A need for public transportation sparks the possibility of a bus system

A bus system is in the works after Statesboro city officials agreed to allow City Manager Charles Penny begin the grant application process.

Stacey Abrams urges Georgia Southern students to register to vote

"Change will come to all of us when we have the opportunity to demand that change. I believe that if we fight for fair and free elections, we're not always going to win and get the people that we want, at least we can trust the process."

Georgia Southern hosts former congressman Lynn Westmoreland

"When you register, to vote you register to become a good citizen. The worst thing we can have in our society is an uneducated voter."

PREVIEW: Strong Georgia Southern defense to take on a strong Cajun offense

"[Their coach] knows a lot of pretty good offensive schemes. They like to run the ball a lot, and we like to stop the run as well."

Volleyball's Maddie Bryant: 'I didn't even think I was that good'

"That was really surprising for me because I had just started playing. I didn't think I was that good."
Maddie Bryant didn't start playing until eighth grade and plays a critical role for Georgia Southern.

Bass named William V. Campbell Trophy semifinalist

Georgia Southern redshirt-senior kicker Tyler Bass has been named a semifinalist for the William V. Campbell Trophy, announced Wednesday.

Men's soccer adds a win over UAB

"To go anywhere and get a strong result off of a solid performance is always satisfying."

The Georgia Southern men's soccer team defeated UAB 3-1 in Tuesday night's game in Birmingham, Alabama.
