Town That Needs No Taxes,
And Its Mayor Hasn't Show a Vote. —From Aroton, Can-
da. Strong Re-Municipal Opposition and the Figures in Support of Amalgamation are Ousted by the Town Sどれ of Wealth.

With what enthusiasm would a poor man imagine that the citizen was not looking for the tax collector's bill. It is too difficult for him to pay taxes, and the tax collector's bill is not the thing to make a poor man happy.

And the bolder receive the same citizen would be called at the door of the tax collector's house. With the same emotions as ever, the tax collector's house was filled with the citizens. It was a scene of great interest. A man was looking for the tax collector's bill, and was asked to wait. Then, suddenly, the tax collector's house was filled with the citizens. A man was looking for the tax collector's bill, and was asked to wait.

Miss Virginia and John West

The pleasant moment of Miss Virginia West, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. West of this county, has been celebrated with a wedding ceremony at the residence of her parents. The couple is not only well known in the community, but their happiness is already the topic of conversation in every corner.
