SUBJECT: June 4, 2013, Faculty Senate Recommendation: Periodic Review of College Deans

Following review of the recommendation adopted by the Faculty Senate at the June 4, 2013, Faculty Senate meeting, as provided in your memo of June 7, 2013, I have approved the motion below presented to the Senate by Dr. Robert Costomiris on behalf of the Faculty Welfare Committee.

MOTION: In the fifth year of a Dean’s tenure (or earlier if requested by 30% of the college’s voting membership) the Provost shall conduct a comprehensive review of the College Dean. This review shall include input from a broad spectrum of constituents including faculty, staff, administrators, students, and the community served by the College. After reviewing all of the material presented by the Dean, the report of the Committee established to assess the Dean’s impact on the college, and the results of the review by the college faculty, the Provost will decide if the Dean shall continue employment in that role. Whatever the Provost decides, he/she will make available in writing to all interested parties an explanation of his/her decision.

RATIONALE: In the interests of shared governance, the Faculty Welfare Committee moves that the above motion be approved by the Faculty Senate. It is the Committee’s intention that the details of this policy be clarified and established by the Faculty Welfare Committee in consultation with the Provost at the start of Fall Semester 2013 so that a completed policy can be presented and voted upon at the October 2013 Faculty Senate meeting.
