Georgia Southern University to host Civil Rights author Nov. 8

NOVEMBER 5, 2007

Civil Rights reporter and author Alvin Benn will speak at Georgia Southern University Thursday, Nov. 8, at 6 p.m. in Russell Union Room 2080. He will be speaking about his book 'Reporter: Covering Civil Rights And Wrongs in Dixie.'

According to Bob Ingram, dean of Alabama's political reporters and television commentators, Benn, originally from Lancaster, Pa., became 'one of the most respected journalists to cover the Civil Rights movement' and 'he brings a new and important perspective to those difficult years.'

Benn is currently a freelance writer for the Montgomery Adviser newspaper in Montgomery, Ala. He has been a reporter for more than 40 years.

Benn's presentation is sponsored by the Office of Student Media at Georgia Southern University.
