Discussion:

I would like to promote discussion of offering tuition/housing/meal plan assistance to the children of GSU faculty members. I included "housing" and "meal plan" assistance because many students receive HOPE benefits, and yet, especially during the freshman year, housing and the required meal plan fees leave a good bit of money still owed. This could be a huge incentive for potential employees.

Rationale:

This is a concern for all faculty at GSU because every department desires to hire exceptional new members. This could be a strong incentive for those considering employment at GSU. Many universities throughout the United States offer this.
