11-4-2014

BFS News Online

Georgia Southern University

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/art-news-online

Part of the Arts and Humanities Commons

Recommended Citation

https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/art-news-online/195

This article is brought to you for free and open access by the Art Department News Publications at Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. It has been accepted for inclusion in Art Department News Blog by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@georgiasouthern.edu.
The Averitt Center for the Arts Legends Gallery and the Betty Foy Sanders Department of Art are pleased to announce In the Spirit of Dada and Surrealism with an opening reception November 7, 2014 from 5 – 7 p.m.

In the Spirit of Dada and Surrealism is a group exhibition of students currently enrolled in Dr. Julie McGuire's Dada and Surrealism art history course at Georgia Southern University. Born in a Europe shattered by World War I, Dada and Surrealist artists sought to escape the traditional and rational in art and thought. And, just as their predecessors did, the student works on display in In the Spirit of Dada and Surrealism are similarly designed to amuse, annoy, bewilder, mystify, and inspire reflection.

Students were challenged to create as closely as possible a work of art by a Dada or Surrealist artist in order to fully understand the artwork and to inspire their own future creative endeavors. By connecting the great ideas of others (through initially copying), some of the greatest leaps of originality have occurred in the history of art.

For the first time, this biennial exhibition will be showcased off-campus at the Averitt Center for the Arts for the community to enjoy. In the Spirit of Dada and Surrealism will be on display in the Legends Gallery until Friday, November 28.

#SoundsLikeDada    #BFSDoArt

The Averitt Center for the Arts is located at 33 East Main Street, Statesboro, Georgia and is open Mondays through Fridays from 10 a.m. – 7 p.m. and Saturdays from 10 a.m. – 4 p.m.