Georgia Southern to host actress Jodie Sweetin to speak on substance abuse recovery on March 11

Georgia Southern University's School of Nursing will host entrepreneur, actress, producer and author Jodie Sweetin to share her inspirational and sobering message of resilience and triumph over substance abuse on March 11. Sweetin's presentation, "The Road to Recovery," is free and open to the public and will take place on the University's Armstrong Campus in the Fine Arts Building Auditorium at 7 p.m.

Sweetin is known for her role as Stephanie Tanner on ABC's long-running sitcom "Full House," which still airs in syndication. She recently returned to her role as "Stephanie" in the successful Netflix reboot "Fuller House," which has won numerous awards.
