Georgia Southern University officially opens landmark learning center in Ireland

Georgia Southern University leaders traveled to Ireland last week to officially open its learning center in Wexford. The ceremonial event proved to be so significant it attracted the Deputy Prime Minister of Ireland and led to a meeting with Ireland's president – the first official meeting between a Georgia Southern president and a foreign head of state.

Courageous Conversations begin Dec. 2

“Courageous Conversations” is sponsored by the President’s Student Advisory Committee (PSAC) on Inclusive Excellence.

The first in a series of “Courageous Conversations” events will focus on “Privilege, Respect and Social Responsibility.” The event will be held on the Armstrong Campus on Dec. 2 at 6:30 p.m. in the Ogeechee Theatre. The event will also be held on the Statesboro Campus on Dec. 4 at 6:30 p.m. in the Russell Union Ballroom and will be live-streamed to the Liberty Campus in room 105.

“Courageous Conversations” is open to students, faculty and staff.

In February 2020, PSAC will sponsor a town hall/panel discussion on “Social Justice” and in March 2020, the topic will be “Gender and Sexuality.”

This is an important way to continue the commitment to ensuring Georgia Southern is a welcoming home for all, where each student feels a sense of belonging.

Celebrate Giving Tuesday with a gift to Georgia Southern Giving Tuesday on Dec. 3 is a global celebration dedicated to philanthropy and giving back. Businesses, civic groups and university communities will come together to give to the places and causes they believe in.

Georgia Southern's #GivingTuesday is a campus-wide initiative where you can support the cause of your choice. By making a gift to Georgia Southern on Dec. 3, you're making it possible for future leaders to earn their degrees.

Join us on Dec. 3, so we can see how high we can soar together by giving back on one day to support student success!

Georgia Southern's RN to BSN helps graduates elevate their careers

With more than two decades of experience in nursing, Georgia Southern University alumna Sharen Martin thought she would work as a flight nurse for her entire career. However, her life took an unexpected turn when her position as a chief flight nurse was eliminated in 2004. After learning about the RN to BSN degree program at Georgia Southern, Martin knew it was the perfect fit to achieve new goals and accommodate her lifestyle.
