Tattnall County is located about 40 miles from Georgia Southern.

Call for proposals - SHIMMER: The Art of Light

*Deadline for Proposals: November 21, 5 p.m.
No Application Fee.*

National and international artists working across all media and disciplines are invited to submit project proposals for the second annual SHIMMER: The Art of Light, a one-night, free, public event of light-based art and performance spanning Chapel Hill and Carrboro, North Carolina, in conjunction with 2nd Friday ArtWalk.

The event will feature approximately 25 illuminated art installations and sculpture, light projections and performances, and illuminated programmatic components in both indoor and outdoor spaces. Projects will be situated throughout a 4-square-block downtown area where the towns of Chapel Hill and Carrboro meet, transforming the area into a de facto art gallery after the sun goes down.
