Course Description:

This course is required for students majoring in Health and Physical Education and serves as a guided elective for students in the following majors: Health Education and Promotion, Child and Family Development, Exercise Science, Justice Studies, and Recreation. All other majors are welcome.

Catalog Description

This course will explore legal and illegal drug use in modern society. Issues related to the social, cultural, political, economic impact of drug use will be addressed. The recurrent theme throughout the course will be on prevention. This will include discussions on the best ways to postpone the initiation of substance use and abuse among school aged persons as well as the cessation of use and treatment for abuse among adult populations. Substance use and its abuse effects ALL of us and does NOT discriminate on the basis of age, gender, religious affiliation, sexual orientation, race, ethnicity or income.

Recovery Meeting Paper: 40 points

Students will attend one substance abuse related activity. Please read each description carefully. There are two options to select from: Option A or Option B. You only need to select ONE of the two options. You will have the entire semester to complete the Recovery Meeting Paper. Please do not wait until the end of the semester to complete this assignment! All papers must be submitted on Folio by Friday 4/27 at 10:00pm to receive credit. Late papers will be given a grade of zero.

Option A: Attend an All Recovery Meeting on campus. Meetings are held every 3rd Wednesday* (January 17th, February 21st, March 21st, and April 18th) of the month from 8:00pm-9:00pm in the Henderson Library, Room 1300. The purpose of ‘All Recovery’ night is to celebrate all who struggle with addiction, are affected by addiction or support the recovery lifestyle. *Tentative Dates (Subject to change. See Folio for News Announcements)

Assignment for Option A: See Folio for description of assignment for Option A.

Option B: Attend an Alcoholics Anonymous (AA), Narcotics Anonymous (NA) or Al-Anon meeting. Non-members can only attend OPEN meetings. For AA, open meetings are held on Tuesday’s and Saturday’s at “The Fork” (almost to the intersection of Highway 80 and Savannah Ave. at 8:00 pm.) However, students have the option of attending an AA meeting in their respective hometown communities. Local meeting days and times are often listed in the phonebook, along with the phone number to call for more information.

Assignment for Option B: See Folio for description of assignment for Option B.

Online Quizzes: 100 points

There will be seven quizzes throughout the semester. Quizzes for each module will close when the corresponding module closes (Fridays at 10:00pm). Please make note of due dates listed on your syllabus. You have only one attempt for each quiz. Quizzes will have a 20 minute time limit.

Student Expectations and Course Policies:

1. You are responsible for all course content and communication (grade feedback, news announcements, and emails) for the course. Please check Folio and your Georgia Southern email address regularly.
2. There will be no make-up exams given. Missed exams will result in a score of “0”. You must notify the professor IN ADVANCE if you have a university excused absence or a make-up test will not be offered.
3. The final exam is mandatory (cumulative) and will be given during finals week. Early final exams will not be given. If this scheduled time is a problem, please consider dropping this course.
4. Late work assignments (discussions, assignments, and quizzes) are not accepted. All assignments will be submitted through Folio with an individual due date and time. No extensions will be given.
5. Please consult the STUDENT CONDUCT CODE 2017-2018 for course policy concerning issues related to academic dishonesty. Anyone caught violating any of these regulations will be immediately reported to GSU's Judicial Board, and be assigned a “F” for the course.
6. Last day to withdraw from class without academic penalty is March 5th, 2017. Students who stop attending class without officially withdrawing from the class will receive a final grade of "F".
7. Samples of your work may or may not be reproduced for research purposes and/or inclusion in the professor's teaching portfolio. You have a right to review anything selected for use, and subsequently ask for its removal.

8. The first week of classes (by Wednesday at 10:00pm) all students must complete an introduction of themselves to be counted as University attendance verification. Failure to complete the instruction post the first week of class will result in the student being automatically dropped.

9. This syllabus, my lectures, and all materials distributed and presented by me during this course are protected by copyright law. You are authorized to take notes in this class but that authorization extends only to making one set of notes for your personal use and no other use. You are not authorized to sell, license, commercially publish, distribute, transmit, display, or record notes from this class unless you have my written consent to do so.

10. If you are receiving services from the Student Disability Resource Center (SDRC), please come and see me, as soon as possible, to schedule an appointment and to present me with an official accommodation letter.

11. When you need to contact me, please do so through the University email account- jcromley@georgiasouthern.edu. I check this account more frequently than Folio mail messages. I will do my best to respond within 48 hours (with the exception of weekends and holidays).

12. Please do not email the last week of classes asking to change your grade. You have the entire semester to earn your grade and extra credit opportunities will not be given the last week of class or finals week.

My Commitment to You:

As a student in my class, you are important to me. I am committed to your continued learning and college experience. You are never an interruption of my work. You are the purpose of it. Students are the most important people at Georgia Southern University. I am honored that you entrust your education to me. I encourage all of you to stop by during my office hours or make an appointment to discuss your progress, review your exams or assignments or discuss your career choices. Furthermore, I believe that the collegiate learning experience must involve collaboration. Students and the professor have reciprocal obligations to each other that must be fulfilled, if the learning process is to be mutually beneficial and successful. Please feel free to visit my office, call, or e-mail me at any time.

Open Door/ Closed Door Office Policy: Most of the time, when I am in my office, my door is open. Please feel free to come in and visit any time when the door is open. When my office door is closed, it means that I am not there or I am working on something and can't be disturbed. Please respect this and don't knock unless it is a dire emergency.

Students with Special Needs or Disabilities: Georgia Southern University recognizes its responsibility for creating an institutional climate in which students with special needs or disabilities can thrive and learn. The Student Disability Resource Center offers various support services and can help you if special accommodations related to your special need or disability is warranted. If you have any type of special need or disability for which you require accommodations to promote your learning in this course, please discuss your needs with the instructor immediately. It is your responsibility to come to the instructor with issues that are potential impedances to your success in this course. Each student's issue(s) will be evaluated on a case-by case basis. Students who choose to wait until the issue has persisted for a lengthy time or the end of the semester will deny the instructor with the opportunity to evaluate their needs and/or a potential solution.

Academic Misconduct

As a student registered at this University, it is expected that you will adhere to only the strictest standards of conduct. It is recommended that you review the latest edition of the Student Conduct Code book, as well as the latest Undergraduate & Graduate Catalog to familiarize yourself with the University's policies in this regard. Your continued enrollment in this course is an implied contract between you and the instructor on this issue; from this point forward, it is assumed that you will conduct yourself appropriately.

Plagiarism:

"According to the Academic Dishonesty Policy of GSU, Plagiarism includes (but is not limited to):

- A. Directly quoting the words of others without using quotation marks or indented format to identify them.
- B. Using published or unpublished sources of information without identifying them.
- C. Paraphrasing material or ideas without identifying the source.
- D. Unacknowledged use of materials prepared by another person or agency engaged in the selling of term papers or other academic material.

If you are accused of plagiarism by a JPHCOPH, the following policy, as per the Judicial Affairs website (<http://students.georgiasouthern.edu/judicial/faculty.htm>) will be enforced:

PROCEDURES FOR ADJUDICATING ACADEMIC DISHONESTY CASES

First Offense - In Violation Plea

1. If the professor and the Dean of Students agree that the evidence is sufficient to warrant a charge of academic dishonesty, the professor should contact the Office of Judicial Affairs to determine if this is a first violation of academic dishonesty. The incident will be reported via the following website:

<http://students.georgiasouthern.edu/judicial/faculty.htm>

2. If it is a first violation, the professor should talk with the student about the violation. If the student accepts responsibility in writing and the professor decides to adjudicate the case, the following procedures will be followed:

- a. The student will be placed on disciplinary probation for a minimum of one semester by the Office of Judicial Affairs.
- b. The student will be subject to any academic sanctions imposed by the professor (from receiving a 0 on the assignment to receiving a failing grade in the class).
- c. A copy of all the material involved in the case (Academic Dishonesty Report Form and the Request for Instructor to Adjudicate Form) and a brief statement from the professor concerning the facts of the case and the course syllabus should be mailed to the Office of Judicial Affairs for inclusion in the student's discipline record.

First Offense - Not In Violation Plea (student does not admit the violation)

If the professor and the Dean of Students agree that the evidence is sufficient to warrant a charge of academic dishonesty, the professor should contact the Office of Judicial Affairs to determine if this is the first or second violation of academic dishonesty. The student will be charged with academic dishonesty and the University Judicial Board or a University Hearing Officer would hear the case. If the student is found responsible, the following penalty will normally be imposed:

- a. The student will be placed on Disciplinary Probation for a minimum of one semester by the Office of Judicial Affairs.
- b. The student will be subject to any academic sanctions imposed by the professor.

Second Violation of Academic Dishonesty

If the professor and the Dean of Students agree that the evidence is sufficient to warrant a charge of academic dishonesty, and if it is determined this is the second violation, the student will be charged with academic dishonesty and the University Judicial Board or a University Hearing Officer would hear the case.

If the student is found responsible, the following penalty will normally be imposed:

- a. Suspension for a minimum of one semester or expulsion.
- b. The student will be subject to any academic sanctions imposed by the professor.

NOT RESPONSIBLE FINDING

When a student is found not responsible of academic dishonesty, the work in question (assignment, paper, test, etc.) would be forwarded to the Department Chair. It is the responsibility of the Chair to ensure that the work is evaluated by a faculty member other than the individual who brought the charge and, if necessary, submit a final grade to the Registrar. For the protection of the faculty member and the student, the work in question should not be referred back to the faculty member who charged the student with academic dishonesty.

In the case of a Department Chair bringing charges against a student, an administrator at the Dean's level will ensure that the student's work is evaluated in an appropriate manner.

CONFIDENTIALITY

In accordance with provisions of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 and the Georgia Open Records Act, any information related to a violation of academic dishonesty or the outcome of a judicial hearing regarding academic dishonesty, is prohibited and must be treated as confidential by members of the faculty."

University Calendar for the Semester

The University Calendar is located with the semester schedule, and can be found at:

<http://em.georgiasouthern.edu/registrar/>
