October Minimester

7 WEEK CLASSES!

A fast track to graduation!

GeorgiaSouthern.edu/minimester

GEORGIA SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY

Check out the fall “minimester” starting Oct. 14. This is a fast-track path toward graduation by earning three credit hours in seven weeks. More than 50 courses have been scheduled so far. Available classes range from required core classes for first-year students to upper-division sections for graduate students. Many are online, but there are also options in Savannah, Hinesville and Statesboro.

The classes are a full semester, provided in seven weeks. It’s intensive and rigorous, but the semester is over before the winter holidays, and you are on a fast-track toward graduation.

National Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week will take place Nov. 18

The Dean of Students Office is gearing up for National Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week, which is Nov. 18 through 24, by requesting canned food donations. The donations are being used to help students who may not be able to afford food, hygiene products, menstrual products or clothing. Faculty and staff members are encouraged to compose thoughtful letters to Captain's Cupboard recipients as the holidays can be a difficult time.

Items may be dropped off weekdays, year-round at the Dean of Students Office or at the Captain's Cupboard Table in the Student Union on Nov. 18. If you have any questions about donations, please contact Christina Cook at ccook17@georgiasouthern.edu.
