ALYCE SANTORO: TONAL RELATIVITY

Having set out early on to make subtle wonders of science and nature visible and/or audible, Alyce Santoro has come to explore the cultural phenomena that cause disciplines to be viewed as separate, and the ways that “social imaginaries” are formed and can shift.

Santoro’s Tonal Relativity series uses a visual symbolic language to reveal patterns and interrelationships within a 12-tone musical system, and features work with both sonic and visual components, including audible textile woven from audiocassette tape recorded with samples of sound and music. The Sonic Fabric emits sound when a magnetic tape head is drawn along its surface.
