My News

Georgia Southern University

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/mynews

Part of the Higher Education Commons

Recommended Citation
https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/mynews/248

This newsletter is brought to you for free and open access by the University Communications and Marketing at Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. It has been accepted for inclusion in My News (2014-2020) by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@georgiasouthern.edu.
Intern Scholarship Program keeps student on track for NASCAR internship

Last summer, Megan Leben landed a dream internship with NASCAR team Joe Gibbs Racing. The Office of Career and Professional Development’s Internship Scholarship Program, which provides funds for students with unpaid or low-paid professional internships, helped Leben relocate to Charlotte, North Carolina, and make her dream a reality.

Read More »

A new playing field: former athlete turned educational leader inspires students to be campus, community leaders

John Egan, Ed.D., spent his undergraduate and graduate academic career pursuing degrees in sports management. As an award-winning college pole vaulter, Egan wanted to continue his passion for sports, melding it into his career. Yet, in 2012, when he began as an advisor in Georgia Southern’s Student-Athlete Services, which provides academic support and development to student-athletes, Egan’s professional focus quickly shifted from sports management to students.
Georgia Southern’s Jiann-Ping Hsu College of Public Health secures $248,000 grant

Faculty in Georgia Southern University's Jiann-Ping Hsu College of Public Health have secured a $248,000, two-year grant from the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, the nation’s largest philanthropy dedicated solely to health.

This project will be funded as part of the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation’s Research in Transforming Health and Health Care Systems program, which seeks to build the evidence base on the potential effects of policies or policy changes intended to transform health.

How four Georgia Southern students used jewelry to earn $5,000 scholarships

More than eight months of teamwork and a jewelry line concept earned four Parker College of Business students a $5,000 scholarship each after they were named the Top Team during the annual National Retail Foundation Student Challenge.
Georgia Southern educational leadership faculty recognized for international award

Georgia Southern University’s Daniel Calhoun, Ph.D., associate professor of educational leadership, is one of only three individuals internationally to receive the 2020 Annuit Coeptis Senior Professional Award from the American College Personnel Association — College Student Educators International.

Read More »

‘Godspell’ next up in Main Stage Series at Performing Arts Center

GODSPELL
FEB. 27 -29 AT 7:30 P.M.
MAR. 1 AT 2 P.M.

BY STEPHEN SCHWARTZ AND JOHN-MICHAEL TEBLEIAK

DIRECTIONS BY LISA L. ABBOTT, SCG.
MUSIC DIRECTION BY JOEY BIELIK
CHOREOGRAPHY BY MARTYN MILLER

A CO-PRODUCTION OF GEORGIA SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY AND THE PERFORMING ARTS CENTER

PERFORMING ARTS CENTER
Statesboro Campus
PAC Box Office: 912-478-7999
CAT Box Office: 912-478-5379
theatre@georgiasouthern.edu
Students - $10 | Faculty/Staff - $17
General Admission - $20
Broadway favorite “Godspell” will be presented by Georgia Southern University’s Theatre and Performance program and the Performing Arts Center (PAC) on the Statesboro Campus through March 1. The musical is a part of the PAC’s 2019-2020 Main Stage Series.

Read More »

Center for Sustainability seminar series opens with former NFL player

Two-time All-Pro and former NFL player Ovie Mughelli will be a featured speaker at this year’s Sustainability Seminar Series hosted by Georgia Southern University’s Center for Sustainability (CfS). Mughelli will present his lecture, “Empowering the Next Generation through Greening Sports,” at 7 p.m., Tuesday, March 3 in the Performing Arts Center on the Statesboro Campus. The event is free and open to the public.

Read More »

Baseball, men’s tennis in full swing

Baseball vs. Mercer
Tuesday, February 25
6 p.m. | J.J. Clements Stadium

Baseball vs. Radford
Friday, February 28
6:30 p.m | J.J. Clements Stadium

Men’s Tennis vs. South Florida
Saturday, February 29
2 p.m | Wallis Tennis Center

Read More »
Men’s tennis has two home matches this week against the University of South Florida and the University of North Carolina Wilmington at the Wallis Tennis Center. Saturday there will be postgame autographs with the team for Recreation Day.

The Eagles host Radford University in a weekend series starting Friday night. Sunday will end the series with free admission for all Jr. Eagle Club members.

Get free gear, experiences and stay up to date with the Eagles using the brand new GATA Rewards app. The app is available to download in the App Store or the Google Play Store.

---

On-Campus News

- Science on Tap brewing scientific conversations in Savannah, Statesboro
- Georgia Southern ‘New Teacher Thrive and Survive Summit’ assists new teachers with classroom management
- Arbor Day annual celebration helps to make Georgia Southern greener
- Sexual Assault Awareness Week wraps up with Take Back the Night March
- Wexford Lecture Series begins with public talk on Statesboro Campus
- Breaking Gendered Boundaries begins the Spring 2020 Moveable Feast events
- Recreation and Wellness host annual Spring Break, All Sports Camp on Armstrong Campus
- Second annual ‘Shine, Black Girl, Shine’ black women empowerment awards set for Feb. 29
- Georgia Southern students host first annual Coastal Georgia Reverse Science Fair
- 31st annual National Youth-At-Risk Conference to be held in Savannah
- Two Georgia Southern faculty appointed to editorial board of new interdisciplinary focused international journal
- Longest-running international history film festival returns for fourth season
- Piano in the Arts presents season-ending concert on Georgia Southern’s Armstrong Campus

---

In the Media

- Georgia Southern’s Jiann-Ping Hsu College of Public Health secures $248,000 grant – Savannah CEO
- Arbor Day Celebrations – WSAV
- Editorial: Georgia Southern legend Adrian Peterson an example of local sports icon – Savannah Morning News
• The Top 5: Do Savannah’s best bets, Feb. 20-26 – Savannah Morning News
• Savannah Section National Council of Negro Women “Continuing the Legacy” – Savannah Tribune
• Mayor says city’s financial condition is strongest ever – Statesboro Herald
• Isle of Hope students win NASA competition – Savannah Morning News
• Women In Revolt! leads slate of compelling films – Connect Savannah
• Letters to the editor Tuesday: GSU-Armstrong graduation will be ‘lovely’ – Savannah Morning News
• Coastal Empire set to host 2020 UEDA Conference – Fox 28
• Engineers Week 2020: Resident engineer speaks about building a career with USACE – U.S. Army Corps of Engineers
• Locals create collaborative storytelling project – 11 Alive
• Community Calendar: U.S. Navy Band Tour: 7:30 p.m. Feb. 28; Georgia Southern University-Armstrong Campus – Savannah Morning News
• Savannah groups distribute menstrual supplies to those that can’t afford them – WSAV
• Regents Honor Scholars from each institution during Academic Recognition Day – Georgia CEO
• Try Savannah Science on Tap for laid-back learning – Savannah Morning News
• Progress continues on GSU business incubator – WTOC
• Chatham Co., Georgia Southern team up to provide more play space for youth athletics – WTOC
• City Talk column: Holiday limitations hurt commerce, community – Savannah Morning News

Follow Georgia Southern on Snapchat!

Scan our code to add us as a friend.

What’s Happening?

Head over to our Event Calendar to find out what’s happening at Georgia Southern!