast in a run-off between Charles Brooks McAllister and himself.

Other officers elected at the same time were as follows: From the junior class, Palmer Edenfield was elected president; Kathryn Ellison, vice-president; James Harvey, secretary; Robert Waters, treasurer, and Uhlma Wynn Zittrouer was chosen as Student Council representative.

The sophomore class elected Dorothy Remington as president, Catherine Rowse as treasurer, and Richard Starr as Student Council representative.

In the last issue of the George-Anne it was announced by the Student Council that freshman class officers were to be elected on October 16th, but according to a ruling by the dean, who was acting according to a rule in the council constitution, the freshman elections will come after mid-term examinations. This rule had been adopted so that only students who were doing satisfactory work up until mid-term would be eligible to run for an office of the frosh class. This will make the freshman election come next week, the date to be set by the Student Council at its next meeting.

Only one vacancy remains to be filled on the council and that is a representative from the senior class to take the place of Waters, who was elected vice-president. This representative will be elected on the same date set by the Student Council for election of frosh officers.

BLITCH LEADS TEST RESULTS

Bulloch Students Rank High on Freshmen Tests

Four students led the field in the freshman placement tests given here this fall with Parrish Blitch, of Statesboro, placing first in one test and second in the other three.

The top score in the English and literary appreciation test was made by Miss Betty Rucker, a graduate of Brooklet High School, and the runner up was Parrish Blitch from Statesboro High School. In the general mathematics test, Miss Jewell Hendrix, a graduate of the Laboratory School, placed first, and Blitch was second. Bruce Carruth, also of the Laboratory High School, was first in general science, and Blitch was second. In the composite test, Blitch led the list; Carruth was second, and Miss Rucker was third.

Bachelor's Cabaret Thursday, Nov. 12

Fall Quarter Social Follows on Saturday

Thursday night, November 12, the Bachelors Club will deal from the bottom for the students and faculty at its annual cabaret to be held in the college gym from 8:00 until 10 o'clock. A night club theme with a floor show featuring "Zeke" Daughtry as "Emcer," will spotlight the occasion.

As a "get-acquainted" party the Bachelors cabaret will differ from last year in extending an invitation to every member of the student body and faculty and reducing the entrance fee to a maximum zero. Reason for this change in policy has been stated by President Harold Waters as, "the smaller number of students and the need for a closer social relationship on the campus."

Committees appointed for the cabaret are:

Floor show—Inman Davis, chairman; Zeke Daughtry, Harold Tillman, Carlton Stephens.

Decoration—Lewis Hinely, chairman; Lindsey Pennington.

Bar tenders—Joe Feaster, chief; Reginald "Rum" Rooks, Shorty "Bourbon" Brannen.

Lighting—Denver Lanier, chairman; "Pop" Raulerson, Jimmy Gunter. Publicity—Jimmy Jones, Harry Robertson.

Other attractive features are two big-mouthed, hard-headed, black-faced comedians with special musical and dance hits.

In true night club form, tables with a capacity of two couples will be available for customers. Members of the club will act as waiters, to serve the tables and cigarette girls will peddle their wares to the customers.

On the following Saturday night, November 14, the Bachelors are scheduled on the social calendar to have their fall quarter social. Due to the entire membership working on the cabaret, plans have not yet been completed for the social.

TIMES EDITOR TO ADDRESS I.R.C.

Pledges Taken Into The Club

Dave Turner, well known editor of the Bulloch Times, will address the International Relations Club at the regular meeting tonight.

Dot Garner, president of the club, stated that the public is invited. The meeting will be held at 8:30 in the Audio-Visual room of the library.

Five pledges were taken into the club at its last meeting. They are Sue Breen, Alma Cato, Adel Callo-way, Walter Johnston and Esther Lee Barnes.

At the same meeting Edwena Parrish presented a quiz program in the form of matching men's names with their present wartime jobs.

Social Calendar Is Released

October 31—Open.
November 7—Pan-Hellenic.
November 14—Bachelors.
November 21—Delta Sigma.
November 28—Thanksgiving.
December 5—Iota Pi Nu.
December 12—Pan-Hellenic.

Who's Who Lists Six GTC Students

Six students have been selected to represent Georgia Teachers College in the 1942-43 edition of "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities." Chosen from members of the senior class the representatives are Miss Abbie Mann, of Thomasville; Miss Edwena Parrish, of Portal; Harry Robertson, of Waycross; Inman Davis, of Swainsboro; Harold Waters, of Statesboro, and George Mulling, of Baxley.

The faculty committee making the selections were sent certain standards and qualifications for selections and among those qualifications were character, leadership, scholarship and potentiality for future usefulness to business and society.

Miss Mann is editor of the 1943 Reflector. She has served as a member of the George-Anne staff, the YWCA cabinet, Science Seminar, was a member of the 1942 May Court and is a member of the present Student Council. Miss Mann is also a member of the X Club.

Miss Parrish, who was honored for scholarship in 1941, was vice-president of the YWCA last year, a member of the IRC, Chorus, House Council and Student Council. She is a member of the X Club.

Robertson was editor of the George-Anne, last year. He was also a member of the YWCA Cabinet, the Masquers, and the Student Council. He is a Delta Sigma.

Davis is active in campus affairs, now serving as vice-president of the YMCA. He is a member of the Masquers, and has done much work in industrial arts.

Waters, who was recently selected vice-president of the Student Council, was earlier this fall made business manager of the 1943 Reflector. He is a member of Mu Sigma, the Chorus, YMCA Cabinet, Orchestra, Bachelors Club and has been active in music circles during his entire college career. Waters is a member of the Iota Pi Nu.

Mulling is president of the senior class, a member of the Student Council, Bachelors Club and a member of the Iota Pi Nu.

Mu Sigma Elects Officers; Extend Bids

Mu Sigma met Monday night, October 19th. The following officers were elected: President, Uhlma Wynn Zittrouer; vice-president, Prucella Cromartie; secretary and treasurer, Esther Lee Barnes.

Bids were sent to Sue Breen, Bruce Carruth, Bill Cheshire, Wayne Culbreath, Zeke Daughtry, Louise Glisson, Frances Groover, Bill Houston, Walter Johnston, George Lee, Marvin Prosser, Marjorie Parkerson, Dot Remington, Velma Rucker, Richard Starr, Lillian Waters, Pete Wolfe and Beth Stanfield.

The first meeting which the new pledges will attend will be Monday night, November 2nd, and plans for initiation will be completed.

On Borrowed Time

"As far as the completion of their educational careers is concerned men students in all American colleges are living on 'Borrowed Time'", is a statement made recently by Harvey D. Bundy, assistant secretary of war.

Since the congressional bill authorizing the drafting of 18 and 19-year-old boys was passed, freshmen, sophomores, and in some instances, boys still in high school will be affected.

No man now in college has any guarantee that he will be allowed to complete the work required for a degree.

This is no time for loafers to remain on college campuses. There are certain students, taking special courses whom the government believes will be of more value to the nation if allowed to remain in school and complete their training. These students should realize that they are being given a special chance and should conduct themselves accordingly. They should work diligently in their field, making every effort possible to justify the faith that has been placed in them.

The student who is in college for the purpose of having a good time, or for building up his college prestige, is the one who should be, and probably called first.

Men, let's realize that we are all on "borrowed time," and make the most of the time we have left.

Just One Way

By HARRY ROBERTSON

Winter Moves In

The cold snap came upon us last Tuesday without any warning and found parts of the campus unprepared for the cruel wintry blasts. East Hall had a furnace that was out of commission and the girls nearly had a freezing time of it. It reminds us of the time last year when the boiler at Sanford Hall gave a final gasp and left the inmates with harraged faces, bleary eyes and bearded faces.

Service List

The response to names of men and women in the armed service formerly of this campus was gratifying. Thanks a lot and you'll be seeing the results of your efforts soon in a list to be added to from time to time. Rumor has it that the Bachelors are planning a service flag to be presented to the school. This list should be placed as prominently as the flag. . . . Speaking of the women, two of our graduates, Betty McLemore and Olive Reppard, are representing the WAVES and WAACS. In addition around fourteen former faculty members are in these two important branches of the service.

To The Rear

Last year about this time . . . the Masquers were preparing to present "You Can't Take It With You." This year that group is working afternoon and night on "Lost Horizon," and from casting rehearsals so far the promise is that this play will be one you can't miss . . . Sadie Hawkins Day was to be celebrated on November *. The Student Council announces similar plans this year . . . Mervin Shivers, John Dunn, Eula Beth Jones and Pilcher Kemp were selected to appear in the 1941-42 edition of "Who's Who Among American Universities and Colleges" . . . Wade Hampton was the rage of all the campus in his red sweater and gaily striped trousers!

Disc Whirligig

Among the top numbers out on the platters and being aired by leading ochestras and otherwise are: Serenade in Blue, White Christmas, When The Lights Go On Again, I Came Here To Talk For Joe, Hello, Mom, I'm Getting Tired So I Can Go to Sleep, and I Got a Gal in Kalamazoo. . . If sufficient interest is shown "Disc Whirligig" will become a definite fixture of this column. We can't keep up with all the numbers that you like and the bands that play them best, so there will be a need for help to make it click.

On Other Campuses

Fraternity and sorority pledging has been of most interest to students at colleges during the past week. Emory has pledged 233 new men with Phi Delta Theta, leading fraternity row . . . Georgia Tech's twenty fraternities pledged 255, with the S.A.E.'s leading with 35 pledges. Georgia Greek fraternities, according to Red and Black, have taken 169 new pledges into the fold . . . G.S.C.W. has gotten behind the Milledgeville scrap drive 100 per cent and has relinquished the majority of its frat campus to beat the Axis.

The Freshman's Reply

By HAROLD MOORE

What can I tell of my college life? you say;
What have I learned up until today? Who have I met, what have I done? Golly Moses, this life has only begun!

The grits are fragrant, the steaks are tough,
And all this initiation is plenty rough;
The lessons are hard, the assignments long;
Everything I do seems to be wrong.

I meet a gal, we have a date—
The next thing I know, 'tis a rat court debate.
We catch it if we do it; we regret it if we don't—
How can a freshman tell what you other guys want?

Your cordial invitations are well understood—
We'd miss them all if we only could!
The Little Store is a daily visiting place
Of all us freshmen, a lowly race.

We have learned to respect your high position;
(I'll be glad when we can get in a similar condition.)
Your rooms are dirty, your beds a mess;
You leave all your clothes right where you undress.

We work from the crack of dawn till the setting sun,
And then our job is only begun—
Your shoes need polishing, you must have a date,
And the last thing you think of, Sir, is wait.

Sweet Sixteen

This year the George-Anne celebrates its sixteenth anniversary of publication.

Few of us had the heavy load on our shoulders at the age of sixteen that the George-Anne has today. The college publication has as its major responsibility the boosting of school spirit in this institution. With inter-collegiate sports gone for the duration, the paper remains the only extra-curricula feature that all the students can still call their own.

The George-Anne staff realizes the heavy responsibility placed upon any college paper at a time like this, and is doing its best to meet all demands.

We are encouraging students to invest in war bonds and stamps, and are seeking to keep students informed about alumni who are now in the service, but above all we wish to aid in building morale.

Students, this is your newspaper. We want to do everything possible to keep you interested in your Alma Mater, so if there is anything which you would like to see in the George-Anne, or anything taken out, your suggestions and criticisms will be appreciated.

We hope we've come a long way from the first mimeographed issue which was edited in the fall of 1927, but at any rate, with war, a decided drop in enrollment and various other factors that will attract our editorial comment, we realize our responsibilities, have been increased a hundredfold.

It is our sincere desire to give an unbiased editorial opinion and a true presentation of campus news to you.

With your continued interest and help, we want to make this "sweet sixteenth" birthday the outstanding year in purpose and achievement of the George-Anne's life.

Through The Keyhole

It sounds like wedding bells for Wayne and Dot. Has the date been set yet?

There's absolutely no truth to the rumor that Dot G. has a secret love for "Pop." Just good friends, that's all.

Freshman Jane Bateman is beginning to get around these days. We knew she would one of these days, but take a tip, Jane, and be a little choosy about it.

Zeke Daughtry is willing to do his bit toward the war effort by entertaining Martha Wilma while her soldier is away.

Helen Thigpen is doing a fine job of instructing Freshman Thomas Harrell in the intricacies of college love. We hear that he is an apt pupil.

What's this about the cutest freshman girl on the campus singing, "You're the Only Starr," etc. You ain't doing bad, Richard and Wynelle.

Nancy Wardlaw really keeps all the boys guessing. Wonder who does have the inside track there. Don't feel self-conscious, Jack.

Pete P., you have our best wishes where Sue Breen is concerned. You could be doing much worse.

Lindsey Pennington is all smiles these days. A certain sweet Bunn wouldn't have anything to with it, would you Margaret?

The boys of Sanford say they surely are glad Joe and Hattie got their differences settled. There were lots of complaints about Jo walking the floor all night.

Why mention Frances and Harold? There's no dirt there. They're really in love, I think.

Who's been telling things to Mrs. Moats? Instead of blinking the lights to come in, she now yells, "Time's up, girls."

Don't feel blue, Ramsey. Maybe the next one won't use you for sucker bait until she's ready for the altar. How about that bet you made concerning "Cass" Waters and Red Pro-

Our conveniences are meager, our income small,
Even though we have contracts to play baseball
On the campus immediately following our noon day meal—
But we've learned better than to try to squeal!

Your belts do hurt! your books weigh much,
But we have to add that finishing touch
Of a neat little apology, an humble "yes, sir."
And tell my girl how much you love her.

We take it here, we take it rough,
And now we're showing how to strut our stuff;
We square the corners, we lead the way
Except at mealtime, where it is the upperclassman's day.

I'm working long on my last month's pay
So that if possible to make it stay
For all the freshman dates, but we simply can't wait
For you to select our blushing mate.

I've squirmed around, I've covered ground,
And now I'm wondering if my status is sound—
For our credits are not—our brain's little more—
For my next assignment, sir, I'm at the store.

ser? Watch out Abbie, or you're liable to be a victim of circumstances.

What handsome couple was seen on the campus so frequently together on off-week end? Watch out, Wall, Sarah Alice will sweep you off your feet.

"Cassanova" Rock Waters has a new theme song. It's "Give Me My Boots and Saddle", especially "Boots."

Deacon Hinely is back in form. We hear the Bugger Daggers have nice picnics. So Deke, you had better keep your eyes on "Rev".

Prof. Hinely had a duo of girls last week end. Lately he's been sparking a young typing teacher. But who should turn up for the picnic. Prudy.

Speaking of the carnival, Billie Hayes seemed to have enjoyed it quite a lot. The fact that he had a date might have been the reason.

Wonder why Vince Thigpen finds town girls more attractive than campus girls? Wouldn't be more freedom would it, Vince?

Our nomination for the cutest couple seen together since our last issue goes to Dight Olliff and Leila Wyatt. Dight even had his hair combed that night.

Who said "Red" Prosser was invincible? He has been seen holding hands with "Reflector" Mann. Now, "Red," is that nice?

Here's hoping Maisie Reynolds was nice to Henry Speirs on the B. D. social, 'cause Henry's an O.K. kid.

Blalock, we've been "herrin" things about you!

Bugger Dagger picnics still run true to form. Too much dirt to print.

BUGGER DAGGERS HAVE PICNIC

To Initiate Ten Pledges Wednesday Night

The Bugger Dagger Club had its first fall quarter picnic Saturday afternoon at Booth's pond with sixteen members and dates attending. Mr. Moye, faculty sponsor of the club, acted as chaperone of the group.

Lindsey Pennington, chairman of the food committee, furnished everyone with plenty of supper.

Final initiation of the pledges will be held Wednesday night instead of the regular meeting. On that night the ceremonies will take place in the gymnasium. A delightful time is promised the following pledges: Hubert Wells, Carlton Stephens, Inman Davis, Dorsey Blalock, Henry Speirs, Roy Bedingfield and Harold Tillman.

Dux Domina Has Reunion

The Dux started the year off in style with a dinner at the Jaekel Hotel to celebrate the reunion of the Dux and some of their older sisters. Those joining in the fun were Mary Thomas Perry, "Drake" Beasley, Catherine Rowse, Bill Scott, Leila Wyatt, Tiny Ramsey, Helen Rowse, Red Prosser, Mr. and Mrs. Elloway Forbes Jr., Ensign and Mrs. Emerson Anderson, Clifford Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Cohen Anderson. Mrs. C. Anderson is a charter member of the club. It was swell to be with some of our older sisters.

Another event was last week when the Dux were entertained at a chicken supper given by Leila Wyatt.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hanner were selected as Dux Domina sponsors for the coming year.

Y.W.C.A. News

Abbie Mann was speaker at the Y.W.C.A. meeting Wednesday night in Lewis Hall. Her subject was "Character." Louise Glisson gave a piano solo, and Wynelle Nesmith sang.

The Y.W.C.A. girls voted to have a fellowship supper Thursday night. They will have supper down by the lake at 6 o'clock. Games will be planned by the recreation chairman. Their tickets from some member of the All girls who wish to attend can buy Y.W.C.A. cabinet in her respective dormitory. Any further announcement will be given by Dorothy Garner, chairman of the committee to plan the picnic.

Home-Coming Not To Be Held This Year

Because of the discontinuing of football and the lack of transportation facilities, home-coming will not be held this fall, according to a statement made by Dean Henderson last week.

There is a possibility, however, that some kind of home-coming program will be held later on in the year.

Thanksgiving Holiday Begins November 25th

The Thanksgiving holidays will begin at noon Wednesday, November 25th, and will continue through the week end. Dean Henderson wishes to bring special attention to the fact that cut rules will be in effect the 25th and Monday, Nov. 30th.

A fee of $1.00 will be charged for each class missed on these dates.

If you're an average co-ed, you spend 1,176 hours or 49 days before a mirror during your four college year.

Intra-Mural Basketball Begins Today

Six Teams Entered In Campus League

After several week of discussion action has finally been taken and the intra-mural basketball program is ready to get underway. The first games will be held this afternoon at the gym. Six teams have been chosen, and it is hoped that everyone will get interested in these games.

The following teams have been selected:

1. Zeke Daughtry (captain), George Mulling, Lewis Hinely, Bill Brown, Robert Groover, Vince Thigpen, Dight Olliff, Dekle Banks, John Mays, Henry Speirs and Robert Waters.
2. Hubert Wells (captain), Joe Feaster, John Wall, Lindsey Pennington, Billy Cheshire, C. E. DeLoach, Jimmy Jones, Harold English, Kenneth Cowart, Billy Hayes, Walter Johnston.
3. Wayne Culbreath (captain), W. H. Hinely, Coral Beasley, Richard Starr, Jack Rutherford, Herman Hartley, Pete Wolfe, "Fats" Bryan, Harry Robertson, Parrish Blitch and Frank Morrison.
4. "Red" Prosser (captain), Durward Branson, Roy Bedingfield, Bill Houston, Bill Scott, Bruce Carruth, Jack Ballinger, Paul Bunce, Jesse Hamby, Harold Tillman and James Harvey.
5. Pete Parrish (captain), Harold Pearman, Sam Stephens, Ray Lanier, Thomas Harrell, Carlton Stephens, C. B. McAlister, Buddy Rooks, Harold Moore, Morgan Lee and Thomas Maye.
6. Tiny Ramsey (captain), "Pop" Raulerson, James Roberts, John Darley, Jack Wynn, Inman Davis, Francis Allen, Palmer Edenfield, Denver Lanier, Bennie Earl Deal and Billy Byers.

These boys are asked to get in touch with their captains and be ready to play this afternoon.

We are hoping for one hundred per cent participation in this program, so get a little school spirit and turn out for these games. Come on out and let's make this the best year for intramurals that T.C. has ever experienced.

"How about a Coke date"

"We've been 'goin' steady' a long time, you and I. You see, I'm a symbol of the life and sparkle of Coca-Cola. Therefore, I speak for Coke. I like your company. I offer something more than a thirst-quenching drink. It's refreshing. Yes sree...it's got that extra something you can't get this side of Coca-Cola itself. Let's get together. Make it a Coke date."

ACP's Jay Richter Reports from Washington

By JAY RICHTER

TURGID WATERS

Washington (ACP)—As this is written, the Potomac is overrunning its banks; from the top of the Washington monument one can see the turgid waters filling low areas throughout the District of Columbia. Six days and nights of steady rainfall have left Washington war workers, congressmen, officials and "parasites" limp and damp and crotchety.

The wettest week in Washington history is also a week of the greatest historical significance to American colleges. Strong currents are also running through congress and administrative offices. The bill to draft 18 and 19-year-olds is about to be passed; the senators are wrestling with it right now.

That bill may determine whether you continue your education and, if you do, what shape it may take during the remainder of your years, or months, in school.

By the time you read this perhaps you may be able to prompt us on some of the points, but here's the way the picture looks now:

Most teen-aged college students won't be called into military service until the end of this school year. This is particularly true of competent students, especially those taking scientific and technical courses.

After this year, when inroads on college teen-agers are likely to be relatively heavy, the question of whom shall remain in school will be a stickler. The draft bill itself isn't likely to lay down strict stipulations on this matter—it will be left to administrative decision.

Broadly, administrative officials will base their decision on two major considerations: the course a student is taking and his scholastic record.

England's policies are a key to what may happen to students here. Although there has been about a 25 per cent drop in overall enrollment in Britain, scientific and technical departments of the colleges are cramfull of students. Obviously, the drop has occurred in liberal arts courses.

And obviously, these same courses will suffer in America. Officials in the Office of Education here believe that American arts colleges haven't done all they should to cope with the inevitable situation.

These officials feel that some educators are slow to recognize the inevitability of the drop-off in enrollment and, consequently, are slow to prepare for it.

First, says the officials, these educators should expand their curricula, and quickly, to include additional courses in science, courses in physical education and the like. In short, courses that tie in more closely with prosecution of the war.

Conversion, in many cases, hasn't been thorough and it hasn't been prompt.

Second, arts educators should devise a plan right away for keeping their best students—scholastically speaking—in school. The need in this war for trained, educated men and women is as great as the need for front line fighters. It is highly important that the "right" students remain to study. Recommendations of the art colleges will probably determine which are the "right" students, even though final decision will, theoretically, be up to the government.

Delta Sigma Frat Plans House Party

Groups To Have Dance November 21; Dr. Moon Becomes Sponsor

Members and pledges of Delta Sigma fraternity enjoyed an outing at Groover's mill pond last Saturday evening as the first active function of the frat this year. The group was chaperoned by Miss Guill who acted as sponsor for the occasion.

Dr. Leland W. Moon, director of the Laboratory School, was introduced as the active faculty sponsor for this year at Wednesday's meeting. He informally met each pledge and immediately took an active part in the proceedings.

A picnic and informal dance will be given by the Delta Sigs on Saturday, November 21. This will be the regular social function of the fraternity this fall as represented on the social calendar of the Student Council.

New pledges who have been taken in during this quarter are Bill Scott, Thomas Harrell, Ray Lanier, Walter Julius Parrish, Robert Groover, Bill Byers and Frederick Beasley.

Plans for the annual house party usually held in March, are being formulated for Thanksgiving holidays. The members, pledges and their dates will probably spend four days at Contentment Bluff before returning to the college. Due to war conditions, expenses of the trip are being planned at a minimum. Several of the brothers are expected to go into active

Iota Pi News

Since the last edition of the paper many things have been "popping" in our fraternity.

Thirteen boys pledged in the ole Pi Nu way were Zeke Daughtry, Harold English, John Ford Mays, "Buddy" Barnes, Vince Thigpen, Dekle Banks, Bill Cheshire, Kenneth Cowart, Jack Rutherford, James Jones, Parrish Blitch, John Darley and Roy Benenfield.

Two socials were enjoyed by the club. Dot Remington, our student sponsor, had all the boys up to her house for supper. Naturally a good time was had by all. The boys also enjoyed a picnic at Booth's pond. The boys and their dates were "Slugger" Culbreath and "Bludie" Remington, "Congo" Mullings and "Peek-o-book" Barnes, "Pop" Raulerson and "Eugene" Garner, "Push It" Feaster and "Ducky" Swann, "Trader" Wynn and "Little Doc" Wardlow, (John Wall would have been there but someone has his girl), "Rock" Waters and "Reflector" Mann, "Were" Wolfe and "Breezy" Zittrouer, Ezekiel Hunter Daughtry and "Air Corps" Simmons, "Long John" Darley and "Junior" Barnes, "Ha-Ha" English and "B. J." Roker, "Mad Cat" Mays and "Stuff" Smallwood, "Invincible" Thigpen and Orita Duckworth, "Bettle" Banks and "Rev." Edwards, "Screwball" Cowart and "Fran" Anderson, Jacob Jackson Rutherford Jr. and "Tag" Elison, "Burhead" Cheshire and "Blanket" Bateman, "Editor" Jones and "Just Sophie", "Genius" Blitch and "Susie Peal" Breen.

We picked a good date for one social of the quarter and ole Pi Nu eyes are focused upon it.

Guess that's about all for now, "My Dears."

service before March, is the primary reason for moving up the time for having the house party.

All of the old members of D.S., with the exception of thirteen, are now serving in the armed forces of the country. Seven of last year's members have enlisted since June.

The chapter roll of the fraternity carries the names of two brothers who have given their lives since December 7, 1941. It was a great shock to the present members to hear that they had made the supreme sacrifice for their county. The club is proud to know that its brothers are helping defend the freedom of the United Nations.

LAB SCHOOL HAS HALLOWE'EN PARTY

Carnival King and Queen are Crowned

WYNDELL CROUSE

The Laboratory School Hallowe'en carnival was held Friday, October 30th, at the college gymnasium. Admission was free and college students were invited. Mary Ruth Dixon, of the 10th grade, was crowned queen, and Thomas Newsome, also of the 10th grade, was crowned king of the carnival. Miss Jewell Scales, high school English teacher, was in charge of the program.

A real carnival spirit prevailed with bingo, fish pond, fortune telling and other concessions usually found on the midway. A spirited contest for queen of the carnival had been under way for the past week with a contestant chosen from each grade in high school. The queen's court was comprised of three attendants from each room with their escorts. An interesting and entertaining floor show in honor of the queen with specialty dances and tumbling acts was outstanding.

After the crowning of the queen, the queen with the king led out in a dance and then the floor was open for dancing to all present. Everyone agreed that this was the best carnival ever given by the Laboratory School.

Practice teachers from the college aided with programs and decorations. A turkey was given away and several cakes were raffled. Practice teachers participating were Waye Culbreath, Buddy Rooks, Harold Pearmon, Durward Brannon, Edwena Parrish and Joe Feaster.

Students and Faculty Join In Farewell

Elmo Barnes, head dining room chef for the past five years, was presented farewell gifts by both students and faculty last week as he prepared to report to camp for basic training in the army.

Dean Henderson presented a bill-fold as a gift from the faculty, and the student body gave him a leather traveling bag.

Elmo is scheduled to leave Friday for Swainsboro, where he was registered with the local board there.

Book Week To Be Featured Here

The Teachers College library in collaboration with the Laboratory School will participate in the nationwide observance of Book Week, November 15-21.

This annual opportunity to arouse public interest in books and reading has long had the active support of our librarians, teachers, social agencies and civic groups. Although Book Week is dedicated primarily to boys and girls, parents and others interested in young people or books will enjoy the special exhibits on display in libraries, schools and bookstores.

The poster shown for Book Week above was designed for this twenty-fourth nation-wide annual observance of Book Week.

This year more important than in the past the contribution of books to living in a world at war is emphasized. As President Roosevelt has said, "it is part of our dedication always to make them weapons of men's freedom."

Training as volunteer nurses' aides is open to University of Michigan women students in a new course.
