COE students, faculty and staff are invited to join the dean for coffee

February 10, 2020

Would you like a fresh morning cup of coffee or an afternoon cup of joe to get you through the remainder of the day?

College of Education Interim Dean Amy Heaston, Ed.D. is inviting all members of the college—students, faculty and staff, to stop by and have free coffee starting in February on both the Armstrong and Statesboro Campuses.

“The idea is that any member of the College can stop in during this one-hour timeframe and feel free to converse with other members of the College as well as myself,” said Heaston. “This is an opportunity to create an open-door for discussions among the college, whether that’s a student that has an idea they want to share or just to meet and say hello.”

Coffee and Conversations with the Dean will take place once a month at each campus location for one hour for discussions among members of the College. No formal agenda is provided. The schedule is as follows:

Armstrong Campus — Wednesday, February 26 at 2 p.m.; Friday, March 27 at 9 a.m; and Monday, April 27 at 2 p.m. in University Hall, Room 259.

Statesboro Campus — Tuesday, February 18 at 9 a.m.; Tuesday, March 31 at 3 p.m.; and Thursday, April 16 at 2 p.m. in College of Education, Room 1100J.
