DEPARTMENT OF ART

DocAuto seeks graphic designer

The Atlanta-based software company DocAuto has an urgent need for a graphic designer. The ideal candidate would be proficient in HTML and Wordpress (as they currently are building a website) but this is not a requirement. The candidate should be proficient in CSS, Adobe Suite, Photoshop, print production, etc. The designer's primary responsibilities will include designing flyers and brochures, editing photos, creating logos, designing conference booth artwork, designing banners, and other various tasks as assigned. And the candidate must be local and able to commute to the office.

DocAuto offers competitive pay with a full benefits package available immediately upon start date. They also offer extra perks such as 15 days PTO per calendar year, working from home opportunities, flex time policies, excused absences for doctor's appointments, relaxed dress policy, and more.

Please send your resumes and/or online portfolios directly to Mary Hill Amason at mhamason@docauto.com.

Teal House logo design opportunity

The Statesboro Regional Sexual Assault Center is looking for a volunteer to design a new logo for the Teal House. The SRSAC provides emotional support and advocacy for individuals who have been sexually assaulted. It is a 501 (c)3 non-profit organization, designated by the Ogeechee Judicial Circuit and law enforcement agencies to serve Bulloch, Jenkins, and Screven Counties. The agency is part of the Statesboro area's Sexual Assault Response Team which includes law enforcement, the prosecutor, the advocate, and the Forensic Nurse Examiners. Education, Awareness, and Prevention services are also provided.

Those interested should contact Megan Onofry via email at meganonofry@gmail.com.
